Lady Lions split in weekend action

The Penn State Harrisburg women's softball team split four games this weekend, grabbing two wins against conference opponent, Penn State Abington, 9-7 and 13-5, on Saturday then dropping two games versus conference foe, Penn State Berks, 13-1 and 11-0 on Sunday.

In Saturday's doubleheader, the blue and white were able to hold off a late charge by Abington in game one with freshman pitcher, Jordyn Cooper (Pittsfield, MA/Wahconah) earning her second win on the season. In game two, the Lady Lions would score 13 runs on 12 hits to cruise to the 13-5 victory powered by sophomores Emily Pae (Harrisburg, PA/Susquehanna Twp.), 3-for-4 with 4 RBIs, and Rachael Vettori (Palmyra, PA/Palmyra), 2-for-3 with 3 RBIs including a two-run home run in the bottom half of the third.

Sunday's doubleheader featured a combined 24 runs and 27 hits from Penn State Berks en route to defeating the Lady Lions in a lopsided affair, 13-1 and 11-0, with Penn State Harrisburg's sole run coming in the first inning of the first game.

The blue and white will be on the road for the remainder of the season, traveling to Immaculata University Tuesday, April 13th to face off against the 5-10 Mighty Macs in non-conference action. First pitch is scheduled for 3:00 PM.
