The Sizth Anniversary of the Young Men's party. Christian Association of this city was held on Mon-day, December 2d, at Concert Hall. It was attended by a large and brilliant audience. Mr. Wanamaker, the Secretary, read the report, showing that the association had been prosecuting its work of throwing Christian influences around young men who were strangers in the city, and of bestowing fraternal attention upon the sick and needy. City missionary labors had also been performed to a considerable extent. Twenty thousand tracts had been distributed. There is, however, a deficiency in the Treasury, and a necessity for returning to the zeal and activity which originally characterized the Association. A number of addresses were delivered. It is true you may take purgatives which will ope-rate without pain, because they take the balsamic parts from the blood, which is worse than being bled, worse than having the vital fluid abstracted. Beware of them. Brandreth's Pills only take hold of those matters which Brandreth's Eills only take hold of those matters which the body, when sick, wants to evacuate. The stone was quarried upon the premises, and the greater Almshouse. The building is fifty by one hundred and sixty feet in dimensions, and two stories high. It would have been completed more speedily but for one reason, and that is, that as soon as the work was suggested to them, most of the able-bodied paupers ran away. Under the old regimen a horde of sturdy paupers held possession of the Almshous Under the present management, there are few or none of this sort of citizens to be found in it. The new building is a first rate one of its kind. The second story will be occupied by the shoemakers, tailors, and weavers, the superintendent of manufac tures, and store room for the use of the manufacturing department. The building formerly occupied by the weavers has been converted into a blacksmit shop, with the necessary furnaces and forges for doing all the work that is appertaining to this branch of industry. -U. We trust that those who do not now receive THE RIBUNE wiz subscribe for it without delay. The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics, its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on the continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the compaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of Horace Greeley, is due much of the glory of the victory, over which a nation of Freemen is now rejoicing.
