Union of Presbyterians in New Brunswick. -At the late meeting of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church. the Rev. W.-Elder submitted the Report on this subject. It recited the previous proceedings of Synod, the correspondence with the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick in connexion with the Church of Scotland, and it recommended Resolutions to the following effectwe have not a copy of the minutes at hand :-

1. That this Synod heartily reciprocates the desire of the sister Synod for the interchange of good offices, not only as tending towards union, but as an obvious lows:

That this Synod is not impressed with the exisunion, and would be pleased, through its Committee. to confer with any Committee of the Synod in connexion with the Church of Scotland on that subject. 3. That the Convener and Committee be re-appointed, and instructed to prosecute the business entrusted to them.

These resolutions were received by the Synod with the utmost cordiality, and unanimously adopted.

Methodist.

Growth of Methodism in the West. - The North Western Christian Advocate makes the following statement:

The outgrowth from The Old Western Conference since 1812, exclusive of what is on slave territory, is: Annual conterences, 25; traveling preachers, 3,269; local preachers, 4,538; members and probationers, 475,959; and an aggregate value of church property, in churches and parsonages alone, of $7,

The contributions from the above conferences to the cause of missions in 1861, amounted to $99,778. But a few years since, and the entire territory now occupied by these conferences, was an unbroken wilderness, the pasture-field of the buffalo, and the hunting-ground of the Indian.

Baptist.

Presbyterianism among the Baptists.—The New York correspondent of the Boston Watchman and Reflector in the last number of that paper says: "At a late meeting of the New York Conference of Baptist ministers, one of their number was ap- but little English, are most given to the habit of pointed to write an essay on Church Government so calling themselves Presbyterians. far as set forth in the Scriptures. In connection with this appointment an allusion was made to a recent agitation of this subject. This expression started by the essay of Dr. Jeffery. He was requested to publish his essay. He is intending to Christian Association. - Mr. Ballard, of the enlarge it, and will, probably, put it forth in the New York Association, has, at the instance of the Poughkeepsie, N. The distinguishing feature of the work is not, in the main, a new position, but rather, the use that is made of an admitted truth. That admitted truth is, that in the apostolic age there was only one church in a city or a community. That church consisted of one or more congregations; several congregations being governed in common by one Presbyter; (Elder or Bishop;) and each congregation was superintended by one or more members of the Presbytery, (or eldership,) these presiding officers being severally equal in rank. These Presbyters severally governed the respective congregations in accordance with the joint ruling of the entire Presbytery or Eldership. The administration of each was subject to appeal by the members of the congregation and to review by the Presbytery.

"The great practical aim of the essay is to follow out these principles in application to our times and circumstances. And here Dr. Jeffery will certainly come athwart some of our common opinions and usages. But let us give him a hearing. He has approached the New Testament as an earnest man, a fearless inquirer, seeking 'the old way,' and has been led to some conclusions he did not anticipate. In such an attempt, with such an aim, so accordant with the spirit of our martyr fathers, let us stand by him and encourage him to do the best that he can. When the book is published if we cannot refute or modify his positions, we will accept and sustain Haptist Home Missions.—The fourth Quarterly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Baptist Missionary Convention of the State of New York, was held in Utica, July 5th. Labors have been performed at thirty-five stations and out-stations, where 1380 sermons have been preached, 450 prayer-meetings held, 1549 religious visits made, and 1277 children and youth instructed in Sunday schools and Bible classes. The question arose, Are the soldiers of the cross as valiant for the truth as these men are for their cause? Do Christian soldiers charge bayonet upon the army of aliens? Are they confident of victory? If they do the aliens will flee as do the rebels. Christian soldiers should learn wisdom from martial conflicts.

Resignation of a Chaplain.—Rev. Thomas B. Hudson, formerly pastor of the church at Union Springs, has resigned the chaplaincy of the 75th up to the time of leaving. The religious condition of the regiment (recruited principally in Seneca, Cayuga, and neighboring counties of Western New York) is very encouraging. The weekly prayermeetings are well attended by the soldiers, and Mr. Hudson has preached regularly to his regiment on the Sabbath, occupying the Episcopal church.

The New War Programme. - General Halleck arrived at Washington July 22, under appointment of the President, as Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the Union, and to remain at Washington. This will give us what was a great desideratum, a competent military person at the head of our affairs in that department. Meanwhile Secretary Stanton has issued in the name of the President, the most warlike order that has yet appeared; directing military commanders within all the rebel States but North Carolina and Tennessee. first: in an orderly manner to seize and use any property, real or personal, which may be necessary or convenient for their several commands, for supplies, or for other military purposes; and that while property may be destroyed for proper military objects, none shall be destroyed in wantonness or malice. Second, That military and naval commanbe advantageously used for military or naval purposes, giving them reasonable wages for their labor. Third, That as to both property and persons of Afcurate and in detail to show quantities and amounts can be made in proper cases; and the several perform their appropriate parts towards the execution of these orders.

Further orders, dated July 23d, require the immediate arrest of all disloyal male citizens within reach of the Army of Virginia, and their removal South in the event of their refusing to take the oath of allegiance, and to give security for its observance. Death is threatened as the penalty of an infraction of the oath. Communication with the enemy is prohibited under the same penalty.

In Missouri, the entire militia is summoned out on six days notice, to crush the guerrillas. No arms are allowed to be sold or transferred, and a sworn report of the arms on hand must be made by all dealers, with a view to their appropriation by the State.

There is significance in these directions; the war will cease to be one of comparative forbearance to the guilty, which is another name for cruelty to the loval and innocent. Our armies will be less encumbered with baggage, and can move with far greater alacrity. The rapid movement of a portion of Pope's forces to a point within thirty-five miles of Richmond, destroying four miles of railroad track and quantities of rebel stores, and throwing the entire

To show the diabolical earnestness of the rebels, a single instance may be given, as found in the Charleston Courier, and copied in our secular journals: "The conscript law is being fully enforced in Texas, and the Government had summoned every man between thirty-five and forty-five to organize for the defence of the State. An order has been extended for every family to leave Galveston, it having been determined, as in the case of Vicksburg, to defend it to the last. Addresses were also made by Ex-Governor Pollock, Hon. W. D. Forty-two thousand dollars additional were subscribed on Saturday to the Citizens' Bounty Enlistment Fund. Among the names we find two of our clergy: Rev. Dr. Ducachet, $300; and Rev. Mr. donations for the Waldensian Theological College at Barnes, $100. These are noble examples. With the subscriptions of the Pennsylvania and Reading the former £600 for the church,—the latter £500 Railroad Companies, the sum total is $200, for the schools connected with the college, all of 000. This, added to the city subscription of half a million, would give $100 to each of seven thousand men. There would seem to be no reason to doubt that our city's quota of 5000 men will be made np without a resort to drafting.

> The War feeling has been slowly but surely and steadily rising in our State. Recruits are received for nine and twelve months, as well as for three years or the war, by Governor Curtin, under the authority of the President. A great war meeting was held in Pittsburg July 24th, at which 20,000 persons were present, and great enthusiasm prevailed. Immense bounty subscriptions and appropriations are being made all over the State. The city councils on the 24th voted half a million for the purpose. The Pennsylvania Railroad subscribed $50,000; forty citizens and business firms (including M. W. Baldwin $2000; Thomas Potter. Singleton Mercer, F. J. Dreer, C. Sherman & Son, and many others $1000 each, A. S. Whitney & Sons, $3000.) subscribed another $50,000, and provision was made for a mass meeting on Saturday. Lancaster county votes a bounty of $50 each, and Chester county appropriated $30,000 for the same purpose, which ninety citizens have pledged themselves to pay. On Tuesday, the 22d, they entered Florence, Alabama, burned all the warehouses used for commissary and quartermaster's stores, and all the cotton in the vicinity. They also seized the United States steamer Collima, used for conveying army supplies, took all the money belonging to the boat and passengers, and then burned the vessel. The property destroyed is said to have been of great value. A small detachment of General Mitchell's army was captured. The rebels then proceeded down the Tennessee river to Chickasaw, Waterloo, and the vicinity of Eastport, and burned all the warehouses which contained cotton. Another band of forty rebels attacked a wagon train near Pittsburg Landing, and captured sixty wagons, conveying commissary and quartermaster's stores.

A New Work on Practical Religion. ESTHETIC PIETY. BY REV. WM. BACON.

From Rev. ALBERT BARNES, pastor of the First "I have read with as much care and attention as I could bestow on it, a work by the Rev. William Bacon, entitled "Æsthetic Piety or the beauty and love-liness of the Christian Religion." The design of this work, as stated, by the author (pp.28, 24,) is to show 1. That the Christian Religion is essentially beautiful and lovely. 2. That Christians should strive as much as possi ble to attain and to exhibit all the excellences of this

3. That sinners as well as saints should candidly examine and correctly estimate the duties and graces of Christianity, and thence be led to adopt and practice them in order to secure all the happiness to which they will lead."

No one can doubt the importance of the subject-thus discussed. And in my judgment the author has discussed them in such a way as to be eminently uses ful to all those who will read his work. The piety of the church would be of a higher order, and the hap-piness of Christians would be much greater, if they would follow the counsels addressed to them in this book; and it would be for the eternal welfare of those who are not now Christians, if they would, as the author suggests, so examine Christianity; so lay aside all prejudice; so yield themselves to the conviction of truth, as to embrace the Christian system and practice it in their lives. I think that the book is adapted to elevate the faith, and increase the piety of the Church, and that its tendency would be to convince all persons that the Christian religion is "worthy of all acceptation," and is the richest gift which God has confer-red on mankind.—I have known the Rev. Mr. Bacon for many years, and in such circumstances as to show 'what manner of spirit he is of,' and I have the utmost confidence in his piety, his zeal, and his desire to do good to the world, and commend this work the fruit of the reflections of many years, and the result of a desire to do good when he is unable publicly to preach the Gospel, to all with whom my name may serve as a sufficient commendation of the work to induce them to examine it for themselves."

"Your work on "Asthetic Piety" I have no he sitation in commending for its judicious design, its clear discrimination of the elements of Christian character, its forcible commendation of them, and its full reference to those passages of Scripture by which they are sustained."

MARK HOPKINS. From the Professors of the Auburn Theological Seminary.

"I have read your work on Æsthetic Piety with entire approbation and unmingled gratification. It is full of sound common sense, suggestive thought and scriptural truth. It cannot fail to profit those who disabled from all labor abroad, you are able to divert your own mind, alleviate the pains of your long confinement, and render yourself widely and permanent ly useful by producing such works. EDWIN HALL. "I have read your last volume entitled " Æsthetic

Piety" with much satisfaction. The cultivation department of Christain character demands attention. Your book has my cordial approbation, as it furnishes desirable help to the many who are in need of a Manual on this subject. I rejoice that during your long confinement you are able to use your pen for the good of the Church." J. B. CONDIT. "I have read with interest and profit the work on Esthetic Piety" by Rev. WILLIAM BACON.

The street of the Green. Made directly from living persons, and from small Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, or Photographs, when persons are deceased. "Esthetic Piety" by Rev. WILLIAM BACON. The very discriminating and full analysis of the christian character it contains, classes it as an aid to self examination with the best extant works on experimental religion; and the exhibition of the reasons why piety is too often presented in an unattractive form is full of admonition to all Christians. As a work, not for popular reading, but for closet contemplation, I wish it might be put into the hands of every church member."

Saml. M. Hopkins. "I have yet been able only to glance at it"—
Esthetic Piety.' But I have read enough to discover, that it is an excellent work of its kind, skilfully adapted to recommend our holy religion even as a matter of taste; to show the groundlessness of the impression, (whence so much aversion to Christianity,) that it is "unsightly and forbidding." At the same time I am glad to notice, that you do not lose sight of those higher considerations, which would make it an imperative duty, and the true interest of sinners to probate the General event hand, it the late to the considerations.
