RECOMMENDATIONS : From Rev. ALBERT BARNES, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. "I have read with as much care and attention as

Of the highest respectability, and amiability; a mem-ber of the Presbyterian Church ; and GRADUATE of the PENNSYLVANIA FEMALE COLLEGE, competent to teach all the higher branches of an English Educa I could bestow on it, a work by the Rev. William Ba-con, entitled "Asthetic Picty or the beauty and love liness of the Christian Religion." The design of this work, as stated, by the author (pp.23, 24,) is to show 1. That the Christian Religion is essentially beau-tiful and lovel tion, including music and drawing, may be secured as public or private teacher by timely application sept 4 4t tiful and lovely. 2. That Christians should strive as much as possi ble to attain and to exhibit all the excellences of this

3. That sinners as well as saints should candidly examine and correctly estimate the duties and graces of Christianity, and thence be led to adopt and prac-tice them in order to secure all the happiness to which they will lead."

No one can doubt the importance of the subjectthus discussed. And in my judgment the subject-thus discussed them in such a way as to be eminently uses ful to all those who will read his work. The piety of the church would be of a higher order, and the hap-piness of Christians would be much greater, if they would follow the counsels addressed to them in this book; and it would be for the eternal welfare of those eads, Bills of Lading, Law and Custom House who are not now Christians, if they would, as the author suggests, so examine Christianity; so lay aside all pre-judice; so yield themselves to the conviction of truth, as to embrace the Christian system and practice it in their lives. I think that the book is adapted to elevate S.E. Scorner of Magneth and wainut Streets, raina lelphia, a few doors from his former location, where le will be happy to see his friends and customers.
