

The Family Circle.

The Parson Going to Mill.

The parson sat in his house one day, While wintry storm did rage; High wraith, he drank in lofty thought...

"Why told you, my reverend friend, that you would go to the mill?" "I have no time to lose."

"If my dear people wish to know How to promote my bliss, I'll simply say, a bag of meal."

GLANINGS FROM THE FOREIGN FIELD.

I have often found this kind of bread very useful. Crackers are quite too generally a vile compound of fine flour, bran, lard or rancid butter...

At the close of this deeply interesting and solemn service, the procession moved again in the same order as before, and moved to Oakwood Cemetery...

QUALITY OF WATER. Where population becomes crowded, it is impossible to keep the water in springs, wells, or even cisterns, free from contamination...

Some persons who live remote from the city have been known, when they buy a barrel of flour, to buy also a bucket of saleratus to mix with it as it shall be cooked...

Dr. Alcot says, he once spoke upon this subject, and upon going home from the lecture with a friend, the family discussed the matter...

THE PRINCETON REVIEW ON THE WAR. A commanding general has the right to seize private property, to arrest suspected persons, and to hold a court-martial...

FUNERAL OF GEN. SUMNER. This solemn event took place in Syracuse, on the 24th of last month. The body of the distinguished chief lay in state in the early part of the day at City Hall...

Miscellaneous. In what is now to be said, I shall touch somewhat upon forms of bread. This is the kind of bread that has been prepared...

Services were held in the morning at the house of Mr. Treadwell, which the procession started for the First Presbyterian Church...

It is, however, tolerably well established that grain, and many other vegetable substances, are much more nutritious when properly cooked than when eaten raw...

One of the best forms of fine bread (when fine is used) is that of ship-bread, or, as it is often called, pilot bread. This always has two advantageous properties connected with its use...
