

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1860.

THE AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN AND GENESEE EVANGELIST.

A WEEKLY FAMILY NEWSPAPER, Published every Thursday, at 1384 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Devoted to the promotion of sound Christian doctrine and pure religion, especially as connected with the Constitutional Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

TERMS. To Mail Subscribers, TWO DOLLARS per year, IN ADVANCE. City Subscribers, receiving their paper through a carrier, will be charged fifty cents additional.

CLUB RATES FOR THE FIRST YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION. In order to induce persons to make a trial of our paper for a year, we offer the following reduced club rates to new subscribers to hold good for the first year of their subscription.

Four copies to one Post office, $7.00, or $1.75 each. Ten copies, $15.00, or $1.50 each. Twenty-four copies, $32.00, or $1.33 each.

Forty copies, $50.00, or $1.25 each. CURSUS SECTIO. Our desire of putting a copy into every family in the congregation, will be facilitated in their good work by the above rates.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS IN THE CITY will be supplied at the same rate, adding fifty cents to each for delivery by carrier.

All papers will be continued after the expiration of the year unless expressly ordered to be discontinued, and such orders should be by letter, and not by returning a paper. To secure a discontinuance, all arrears must be paid.

Remittances may be made directly by mail at the risk of the payers, and receipts will be returned in the paper.

To encourage ministers and others to aid in circulating the American Presbyterian, we will renew the premiums offered last year for new subscribers.

PREMIUMS. Any clergyman of our denomination who will send us two new subscribers, with payment for a year in advance, shall receive his own paper FREE; and for every additional THREE names he will send an extra copy to any friend he may direct.

To interest all the friends of the AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN AND GENESEE EVANGELIST in doing something to increase its circulation and consequent usefulness, we offer to any person sending us three new names, with six dollars, the paper for a year, free of charge, for himself or any one whom he will name.

For four new subscribers, with eight dollars, we will send a copy of the Presbyterian Quarterly Review for one year.

Any person sending twenty dollars for new subscribers shall receive from the author a complete set of Barnes' Notes on the New Testament, eleven volumes. To encourage the circulation of the paper, Mr. Barnes has generously made this liberal proffer to any extent that it may be accepted.

Religious Intelligence.

OUR OWN CHURCH. Synod of Ohio.—The narrative says: Several of our Churches have been blessed with special manifestations of the Spirit.

Ordination in Brooklyn.—The ordination of Rev. Charles H. Thompson took place on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., in the Siloam (Pres.) Church, Brooklyn, in the presence of a large and highly respectable audience, composed mostly of those who regularly worship in the church.

Rev. W. J. Erdman, of Reading, Pa., has accepted an interesting call to the charge of the "House of Hope," (Rev. E. D. Neill, former pastor) St. Paul, Minnesota, during the winter, and entered upon his duties on the 11th inst.

Phar. Church, Newark.—Rev. Dr. Hamner, late of Baltimore, has accepted the call of this church. He preached there on Sabbath last, and is to be installed on Tuesday, 4th of December.

Rev. J. W. Atherton, was installed pastor over the First Presbyterian Church at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, November 15th.

The Presbytery of Newark, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., received Rev. John O. Gunther, from the Moravian Church, and installed him pastor of the First German Reformed Church in Newark.

Rev. J. W. Atherton, was installed pastor over the First Presbyterian Church at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, November 15th.

The Presbytery of Newark, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., received Rev. John O. Gunther, from the Moravian Church, and installed him pastor of the First German Reformed Church in Newark.

conversion, and nearly that number have united with the churches. The Baptists numbered 20; the Methodists 30; and the Presbyterians 48, 14 of whom are heads of families. There were from twelve to eighteen hopeful converts who had not, at last accounts, been united with the churches.

Apoplexy.—Rev. Dr. Edgar, the aged and highly esteemed pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Nashville, died of apoplexy, Tuesday morning, 13th inst. He had prayed-meeting the night before.

Death in the Pulpit.—Rev. Angus C. McNeill, the Presbytery church, while preaching on a recent Sabbath morning in the church near Pleasant Hill, Alabama, of which he was pastor, on Roman 5, 11, suddenly sank into his seat, when about half through his discourse, and died almost instantly, without a struggle or a groan. He was a pious and able minister, much esteemed, and universally regretted. He was buried in the same dress, and just as he was retired that morning.

FOREIGN. Mr. Sprague's Habits.—His habits are of the most frugal, simple, and self-denying character. The most of his time is spent in the study of the Scriptures and sound doctrine.

Sandwich Islands.—It seems that a law recognizing and regulating prostitution has passed in these islands. The "Pacific" quotes from Sandwich Island papers to show that the Governor of Oregon exercised considerable influence in securing its passage.

Visit of a Missionary.—One of the most successful female missionaries on record has just paid a visit to Montreal. We allude to Miss Plak, of the Paris Society of the American Board.

Mr. George D. Prentice's Lecture on the "Political and Religious Condition of the South." On Tuesday, November 20th, was a severe and very indiscriminate censure of our public men—such as the most bigoted anti-republican writers and editors.

State of Religion in England.—The English correspondent of the "Zion's Herald" writes the following: Days of Pentecost appear to be drawing near and nearer to England. Prayer-meetings are multiplying everywhere.

The Warsaw Convention.—This meeting of the three empires of Russia, Prussia, and Austria, is still a topic of interest. The Austrian Minister has addressed a note to the Austrian representative abroad, in which he makes it clearly understood that non-intervention in the affairs of Italy was agreed upon.

New York Evangelical Alliance.—The New York Evangelical Alliance, an organization for supplying the religious destitution of the city, was organized on a recent Sunday evening in the church of the Rev. Dr. Alexander. Rev. Mr. Goss, the Secretary of the Alliance, presented a statistical report, stating that there were two hundred and seventy churches in the city, of which twenty-five were Roman Catholic, and twenty-five were churches not regarded as evangelical; that of the 843,741 inhabitants of the city, only 255,580 could be accommodated in the churches, leaving 588,161 without a place of worship.

Heat on the Red Sea.—Accounts from Malta report that the heat in the Red Sea is becoming daily oppressive. In October, several deaths occurred on steamers on account of the frightful temperature, and a perfect panic prevailed on board of one of them.

By the Palestine, with Londonberry dates to the 9th, we have the following: A Victor Emmanuel arrived at Naples on the 7th. He entered the city in company with Garibaldi and the acclamations of the people. They proceeded to the cathedral and afterwards to the palace. The attending festivities were conducted with great zeal and spirit, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

Later, per Africa.—Liverpool, Saturday, Nov. 10.—The African mail steamer has arrived and reports the slave trade as brisk. The American barque Annetta is reported as having sailed from Wyndham, Sierra Leone, on the 2nd inst., and is expected to arrive at the harbor of Gaeta to-morrow.

Siege of Gaeta.—Despatches from Naples state that the Piedmontese are vigorously pushing on the siege of Gaeta. Troops of the King's army have landed at the small town of Mola di Gaeta, and the Piedmontese headquarters have been advanced to the town of Mola di Gaeta. It was ascertained that the defenses were in good condition, and that numerous redoubts and other fortifications were thrown up on all sides to command the route to Gaeta.

A Milan paper says that Lord John Russell's despatch is just now of more value to Italy than would be a decisive battle. Victor Emmanuel entered Naples on Thursday, November 8th. Garibaldi sat by his side in his carriage, and the two leaders of the Italian revolution were attended by his ministry.
