first Tuesday in January, to be continued at inter-vals of three months; a historical fact not generally nown. George H. Stuart, Esq., paid a handsome tribute to Mr. John Bliss, the young man who was the ori-ginal mover in these meetings in Philadelphia, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Fourth street, below Arch, on the 23d of November, 1858. Mr. Stuart also read a letter from Mr. Bliss, in which the latter suggested, as an appropriate watchword for the fu-ture, the following text,-"Jesus Christ-the same

Mr. Dale, a member of one of our leading mercantile houses, arose, towards the Francis II. to abandon the contest. close of the meeting, and suggested that there was apparently little propriety in denominating these meetings business men's meetings, and he urged, as town. a business man, upon business men, that they should more frequently avail themselves of the spiritual bedi :---nefits of attending and participating in these noonday assemblages for prayer. At the suggestion of a bro-ther, the time was extended fifteen minutes beyond the usual hour. There was a large attendance, and the proceedings throughout were marked with the best possible spirit, and gave unmistakable tokens of the continuance of these meetings in the future.

Thanksgiving Day a large audience attended the Church of the Epiphany, where the 22d anniversary of the Philadelphia Bible Society was held. The statement of the operations of the Society shows that n connexion with the Pennsylvania Bible Society organization amounts to ninety-eight thousand seven hundred and forty-eight Bibles, and one hundred and "You, too, women, cast away all cowards from forty-five thousand seven hundred and forty-two Tes-taments. High Church Preaching. — A writer in the Churchman, New York, complains of the preaching of his pastor for six months: "He goes on battling words, waging wars with no demons nor vices, but impotent shadows—telling me for forty minutes in the morning that he is a priest and I a layman, the morning that he is a priest and I a layman, and for thirty long minutes in the afternoon that I am but a layman, while he is a priest, and somebody else is a bishop. Is the whole body of the laity to starve, while the shepheids have gone off, not to the echoes the advantages, the indispensableness, and the authority of the crook ?"

Drunken Professors. — The Arkansas Baptist says: — "We have known a church of fifty members, male and female, stunted and kept lean and lank on account of carrying year after year a drunkard! account of carrying year after year a difusion Count it as you may, one member with a half-gallon of 'red eye' in him every day, is a heavier load for a church to carry than three-score had ten Samsons for the redemption of our brearen who are still the Monthly Meeting of Ministers .- The Evangelical ministers of Cincinnati hold a meeting on the second Monday of each month, at three o'clock, P. M. The place of meeting, last Monday, was the Lecture Room of Wesley Chapel. About fifty ministers, representing nine or ten different denominations, were present. Rev. Dr. Aydelott was called to the chair, and Rev. W. H. Harrison, of the Luthe ran Church, appointed Secretary. Most of the time was spent in brief statements concerning the condition of the various denominations, nearly all of which were encouraging.-C. C. Herald.
