NEARER HOME.
When is my Father-land,
When is my Father-land,
When is my Father-land,
When is my Father-land...

a better boy under his influence, offered to send him in his wagon every day to the school-house, which stood half a mile distant, and have him brought back in the afternoon.

THE SICK MAN'S DEED OF LOVE.

He was a poor cripple—well-fingered, twisted out of all shape, and lower limbs paralyzed so that he had to drag them after him weekly, when he moved through their locomotion—a poor, unhappy murrain, and at times ill-mannered, cripple, who had been ailing for many years.

At this moment the cripple's well-known shuffling tread, the rattling of crutches was heard upon the stairs. He came up with more than his usual hurry. Croft turned with an effort, so as to get a sight at him as he entered the room.

Miscellaneous.

J. LOTHROP MOTLEY ON THE AMERICAN REBELLION.

Had the opinions of the fathers, which were of course, might have been argued, with more or less plausibility, that the States which peacefully seceded from the Union, might have been considered as having seceded from the Union, and not from the Confederacy.

THE CONSTITUTION DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR SECESSION.

But, it is sometimes asked, why the Constitution did not make a special provision against the right of secession? It is not so. The people created a Constitution over the whole land, with certain defined, accurately enumerated powers, and among these were the chief attributes of sovereignty.

MRS. SIGOURNEY'S EXPERIENCE WITH HOUSE SERVANTS.

It has been my good fortune to have employed several, who were faithful in their service, and reciprocated every expression of kindness. This alleviated, on their part, any sense of hardship, and made their exertions a pleasure.

REBELLION NOT REVOLUTION.

The right of revolution is indisputable. It is written on the whole record of our race. British and American history is marked by the number of rebellions which have occurred.

THE UNION CLOTHED WITH IMPERIAL ATTRIBUTES.

It is strange that Englishmen should find difficulty in understanding that the United States Government is a nation among the nations of the earth; a constituent member of the family of nations.

THE FUNDERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

The men who had conceived the idea of a new nation, through a long and painful revolution were the founders of the new commonwealth which permanently superseded the subverted authority of the crown.

THE SICK MAN'S DEED OF LOVE.

Not far from where the cripple lived was a man who had been bed-ridden for years, and was likely to remain so to the end of his days. He was supported by the patient industry of a wife.

REBELLION NOT REVOLUTION.

It is a remarkable fact, in these days of household sufficiency, that the number of domestic servants is decreasing. This is due to the fact that the laboring classes are becoming more independent.
