Christian and ministerial character. Since he came to Mercer street, we understand that the congregation has been fully sustained, notwithstanding that it is now quite far down town. But it has had heavy losses, within two or three years, in the death of such men as Anson G. Phelps. Benjamin F. Butler, Judge Mason, and others, who were its "pillars." Of the remaining old members many are drifting away to the upper part of the city. Under these increasing disadvantages of position, Dr. Clarke has felt constrained to resign. The decision will take the pubrespect. Of his future plans we are not informed, but we could wish that this might not lead to his removal from this city. Among all her ministers, New York has not many such men to lose.—Evangelist.

The Rev. Francis Herron, D. D., for forty years the hunored pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, fell asleep in Jesus on the 6th inst., at the ripe age of eighty-six. Upon the day following that of his departure, on motion of the venerable and distinguished Judge Shaler, him-self an Episcopalian, the following order was made in the District Court and Court of Common Pleas. "It having been announced in open court that the Rev. Francis Herron, D. D., had departed this life, and that the funeral obsequies were about to be per-formed on the forenoon of Saturday, the 8th inst., it is ordered that, as a token of the high veneration and respect this court entertains for that distinguished theologian, venerable citizen, and eminent and apostolic servant of God, and in deference to the public sentiment entertained in reference to this irreparable loss, the court will adjourn to Monday next.

The Syrian Sufferers .- CONTRIBUTIONS IN GER-MANY .- The new Evangelical 'Kirchenzeitung,' of Oct. 27th, acknowledges the receipt of five thousand nine hundred and fifty thalers for the relief of the Maronites. Seven hundred thalers of this amount WHEELING, (not West Port, as stated) Cook county were sent to Pastor Fliedner, of the Deaconess Institution at Kaiserswerth, to be applied to the accommodation of Syrian orphans in the orphan house at Smyrna, and eight bundred thalers were handed to the deaconess Von Trotha of Kaiserswerth for the purpose of founding an orphan house in Beirut.

The Berlin University.—This celebrated institu-tion observed the first semi-centennial jubilee of its existence on the 15th of October. The year 1810, in which it was founded, was one of great confusion and distress in Prussia on account of the wars of Napoleon. It has ever been distinguished for the ideal, as distinguished from a direct, practical, tendency of its course. Among the Professors have been, in Theology, such men as Schleiermacher, De Wette, and Marheineke; in Philosophy, Fichte and Kla-proth; in law, Savigny. Among the members of the Academy have been Wolff, Niebuhr, and Buttman. Among its graduates were such as Steffens, Ritter, and J. Muller, (author of a celebrated treatise on the nature of Sin,) also Stahl, the statesman, Ranke and Von Raumer, the historians; Bekker, Bopp, Luchmann, Zumpt, the philologists; Neander, Twesten, Nitzsch, Hengstenberg, and Strauss, theologians. The jubilee lasted three days. The most impor-tant part of the exercises was held in the church of St. Nicholas, which was adorned and illuminated, in The Increase of 1860 .- The Annual Minutes of the day time, for the occasion. He denies the right of secession. In the House.—Mr. Crawford called up the reso-lution introduced yesterday declaring that the Con-stitution recognises property in slaves; that Congress has passed laws to aid slaveholders in recapturing their slaves, whenever they escape and make their way into the free States. It was tabled, 88 to 81. THURSDAY, Dec. 20.-Senate:

The President announced, as the committee under Mr. Powell's resolution, Messrs. Powell, Hunter Crittenden, Seward, Toombs, Douglass, Collamer Davis, Wade, Bigler, Rice, Doolittle, and Grimes. The House adopted Mr. Curtis' Pacific Railroad Bill, which provides that there shall be two eastern branches, starting from the western borders of Iowa and Missouri, uniting two hundred miles westward of that border, and thence by a single line going to San Francisco via Salt Lake. Also, a southern line starting from Arkansas and Louisiana, with two branches uniting westward thereof in a single line, and reaching California by the southern route. Congress, Friday .- In the Senate the bill to allow the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to cross the Potomac at Long Bridge, was passed. Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, withdrew his refusal to serve on the Com mittee of 13, at the request of Mr. Yulee, of Florida. The House was not in session. Congress, Wednesday, Dec. 19th.—In the Senate,

Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., continued his speech in favor of compromising, but against the right of secession. Speaking of the whisky rebellion, he said :

Washington sent 15,000 men to put down that rebellion. That was the way he enforced the laws. Suppose the whole people of the State of Pennsylvania had rebelled, would not it have been just as constitutional to enforce the laws against the whole as a part of the State? He also said:
