

Family Circle.

THE LIGHT HOUSE. The lighthouse was more beautiful far to my eye than if it had been a lighthouse...

THE LITTLE ROSE.

The following allegory was sent to us some years ago on the death of a beloved child. The thought is well adapted to be given upon the work, and we venture to give it to our readers.

JOE BENTON'S COAL YARD.

Just imagine the loveliest May morning that ever was seen. The sun shone brightly on the hills...

POWER OF PRAYER IN A HINDOO FAMILY.

The following anecdote was told by a missionary at one of the Spring anniversaries in London.

Miscellaneous.

CAVOUR AND HIS KING. We have already in the correspondence of Dr. McIntosh and from other sources, given the leading particulars of the dying hours of Italy's great statesman.

WASHINGTON'S DISAPPOINTMENTS.

We might puzzle our brain with the question of Washington's great disappointment in regard to the destiny of Virginia.

WATCH THE HEALTH OF YOUR CHILD.

There are a large number of diseases in children. They are seldom free from them, and by their irritation all other diseases are aggravated.

COUGHS, COLDS, CONSUMPTION.

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, &c. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. It will be admitted that no better evidence of the great curative powers of the EXPECTORANT can be offered than the grateful testimony of those who have been restored to health by its use.

INTELLECTUAL ABILITY OF THE AFRICAN.

REV. DR. J. J. WILSON, late Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, and who was himself a missionary for twenty years to the coast of Africa, in his work on Western Africa thus gives his impression of the capacity of that race.

THE GREAT FIRE IN LONDON.

By this fearful occurrence, property to the amount of $75,000,000 was destroyed, and houses to the extent of three acres consumed.
