HERE IS MY HEART. 'My son, give me thine heart."-Prov. xxiii. 25. "My son, give me time nears. —Prov. Artic.

Here is my heart!—my God, I give it Thee;
I heard Thee call and say,

"Not to the world, my child, but unto me;"
I heard, and will obey.
Here is love's offering to my King,
Which, a glad sacrifice, I bring—
Here is my heart.

Here is my heart !- surely the gift, tho' poor, My God will not despise;
Vainly and long I sought to make it pure,
To meet thy searching eyes;
Corrupted first in Adam's fail,
The stains of sin pollute it all—
My guilty heart!

My guilty heart! Here is my heart!—my heart so hard before,
Now by thy grace made meet;
Yet bruised and wearied, it can only pour
Its anguish at thy feet;
It groans beneath the weight of sin,
It sighs salvation's joy to win—
My mourning heart!

Here is my heart!—in Christ its longings end,
Near to his Cross it draws;
It says, "Thou art my portion, O, my Friend, Thy blood my ransom was."
And in the Saviour it has found What blessedness and peace abound— My trusting heart!

Here is my heart!—ah! Holy Spirit, come, Its nature to renew,
And consecrate it wholly as thy home, A temple fair and true.

Teach it to love and serve Thee more, To fear Thee, trust Thee, and adore—
My cleansed heart!

Here is my heart!—it trembles to draw near
The glory of Thy throne:
Give it the shining robe Thy servants wear,
Of righteousness thine own;
Its pride and folly chase away,

And all its vanity, I pray—
My humbled heart. Here is my heart!—teach it, O Lord, to cling Here is my heart!—teach it, O Lord, to In gladness unto Thee;
And in the day of sorrow still to sing,
"Welcome my Lord's decree,"
Believing, all its journey through,
That Thou art wise, and just and true—
My waiting heart!

Here is my heart!- O Friend of friends, be near, To make each tempter fly, And when my latest foe I wait with fear, Give me the victory

Gladly on thy love reposing, Let me say, when life is closing— Here is my heart!

CLERGYMEN'S WIVES.

If it be said, the duty of a clergyman's wife is only that of every other good wife to her husband,—She is married to the minister only, and she is not installed over the parish, but her husband, &c., in reply, it may be said, All this is literally true, but practically false: for, she is considered, equally with her husband, the proto visit all the families of the parish-to be the leader at all the "female prayer meetings," and "Mothers' Associations," and the President, Treasurer, or Directress-general of the "Ladies' Benevolent and Beneficent Societies;" but also. to be the model for all other females, in dress.

room," when she commenced as follows: "Mrs. B., the landlord's wife, at the hotel, was very much pleased with Mrs. M.'s new dress, last Sabbath, and she (the dressmaker) was going to the city with her to get just such a one. Where did she get it? and what was the price? Did she get it cut in the city? Was it a Paris pattern? She never did see a dress so beautiful, and fit Betty hastened to the nursery to inform her mistress, and to request her immediate presence. as the dressmaker was in a hurry; for they had been delayed so long already, that the cars would start and leave them.

But Mrs. M. had found the children in such condition that she could not leave them immediately, so, as the dress-maker could not wait, she had to leave without the necessary information. When Miss P. communicated her ill-success to the landlord's wife, the latter was quite discom-posed. Her visit to the city would be of no use, as she might hunt from street to street, and store to store, and spend the whole day without at last finding the one where Mrs. M. bought her dress; and if she found it, of what use would it be, unless she could know where it was cut? She did wish their minister's wife could leave her children a minute. They were no better than other people's children, if they were the minister's, though their mother thought they were. She hasn't a spark of politeness about her, if she is the minister's wife. She don't know what good manners are; if she did, she wouldn't treat her in this way, when her husband paid ten dollars a year towards the minister's support. It was astonishing how ungrateful some creatures were. Her husband should leave that meeting, that he should. She'd let the parson know that." All this was soon carried to the ears of Mrs. M. and her husband, by Miss Spinster, who boarded at the hotel, and who was a very good friend of the minister and his wife. "I am so good a friend to you," said she, "that I can't hear such things said about our minister's wife without telling you on't. Some people keep everything from the minister till all the parish get against him, and then he has to leave, and makes a great stir, and we're all broke up, and have to get a new minister. But that was never my way. I don't think it's Christian. When I hear anything against my minister or his wife, I always come right off and tell him on't; and I think, if everybody'd do so, it would save a great deal of trouble because, you know, he ought to know what the people say about him, and who are his friends, and who are his enemies.

"But the landlord's wife is dreadfully put out and there's another thing, now I'm here, which I spose I ought to tell you. My Aunt Q-, you know she's an old lady, and been a leading member in the church a great many years, long before you came here, and she's got money, and paid ever so much to help the parish along. She says 'she's very sorry you offended the landlord's wife perty of the parish. She is expected not only to preside over all of his domestic concerns yet he helped support you; and we can't afford to lose any more from the parish now, since so many have gone away of late.' She says 'she don't think you meant to offend Mrs. B., but you didn't consider how hard it comes upon a few of us who have to bear 'the heat and burden' of supporting all who are afflicted with sickness—to attend you. It didn't used to be so, when our last minister was here (dear man,) and his wife too! every marriage and every funeral—in a word, What a woman she was? THIS PRICELESS PIECE OF PAPER." Said a gentleman in the Fulton street prayer meeting on a recent Monday, at the same time holding a piece of paper in his hand: "I suppose no amount of silver and gold would be sufficient to buy this little piece of paper. There is a wonderful history connected with it." Mr. Chairman, will you allow me to read it to the meeting?

MARCH 18, 1860.

To the Fulton Street Prayer Meeting. I have heard that persons might ask for prayers. I thought you would be so kind as to pray for me, a little boy of ten years, that I may be converted.

P. S.—Pray for me every day. "I took this piece of paper from the book of rejuests up stairs, and left an exact copy in its place. I have spent hours in looking for it. This is wanted to be returned to his father, who seeks it HOUSE, HOTEL, AD SHIP FURNISHING as a part of the history of an only son and an only child, and a most precious chapter in that little life.

"On the 16th day of September this little boy soared away to his everlasting rest in heaven. He died a most triumphant death by faith in Jesus Christ. I remember when that request for prayer was read in this meeting, and how it took hold on all our hearts. I remember the earnest prayers which were offered up. We cannot tell whose prayers were answered. This very request is a Boils, Blains, and all Skilliseases. prayer, for there was the deep desire to be converted in that young heart. It may be it was this, or ours, or his parent's prayers which were answered, but sure it is that prayer was answered, and a little lamb has been gathered into the bosom of the Good Shepherd. What a history is connected with this little piace of namer. To wonder that siver and gold cannot buy it.

We keep the copy. We send the original to those who will shed many tears of joy and sorrow when they see these lines.

"I was uncertain where to find it, for it was not known when it was written, whether in February, or March, or April. I am informed that this little boy gave most unmistakable evidence of being a true disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. And we may now hope he has gone to be with him n heaven."

But she had heard the speech, and as the resistless sweep of its argument and the gorgeous and massive magnificence of it imagery were yet vivid in her mind, she persisted in undertaking the difficult work. In due time thereafter the fair manuscript came to Mr. Webster's hand for final correction. Scarcely a word needed to be changed; and soon a set of diamonds costing a thousand dollars, accompanied the rich thanks of the eloquent statesman.

LUCID PREACHING.—A correspondent of the Watchman and Reflector tells the following: preacher of no mean reputation, I was really puzzled to understand what the celebrated divine intended by his eloquently-delivered and well-worded discourse. I think my friend was as much in the dark as myself, for on asking him what he thought of the sermon, he answered, 'It comes under the third head,' 'What do you mean by that?' said I. 'O, I was only thinking about a popular and rather eccentric French preacher, who, after a long and pompous introduction, said, "I shall now WILLARD'S P proceed, my hearers, to divide my subject into three parts. 1. I shall tell you about that which I know, and you do not know. 2. I shall tell you, about that which you know, and I do not know. And lastly, I shall tell you about that which neither you nor I know," I am decidedly of the opinion that Mr. Blank's sermon this morning came under the Frenchman's third head.

It is known that the city of Narbonne in France, has been lighted for the last three years by means of burning hydrogen. The metal, platinum, like all other substances, when at a high temperature, omits a brilliant light, hat nalike most other substances when highly heated it does not combine with oxygen, and it may, therefore, be kept hot for a long time without being consumed. This property has been taken advantage of to produce a light, and for several years the platinum light with a perfectly clear flame, the only product of its combustion being pure water. It will be seen from the following interesting narrative, that there was a time when JOSEPH GALES stood alone among Congressional reporters; and to still further illustrate his position in that line, we call to mind what we once heard an intimate friend of Mr. Webster say we owed to reply to Hayne. Meeting the Massachusetts Senator as he was going to the Capitol on that morning, Mr. Gales inquired of him how long he intended to speak. About half an hour, was the reply. The editor's duties at that time were pressing; but he ventured to take so much time from them. Mr. WEBSTER, however, directly, after met Judge Story, who said that he thought the time had come to give to the country his views on the Constitution. To this proposition he assented. Mr. Gales took up his pencil, unaware of this new arrangement, and alike unconscious of the lapse of time under the enchantment of the orator, and consequently he wrote on until the close of the spell. Some days passing away and the 'proof' of the speech not appearing, Mr. Webster called on the reporter and made inquiry I have the notes, said Mr. Gales, and they are at your service, as I shall never find time to write them out. This led to some remonstrance and persuasion, but the over-tasked editor stood firm. Then Mrs. Gales came to the rescue by saying that she thought she could decipher her husband's short-hand, as she had formerly occasionally done so. Mr. Gales doubted, seeing that it was fifteen

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtue. Its univalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. New are the communities or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know, the dreadful fathity of these disorders, and as they know, took the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind. SEWING MACHINES.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES The marked, and ever extending, popularity of SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES, both in America and Europe, is such as best to establish their superiority and Europe, is such as best to establish their superiority over all others in the market. Sewing machines (so called) may be bought, it is true, for a smaller amount of dollars, but it is mistaken economy to invest anything in a worthless or unreliable article, and those who do so must abide the consequence!

SINGER'S NEW FAMILY MACHINES. In order to place THE BEST FAMILY MACHINES IN THE WORLD within the reach of all, we have reduced our Letter A, or Transverse Shuttle Machines, beautifully ornamented, to $50.
Singer's No. 1, and 2, Standard Shuttle Machines, both of very general application and capacity, and reduced, respectively, from $135 to $90 and $100.
Singer's No. 3 Standard Shuttle Machine, for Carriage
Makers and heavy leather work. Price complete, $125.
Also, to complete the list, an ENTIRELY NEW ARTICLE, unequalled for manufacturing purposes, noiseless, rapid, and capable of every kind of work! Price (including iron stand and drawers,) $110, cheaper at that, in view

All of Singer's Machines make the interlock statch with two threads, which is the best stitch known.
Every person desiring to procure full and reliable information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing. can obtain it by sending for a copy of I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette, which is a beautiful pictorial paper entirely devoted to the subject. It will be supplied gratis.

LADD, WEBSTER, AND CO.'S TIGHT LOCK STITCH

SEWING MACHINES. BUY THE BEST, AND GET THE CHEAPEST! They stitch, BUY THE BEST, AND GET THE CHEAPEST! They stitch, hem; bind; fell, rim, and gather without basting; use a straight needle and wheel feed, and make stitch alike on both sides of the cloth. They are without any of those delicate and nice adjustments, which make many machines "more plague than profit." We claim them to be the best made machines in the world; and capable of doing a greater range of work, in a more satisfactory manner. PRICES REDUCED to $50, and upwards.

WONDERFUL CURE OF ASTHMA ASTHMA A BY JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. This unrivalled remedy for Pulmonary Diseases is equally successful in all countries and climates in subduing diseases.

The Rev. Eugenia Kincaid, a Missionary in Burmah

It is rare that we use any medicine except your pre-parations. About three months since, a Burman female of rand, who called on us, as we learned from her husband, bad suffered for EIGHTY YEARS with ASTHMA, and often, for weeks together, had been unable to sleep, except in a sitting posture.

It was painful to look upon her emaciated frame and distressed countenance. Feeling quite satisfied that no medicine could restore her to health, we (i. e., Dr. Dawson and Mr. Kincaid) thought only of affording some temporary relief, and gave her about one-third o about temporary renet, and gave ner about one-third of a bottle of your expectorant. One week after, her husband came for more, and informed us that, for the first time in eight years she had slept sweetly. In one month and a half she was entirely restored, and has the selection of the first time in the selection of the selecti month and a half she was entirely restored, and half increased nearly one-fifth in weight:

BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS. BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS.

AIMSVILLEE, VA., Jan. 1st, 1858.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir; In the year 1840, I was in very bad health, which I attributed to teaching school in the previous year. I was attacked with hemorrhade (eleeding of the lungs,) but after using one bottle of your expectorant, I was relieved, and have not had an attack since. I have also given the same medicine to children for the whooling cough, and have always found it to be of great advantage in mitigating the disease, and finally effecting a cure.

THOS. H. ROLLINS.

From W. W. Winters, M. D., Milledgeville, Ill.
DR. D. JAYNE & SON—Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure that I can recommend your EXPECTORANT to those suffering with Bronchial affections. Also, your ALTERATIVE, for eruptions, or any disease arising from an inactive or disordered liver, having used these remedies for the above mentioned diseases with satisfactory results.

Very respectfully yours,

DROPSY AND CANCER CURED.

COLDMBUS, Miss., Jan 24, 1857.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir. It is with pleasure that I make known to you the invaluable efficacy of your EXPECTORANT, and ALTERATIVE and SANATIVE FILLS. Gen. W.P. Orton, one of my neighbors, was cured of Bronchitis, by the use of your Expectorant and Alterative after having lain sight for forty dutys, at the point of death, and three eminent physicians having exhausted their skill upon him. Several cases of Dropsy and Cancer have been cured in my neighborhood. My little daughter was taken last November with an Enlargement on her neck, which grew very fast I immediately commenced giving her your Alterative, and she is now nearly well. Gratitude toward you, and a desire to benefit the public, have induced me to write DROPSY AND CANCER CURED. and sne is now nearly well. Gratting toward you, and a desire to benefit the public, have induced me to write this, and although I am a stranger to you, you are more than welcome to publish this if you wish.

Yours, in friendship,

THOMAS L. TUNNEL.

NEWS FROM SWEDEN. NEWS FROM SWEDEN.

[Extract of a letter from the Rev. A. Wiberg, dated Stockholm, Sweden, March 10, 1857.]

"Your invaluable medicine, the Expectorant, has been of very essential service to my throat and breast, and I can scarcely do without it a single day. Several of our friends, to whom we have occasionally given some, express themselves as being much benefited."

ASTHMA, SPITTING OF BLOOD, &c. STOCKTON, Owen Co., Ind., Sept. 4,1857.

Dr. JAYNE: My wife has been severely afflicted some years with BRONCHITIS, and having heard of the wonderful afflicacy of Your world afflicacy of Your world affile affice and the wonderful affile affile and the wonderful affile affile and the wonderful affice world with the world affile affile and the world affile affile affile and the world affile af derful efficacy of your expectorant for coughs, asthma, difficulty of ereathing, spirting of blood, and other diseases of the lungs, I purchased one bottle of it, and one box of SANATIVE FILLS, and am happy to inform you that, after using the Expectorant, her cough was immediately suppressed, removed the difficulty of breathing and pain, produced a free and easy expectoration, and in one month effected a complete cure.

BRONCHITIS AND SPITTING BLOOD. MILLVILLE, Butler Co., Ohio, Oct. 8, 1857.
Dr. D. JAYNE: I certify that during harvest, in July last, I was taken with the BRONGHITIS, and spit up quite a quantity of blood. I had also a severe cough. I first took one bottle of the ALTERATIVE, and then three bot-tles of the EXPECTORANT, which cured me. JAMES E. VAN HORN.

EPIDEMIC CATARRH AND INFLUENZA. WM. LLOYD, Lisburn, Pa., writes:—

January 6, 1858. I am just recovering from a severe attack of influenza, or epidemic catarrh, in which disease I found your Expectorant to be an inestimable medicine.

COLDS, COUGHS, AND PAINS IN THE SIDE AND BREAST.

DEAR SIR: In the Fall of 1848, I was attacked with a most violent racking in my left side, immediately under my heart, giving me the most excruciating agony, and at times rendering me entirely speechless. I tried for nearly a year all the remedies which were recommended for my disease, under the most skilful physicians, but unfortunately without success. I was at last about to give up in despair, when a kind friend thought of your give up in despair, when a kind friend thought or your expectorant. I procured a bottle of it, and before I had entirely used the whole of it, I felt manifest symptoms of a change for the better. I continued on using it, and by the time I had taken five bottles, I found myself

Yours, very respectfully, T. W. M. HARVEY. Pastor of the First Precilyterian Church, Terre Haute, Ind., May 8, 1848.

CROUP. JOHN HARRIMAN, Esq., Stewartstown, N. H., writes:—
"Not long since, a child of mine had a very violent and distressing attack of Croup, which must have proved fatal had not immediate relief been obtaided. I commenced giving your expectorant, and within three-quarters of an hour, the child, having taken six teaspapenfuls breathed with perfect ease a cure within that spoonfuls, breathed with perfect ease, a cure within that time having been effected."

The Rev. James W. Daniel, Blackwater, Morgan Co., Ky., writes:—
"I have used your EXPECTORANT 2nd CARMINATIVE BALSAM in my family with the most happy effect. I rode eight miles to-day for some of your EXPECTORANT, to give one of my children threatened with Croup."

GRAVEL. ABSALOM FLIPPEN, Long Point, Washington County, DR. D. JAYNE & SON-Dear Sirs: Another singular case

DR. D. JAYNE & SON—Dear Sirs: Another singular case of the remarkable effects of your medicine. I have been afflicted with a very SEVERE COUGH, and racked with the GRAVEL, and this, too, for a number of years. I procured one bottle of your expectorant, and two boxes of SANATIVE PILLS, and after using them my Cough left me. I also used one or two bottles of ALTERATIVE, and I have not been troubled with aither disease size. I have not been troubled with either disease since. Twenty pages of certificates might be given from persons of character and veracity, if necessary. Read Jaynes' Medical Almanac for 1860.

DR. D. JAYNE & SGN; No. 242 CHESTNUT ST., Philadelphia, where all Dr. Jayne's valuable medicines may be found. BRONCHITIS. WESTRILL, Green Co., N. Y., Nov. 3, 1859.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: It affords me a great pleasure to add my feeble testimony in favor of your invaluable medicines. Some eight years ago, I had a very severe attack of Acute Bronchitis, and I was considered by inteligent physicians a confirmed consumptive. By the very free use of your EXPECTORANT I recovered. In using it, I surpassed the directions, as I took it in nau-seating doses for several weeks. Since that time I have made great use of it, and of your ALTERATIVE AND CAR-MINATIVE BALSAM, in my family, and prescribed it to others with the very best results. Respectfully yours,

Letter from Theo. H. Peters & Co. Philadelphia, January 19, 1860.

Messrs. Farrel, Herring & Co.,
629 Chestnut Street.

Gentlemen:—We have recovered the Herring's Patent Champion Safe, of your make, which we bought from you nearly five years ago, from the ruins of our building, No. 716 Chestnut street, which was entirely destroyed by fire on the morning of the 17th inst.

So rapid was the progress of the flames, before we could reach the store, the whole interior was one mass of fire. The Safe being in the back part of the store, and surrounded by the most combustible materials, was exposed to great heat. It fell with the walls of that part of the building into the cellar, and remained imbedded in the ruins for more than thirty hours.

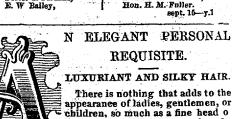

The Safe was opened this morning in the presence of a number of gentlemen, and the contents, comprising our books, bills, receivable money, and a large amount of valuable papers, are all safe; not a thing was touched by fire. Philadelphia, January 19, 1860.

Respectfully, yours,
