Rev. Dr. Grundy Received by the Presbytery of Cincinnati.—The Presbytery of Cincinnati held a called meeting March 26th, for the purpose of receiving Dr. Grundy, putting the call of the Central church of this city into his hands, and Thirty or more express the hope that they have of making arrangements for his installation. Dr. Grundy protested against sult they found their congregations increasing at this act of his Presbytery. Sometime after this, Presbytery dissolved his pastoral relation without respect to the requirements of the Book of Discipline in such cases. In view of the whole course of his Presbytery, Dr. Grundy renounced the jurisdiction of Memphis Presbytery, and began to preach in a public hall to large audiences. After the Federal Army took possession of Memphis, he went back into his church, and continued there until called to the N. E. Female Moral Reform Society, $5,000

Missionary Support.—It is a singular fact that, in the providence of God, the Foreign Missionary Boards of the Irish and Scotch Presbyterian churches have a full treasury, but are unable to find men able and willing to devote themselves to the work: while, on the other hand, the corresponding organization in our branch of the American church has many men offering, but has not the means to warrant their acceptance. Even the returned missionaries cannot be sent back for lack of means. Still less can the places of those who have fallen be filled. or the work be extended. Foreign churches offer their means, but withhold their sons. Our Church offers her sons, but keeps back her means.—Pres-

Rev. Dr. Vermilye, of the First Presbyterian church, Newburyport, Mass., has announced his intention of resigning his present charge, and accepting a call to the Reformed Dutch church. Utica. N.Y. He has been thirteen years the pastor of the large and flourishing congregation in Newburyport, where many eminent pastors have preceded him, and where the remains of Whitfield lie entombed.

The German Lutheran congregation in Lock Haven, Penna., under the care of Rev. Mr. Grothe, has succeeded in purchasing the Presbyterian church in that place, and will soon occupy it instead of the United Hall, in which they formerly worshipped. The price paid for the church by the congregation was $3500, though the original cost of its erection was nearly double this sum. - Lutherian.

the Best Soldiers. I have observed since I have been in the service that moral and true Christian men have the best appreciation of the great principles at stake in our present contest, are the most hopeful in the darkest hours, are the most determined in battle. In a word, the faithful soldier of the cross makes the very best possible soldier in a good and holy cause. When we first came here, application was made for two of our very best men to act as guards at houses in the vicinity of the picket line. The two men who were taken are both members of church, one a Methodist, the other a Presbyterian-my right hand men in all efforts to further the glory of God in camp. I feel their loss in camp; yet at the same time, rejoice in the honor that is thus put upon the cause of Christ. These are the men, above all others, who are to be relied upon in emergencies.—Standard.

Congregational.—Rev. J. L. Corning was installed Pastor of the 1st Con. Church of Poughseepsie, March 26th, by a council of which Rev. Dr. R. S. Storrs, Jr., was chosen moderator, and Theodore Tilton scribe. After an interview for the recital of religious views and experiences, Mr. Corning was installed in the evening. The sermon and installing prayer were by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher; the charge and right hand of fellowship by Dr. Storrs. A great audience was present, crowding the church in every part. The edifice is beautiful one, lately built, on which a moderate lebt of $7,000 remains, which will be easily handled. REVIVALS. The Pastor of the church in Amagansett, L. I., thus writes to the last Indpendent: "Interested in your weekly record of revivals. I am happy to add to this column of intelligence the fact of a glorious work of grace among the people of my charge. For two months meetings have been held every night, and the interest continues unabated. The work has been characterized by great solemnity and seriousness. A Sabbath stillness has pervaded the village. There has been no excitement but that which arises from the calm and simple presentation of Gospel truth. How quietly the work goes on!' is the frequent exclamation of the brethren. How still it is! passed from death unto life, among whom are children from nine to twelve years of age. One of respondent of the same paper mentions revivals in ten Congregational churches of which the most marked is that occurring in the church at Blake's Point, Wis., of which he says: "The church last the centre in numbers and in solemnity, until now God has graciously poured out his Spirit upon them, and some forty or fifty are rejoicing in hope: blessed reward for effort at home evangelization; a result as certain as that harvest follows seedtime."——Miss Sarah Baxter, late of West Newton, left $2,000 to the American Board, $2,000 to the American Home Missionary Society, $2,000 to towards the purchase of a personage for the Second legatee. The Boston Congregationalist says: "We are now printing 10,560 copies of the Congregationalist, an edition which we believe heads the list of religious journals in New England, while it is more than double that of any other Congregational paper in the country, except one in New York."—Two Congregational churches have recently been organized in Michigan; one at Elk Rapids, Feb. 8, and another Feb. 22d, at Northport, on the west side of the Grand Traverse Bay, making now seven churches in all within the bounds of the Grand Traverse Congregational Association.

THE NATIONAL FAST.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. OF AMERICA. A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Senate of the United States, levoutly recognizing the supreme authority and ust government of Almighty God, in all the affairs of men and of nations, has, by a resolution, requested the President to designate and set apart a day for national prayer and humiliation: And whereas, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord:

And, insomuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subjected to punishments and chastisements in this world, may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be but a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people? The Atlantic Coast. - FORTRESS MONROE, March 30.—Refugees from rebeldom, and deserters from the rebel army, are almost daily coming into our lines at Suffolk and Yorktown, and giving themselves up. Generally, the deserters bring their arms and equipments with them.

They report that movements strongly indicate the early evacuation of Richmond, though it is intended to be accomplished by a slow and sure process.

Kentucky.-A Louisville dispatch, March 31st, says The Federal forces are closely pressing the rebels. One hundred and forty prisoners were captured, near Stanford, and two thousand head of cattle recaptured, which the rebels were taking from Kentucky. On the 27th of March, General Burnside issued orders to Gen. Gilmore, commanding at Lexington, and Gen. Boyle. commanding the Louisville district, for an advance—the former to move on Danville with his whole force, leaving only enough to look out for Cluke, and Gen. Boyle to mass his forces in the vicinity of Lebanon and Beardstown and move on the rebels' rear. In the surprisingly short space of tour days after the order, General Gilmore was able to send back a dispatch announcing the complete defeat of the enemy near Somerset, over seventy miles distant from Lexington. He says, under date of Somerset, March 31, "I attacked the enemy yesterday, in a strong post of his own selection, defended by six cannon, near this town, and fought him for five hours; driving him from one point to another, and finally stormed his position, whipped him handsomely, and drove him in confusion towards the river. The Governor, Buckingham, has from 3,000 to 5,000 majority. Municipal elections all over Ohio show decided Union majorities; in Cincinnati the majority is from 500 to a 1,000. Lord Clarendon's assent to the doctrine of the dispatch at that time, so far as it might work to the advantage of Poland, is also quoted. These documents are accompanied with others of a more recent date, and a menacing tone. Austria is claimed to be in agreement with Napoleon, in the design to cripple Russia. Meanwhile the Poles appear to be heroically taking care of themselves, and if Providence employs the jealously of surrounding nations to liberate a people as much oppressed as the slaves of the South, we shall
