PREMIUMS. Any clergyman procuring two new subscribers, with the pay in advance, is entitled to a third copy one year free.

Religious Intelligence. PRESBYTERIAN. The Synod of Pennsylvania in connection with the Presbyterian Church, (N. S.) met in Philadelphia, Tuesday, October 16th.

Death of Lorin Andrews.—The recent death of Lorin Andrews, LL. D., President of Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio, is a severe blow to that prominent Institution of the Low Church party, and also to the patriotic cause.

Missionary Bishop in the Pacific.—The bishops of New Zealand have consecrated Rev. John Coleridge Patterson, son of Judge Patterson, (N. S.) as his pastor.

Health of Bishop Potter.—Bishop Alonzo Potter, of Pennsylvania, on account of the feeble state of his health, has given notice that a special Convention of the Synod of Pennsylvania will be held in St. Andrew's church, in the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 23d of October, at 10 o'clock in the morning, to elect a successor to bishop Bowman.

CONGREGATIONAL. The General Association of New York recently held its twenty-eighth annual session at Hingham, and its subjoined resolution in regard to the "Church Anti-Slavery Society," was read and adopted.

Twenty-five Years a Pastor.—Rev. Dr. Blagden, senior pastor of the Old South Church, Boston, has just completed a quarter of a century in the Sabbath of September 29th.

Domestic News. THE NORTH. Subscription to the National Loan.—Providence, R. I., Oct. 17.—The subscription to the National Loan to-day, in this city, amounted to about $300,000.

ARMY. Impressive Scenes.—Prayer was lately asked in the Fulton street meeting for the Fourteenth Regiment of Ohio Volunteers.

THE SOUTH. From the Mouth of the Mississippi.—Through Southern sources we have a despatch purporting to come from Com. Hollis, in command of the rebel

More about Dr. Scott.—In the meeting of Presbytery which adopted the loyal resolutions so obnoxious to his clergyman, and which led to his resignation of his charge, he denied that Presbytery had any authority to call the present war a rebellion.

Two Interesting Facts.—The Presbytery of Washington (New School) makes the following report.—During our meeting two interesting facts became evident. One was that all our churches now enjoy the preaching of the gospel.

EPISCOPAL. Death of Lorin Andrews.—The recent death of Lorin Andrews, LL. D., President of Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio, is a severe blow to that prominent Institution of the Low Church party, and also to the patriotic cause.

FOREIGN. Revival at Hayle, England.—The revival at Hayle is still in progress. During the last four weeks upwards of three thousand souls have professed faith in Christ, and so enjoy consequent peace and pardon.

THE AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN AND GENESSEE EVANGELIST. A Weekly Religious and Family Newspaper, Published Every Thursday, at No. 1394 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

gun-boats on the Mississippi, gives an account of the attack made by them upon the United States blockading fleet, which, he says, was driven upon the sand bar and the south-west pass, and the sloops-of-war Preble was sunk.

COMMISSIONERS TO EUROPE.—It is believed that the rebel steamer Avon has run the blockade at Charleston in consequence of the negligence of the commanding officer of the squadron at that place, who has since been removed.

Plenty of Men.—That they have plenty of men we know whenever a fight occurs, for they usually outnumber us in every engagement.

INSUBORDINATION.—Reports of the insubordination and disobedience of regiments of the rebel army so frequently reach us that there is doubtless good foundation for some of them.

MISSOURI AND THE WEST. General Fremont's affairs were thoroughly overhauled by the Secretary of War, on his late visit to the West.

Novel Order.—The Lord Bishop of Rochester, England, has just promulgated a novel, but by no means unwarranted, order to candidates for ordination.

THE SOUTH. From the Mouth of the Mississippi.—Through Southern sources we have a despatch purporting to come from Com. Hollis, in command of the rebel county seat of Cedar county, which place Ben McCullough was approaching with from 6,000 to 12,000 reinforcements for Gen. Price.

MARRIAGES. On Thursday, Sept. 26, at Beverly, N. J., by the Rev. J. H. Thomas, Thomas Haslam to Miss Sarah Stevenson, both of Beverly.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Stated Clerks, Secretaries, and Others, take Notice. Hereafter, a charge will be made of Five cents per line for the first, and Three cents per line for each subsequent insertion.
