And then Neddy shook his head with one of those little boy-shakes that every one take a large place in it, and the Sanitary knows so well. When he went into the Commission will have to write : "We should house his mother called him to her.

"My dear Neddy, I am going away to be fort of our men; had it not been for the ungone a week. Do you think you can get tiring devotion of our women, and their genealong without me?"

I guess I can take care of myself," he replied, independently.

The mother went away, and Neddy's first cannot at this time adequately tell. Mothtask was to get himself ready for school. He ers gave their sons, wives their husbands, had a great deal of hair, and was very par-ticular about having it look nice. Neddy is the portrait of a young man, the only son loved his pastor very much. His name was of his mother, and she was a widow," a Mr. May, and he wore his hair parted on the friend said to me one day, opening her alleft side. So Neddy had two ways of part- bum. There was one song which Neddy liked to hear now. His big brother Edgar played it on the piano. It begun thus-

"Backward, turn backward, O time, in your flight Make me a child again, just for to-night.' "Rook me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep."

Mr. Sumner is world-famed, and for himself personally, the most sincere sympathy has been felt in England from the time that he was so treacherously and brutally assaulted by the ruffian Brooks, an atrocity premonitory of the treason and ferocity which commenced with the conspiracy of President Buchanan's Ministers and the subsequent bombardment of Fort Sumter. Philadelphia, January 19, 1860. Philadelphia, January 19, 1860. MESSIS. FARREL, HERING & Co., 629 Chestnut Street. GENTLEMEN:-We have recovered the Herring's Patent Champion Safe, of your make. which we bought from you nearly five years ago, from the ruins of our huilding, No. 716 Chestnut street, which was entirely destroyed by fire on the morning of the 17th inst. So rapid was the progress of the flames, before we could reach the store, the whole interior was, one mass of fire. The Safe being in the back part of the 'store, and surrounded by the most combustible materials, was exposed to great heat. It fell with the walls of that part of the building into the cellar, and remained im-bedded in the ruins for more than thirty hours. The Safe was opened this morning in the presence of a number of gentlemen, and the contents, comprising, our books, bills, receivable money, and a large amount of valuable papers, are all safe; not a thing was touched by fire.
