OTHER BRANCHES OF THE PRESBYTE-RIAN CHURCH.

Mr. Van Dyke's Moderation.-The following from a late number of the Augusta (Georgia) Sentinel, is an additional proof of Mr. Van Dyke's "modera-

, "I say freely, that unless the hostile legislation of the Northern States is repealed, and the violent and unchristian agitation of the slavery question put down, your State and all other Southern States ought to break loose from the government that will not protect their rights, and from a people who disregard the plainest obligations of consanguinity and brother-hood. But then I believe, before God, that if we can only have more time, even-handed justice will soon commend to its own lips this poisoned cup abolitionism has mingled for you. These religious dema-gogues have had their day. HENRY J. VAN DYKE."

Monod.—At a meeting of the Presbytery of Alle-gheny city, Mr. Monod, son of the Rev. Dr. Monod, of Paris, was licensed to preach the Gospel. He goes at once to labor in Mr. Chiniquy's colony, where ie spent last summer. Dr. Hodge and New Orleans .- The True Witness and Sentinel, while differing decidedly with Dr. Hodge on two points, in the late article on the State of the Country, says, nevertheless:

The calm, clear, logical power with which some of the points are handled, is masterly; perhaps seldom, if ever, surpassed. He shows the heart of a patriot and a Christian, thrabbing with an earnest desire to do good to every American and especially to every child of God.

CONGREGATIONAL.

Rev. J. L. Corning, pastor of the First Presby-terian Church, Milwankee, has accepted a call to the Plymouth Church, Chicago, on a salary of $3,000 ner annum.

Rev. Charles Lowell, D. D. — The death of Rev. Charles Lowell, D. D., of Boston, is mentioned. Dr. Lowell was the father of James Russell Lowell, the poet, and had just celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of his settlement over the West Church, Boston. In the rupture of the Congregational denomination, many years since, into the Trinitarian and Unitarian wings, Dr. Lowell refused to identify himself with either section, and called himself simply a Congregationalist to the day of his death. He was supposed, however, to sympathize with the Unitarians.

EPISCOPAL.

The American Church Missionary Society.-A large and impressive meeting of the friends of this society, was held January 25th, in the Church of St. Paul, Philadelphia. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Schenk, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. Newton and Rev. Mr. Parvin.

been taken to deny the statement that at the com-mencement of the South Carolina troubles, the Episcopal clergy omitted the prayer in the liturgy for the President. Whatever may have been the fact then President. Whatever may have been the fact then, it is certain that now, since secession has been de-clared, this offensive and unjustifiable omission has been made. A clergyman, writing to an Episcopal ournal in the North, says that, "in accordance with Episcopal authority; the clergy of this diocese, so far as we are informed, substitute the words, 'Governor of the State' for the President of the United States; at the same time adding the remaining portion of the prayer. They thus show their continued adherence to Church law as their regard for State action." An outsider would deem this a curious way of show ing adherence either to "Church law" or to Chris-tian charity.—Christian Intelligencer.

BAPTIST.

Newark, N. J .--- Within the last ten years, the Baptist churches of Newark, N. J., have had remarkable growth. Then there was but one church, of 400 members-now there are five churches, having 1,500 members. When the pastor of the First Baptist church entered upon his duties, the church had 340 members—now it has 730 members, and one of the largest and best meeting-houses in the country.

Newspapers,-These times are giving severe lessons to the publishers of religious journals in certain sections. The Baptist Standard, of Nashville, the Southern Baptist, of Charleston, and the Western Watchman, of St. Louis, have all ceased to be issued. Nothing is easier than to start a newspaper, but nothing is more difficult than to keep it up to the paying point.

Nana Sahib, Murderer of the Missionaries.-Calcutta, November 23, 1860.-The most important announcement that I can make in this letter is this yond the Nepaul frontier, and in a country over which Jung Bahadoor can claim no supremacy. He has plenty of money, and is able to subsist his followers without committing depredations on the villagers. He is thus not only tolerated, but cherished, and the inhabitants have aided him in his attempt to conceal the fact of his existence from our authorities. It may appear strange thus to assert that a man, the story of whose death has been so circumstantially told, re-gurding whose demise, the members of the Oude Commission, in their Report recently published, assert that no reasonable doubt can exist, is still alive, and
