Installation at Ithaca. - On the 11th inst. Rev. David Torrey, late of Delhi, N. Y., was installed pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ithaca.

The first pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Wisner, over eighty years of age, and still with eye undiminished, and natural force little abated, delivered the charge to the people. The sermon was preached by the pastor's brother-in-law, Rev. Z. M. At the meeting of Presbytery, previous to the installation of Mr. Torrey, the relations of our church to the Home Miss. Society were made a topic of discussion, and it was voted nem. con. to request the churches to send their collections to the Church Extension Committee.

Rev. Lewis Godden.—We announced a few weeks since, that Rev. Lewis Godden had removed from Columbus, Ind., to Cincinnate, and taken charge of the Industrial School on Water Street. He was taken sick a few days after his removal. He lingered in great weakness, but with his soul stayed upon God, until Wednesday night, the 11th inst., when he fell asleep in Jesus. His remains were taken to sermon at the Alexander Presbyterian Church, last Newark for interment.

New School Newspapers.—The Central Chris tian Herald, of Cincinnati, says there are but three weekly newspapers in the country that really sympathize with the New School Presbyterian Churchthe New York Evangelist, the American Presbyterian, Philadelphia, and the Herald.

The aggregate circulation of these three papers, in a membership of one hundred and forty thousand, is only twenty-five thousand, whereas it ought to be at least fifty thousand.

Deserved Compliment.—The Rochester University, a Baptist institution, has conferred the honorary degree of D. D. upon Rev. Edwin S. Wright, of Fre-

This is gratifying news to the Christian public, who have been pained at the prospect of want and suffering, which, until recently, seemed imminent.

Princeton College.—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, the Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D. D., of Baltimore, was elected a Trustee of the college. The Rev. Joshua Hall McIlvaine, D. D., of Rochester, N. Y was elected Professor of Belles-Lettres, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Professor M. B.

The Board also created a new Professorship, to be called the Professorship of the English Language and Literature, and elected the Reverend Robinson P. Dunn, of Brown University, to fill the chair.

A Georgia correspondent of the Southern Presby terian, writes to know something of their labors, pre sent positions and plans. That paper replies:

We can only say that we are as ignorant of the wherenbouts and doings of the Evangelists as he seems to be. For months we have been waiting and expecting to hear from them in some way, but thus far we have waited in vain. For aught we know, Dr. Stiles may have gone to his professorship in Virginia, and Dr. Cunningham finding his physical strength inadequate to sustain the labors required may have been obliged

We hope, however, that neither of these supposi

tions is correct. We are disposed to believe that the labors of the evangelists have been so arduous and incessant as to leave them neither time nor strength to furnish an account of their operations.

Revival.—At a communion held in Plain Grove Church, Allegheny Presbytery, (O. No less than seventeen adults have been baptized in this church within a year.

1st. So far as the Territories are concerned, it is exclusively party, and of the wrong party. Whoever contributes through this committee, contributes to spread, not merely party views, but views which evangelical men consider, conscientiously, however incorrectly, as not calculated to push the truth in its purity, or our church in her strength.

3d. The rule of the Domestic Committee, giving bishops the absolute nomination of all missionaries within their-borders, is inconsistent with the Catholicity of our communion, which opens the field of missions to all the elements of which our Church is legitimately composed.

The Lord's Supper before Breakfast.-We are surprised that our Episcopal friends, sticklers for order, even to the minutest points of public service, should allow the following proposition of the alumni of the General Theological Seminary to pass without serious animadversions: "This resolution looks to the arrangement of an early service, with celebration of the Holy Eucharist and an ensuing breakfast, of which the Alumni may partake together."

Bishop Delancey's Offer,-Last week the Episcopal papers reported Bishop Delancey's offer to the thousand dollars and ten acres of land in Westchester article."

They now state that the bishop's offer was not ten thousand dollars, but only the ten acres of land on a farm in Westchester county, within twenty miles of New York, the value of which would obviously be very greatly enhanced by the removal of the Seminary to the premises.

Minnesota P. E. Convention.—A commendable interest in the spiritual condition of the Indian tribes in that district of country was manifested in the recent meeting of the Convention in Minneapolis. The Bishop read letters he had just received from Bad Boy and Grand Medicine, a principal chief and a high priest among the Chippewas, expressing their conviction of the truth of the white man's religion, and their desire to have it taught to them and

It was a harrowing tion or commencement of three new edifices, one of man's devising, from his Holy and Immaculate them being a new enterprise, in New Hudson, Michigan. One is a new building for the First Society in Baltimore. In Concord, N. II., there is much trouble in the denomination. The pastor, Rev. J. II. Moore, gave so much offence by neglecting to administer the communion, by admitting Parker Pillsbury into his pulpit, by advertising from his desk Minstrel Concerts and Dancing Assemblies, and participating in the latter, that a considerable number of the Society withdrew, and set up public worship for themselves, claiming to be the First Universalist Church. An attempt has been made to discipline him, but while the charges are admitted, discipline has been refused by the church authorities.

> Roman Catholic Colleges out of favor with their own Alumni.—The Pittsburgh Catholic says: "We must say that our old Cathelic institutions of learning in this country, have been particularly unformer Alumni. Every where else, a student looks | Cor. Ban. back with pride and affectionate love to his Alma Mater. Not so here; where those who knew nothing of the interior working of American Catholic Colleges are frequently edified by denunciations, which, we are told, are based on a long experience and thorough knowledge of the case."

Mr. Douglas and the Papists.—The fact that Scotland, advancing the proper work of the Church Mr. Douglas had married a Romanist, it was thought would recommend him to those of his lady's persuasion. It is no protection, however, from the attacks of the Reviewer, O. A. Brownson. Mr. Brownson in the last number of the Quarterly is particularly severe on the Douglas wing of the Democracy, whose principles he maintains, if logically developed, would lead to John Brownism. "We are not politicians, and have no opinions to give on the present state of affairs; but those who are called on to take sides, General Theological Seminary as including both ten would do well to read and examine carefully this England.—At St. George's East, disturbances continue as before. The character of the neighbors of that famous parish, may be learned from the fact, that of 733 houses in the immediate vicinity, 154 are brothels. Within the past two years 140 of this fallen class have been rescued by the St. George's Mission.

"Such a state of things proves more than the true friends of the Established Church wished to know. It evidences too plainly, the unjust and sinful inequality that obtains in the national Church. The Archbishop of Canterbury has $15,000 a year, the Archbishop of York-£10,000, and the Bishops from £5,000 to £8,000 a year."

The London Sabbath.—Among the institutions f London, is one entitled the "Metropolitan Sunday Rest Association," the object being to dispense, as far as possible, with Sunday labor. > The Bible Women Movement. This, says the News of the Churches, is one which shuns notoriety, but which has been productive of a vast amount of good. It is under the direction of a lady, authoress of the Book and its Story and the Missing Link. She employs one hundred poor godly women at (what work. would seem to us,) the very liberal wages of twelve shillings and sixpence ($ 300) a week, as city missionaries or Bible colporteurs—a most admirable plan for gaining unlimited access to the homes of the poor and degraded, and for winning their confidence. The News' correspondent has had ample opportunity for gaining information, and declares that by the Divine blessing, Hanks, 13 Cornhill, Boston. being brought to bear on the lowest and most degraded of London houses (or rather dens.) by which the clean-liness which is next to godliness, the sobriety which contrasts with gin drinking and wasted wages, and a resurrection of spiritual life may all be secured. The issues are already marvellous. All over London and its environs the movement is now spreading. Many a poor wife and husband becare now living in Word, theirs is the life hid with Christ in God.

THE REVIVAL ASSEMBLY .- The late Scottish Free Church Assembly was justly styled in the beautiful closing language of Dr. Buchanan, the Moderator, the Revival Assembly.

What a blessed thing to be able to give it such a name as indicative of great realities. What a change in Scotland in the last two years, especially in the last year. What stirring, tear-starting, joy-inspiring, faith-quickening, prayer-moving tidings were brought from almost every part of the land. condition of the people. In Bavaria in the year 1857, complete statistical returns upon the condition of the Protestant Church this side of the Rhine, were laid before the General Synod. In Prussia similar returns have been made for single provinces; but a complete work embracing the whole of Germany does not exist, and we are more thoroughly acquainted with the condition of the Evangelical Churches of the United States, Great Britain and Belgium, than with that of our own lars in responsible hands, to be divided among the policemen of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York, in return for their services to the Embassy.

We presume, no class of men engaged in the reception and escort of the No Kamis and their train more truly deserve this substantial compliment. The share which falls to Philadelphia is three thousand three hundred dollars.

As the force numbers seven hundred and eleven men, and the amount due to each officer is but small. it has been proposed to convert the sum into a fund for the relief of sick and distressed policemen and their families

This would make an enduring memorial of the considerateness of these Orientals, as well as confer a lasting benefit upon the police themselves. ·BANDITTI ABROAD.—The road from Washington to

If Medicine is necessary, use Brandbeth's Pills. They are as pleasant as a truly effective medicine can be. It is true you may take purgatives which will operate without pain, because they take the blasamic parts from the blood, which is worse than being bled, worse than having the vital fluid abstracted. Beware of them. Brandreth's Pills only take hold of those matters which the bloody, when sick, wants to evacuate. They are solely an assistant of nature,—nothing more, nothing less. They do not force; they merely assist; and herein is their great value. The man is thrice blessed who is so fortunate as to be acquainted with this good and almost perfect gift to man, because he has to a great extent his body insured in health by their occasional use.
