Congregational.—At the recent Anniversary of the Chicago Theol. Seminary, it was announced that the indebtedness upon the site and building been removed, and a beginning of $5000 cash towards endowing the professorships had been made. Steps were taken to secure the remainder of the endowment, and to procure funds to keep the Seminary in operation meanwhile. —At Elk Horn, Wis., the Congregational Church, Rev. J. B. L. Soule, pastor, has been enjoying a refreshing, that has numbered twenty-five hopeful conversions with as many more inquirers—and all the results of God's blessing upon pastoral labor. It is the first revival ever experienced in the place. The great work at Delavan, Wis., which began with the Methodists, who rejoice in one hundred and fifty hopeful conversions, has added in all two hundred and fifty to the number of believers.—There has been a revival at Muskegon, Mich. adding 30 members, also one in Grandville, same state, adding 20, at the latter place, a church-debt of $1100 had just been removed. - The condition of the churches in Maine, says the Independent is for the most part very encouraging. The past winter has been to many churches a season long to be remembered. From over thirty places have been received glad news of revival, and of wandering ones flocking to the Savior. In many other places there exists a very tender interest, and a few have been gathered in where no general revival has been enjoyed. ----The New School Presbyterian church at Poplar Grove, Ill., whose members were originally Congregationalist, has voted unanimously to assume that form of government. The Presbyterian church in Paw Paw in the same state, lately made the same ecclesiastical change. --- On Sabbath last, the new Congregational Church at Florance under the pastoral charge of Rev. H. C. Hovey, received an accession of 28 members-22 by profession, (10 of whom were baptized) and 6 by letter, which addition almost equals the previous membership. The elements of Fourierism still remain in this village where "The Community" flourished in years gone by, rendering it a peculiarly difficult field of labor. --- Of the fifty-two Congregational churches in Minnesota, only one, that at Faribault, is self-supporting. Saml. H. Rogers. Solom'n Beckley. Seventeen have houses of worship. By our celerity and secresy of movement, our advance and passage of the river was undisputed, and n our withdrawal not a rebel ventured to follow. The events of the last week may swell with pride the hearts of every officer and soldier of this army. We have added new lustre to its former renown. We have made long marches, crossed rivers, surprised the enemy in his entrenchments, and whenever we have fought, have inflicted heavier blows than we have received. The Siege of Vicksburg.—Two weeks ago, Gen. Grant's advance was 18 miles from Grand Gulf, near Black River. He had not possession of any part of the Vicksburg and Jackson Railroad. The rebels were gathering even from Charleston and Mobile to resist his further advance, but Gen. Grant is also receiving heavy reinforcements. Ten negro regiments have been formed, and Gen. Thomas thinks that ten more can be formed.

Our arms, which seem to be inadequate to the work given us by the enemy in the East, gain lustre in he West both by land and water. Col. Grierson's unparalleled cavalry raid, which started from La Grange Tenn., April 16th, reached Baton Rouge in safety May 2nd having traversed the entire state of Mississippi. They cut every Railroad in the State; they evaded a rebel force of 5000 sent out to intercept them, destroying their camp equipage and capturing 300 prisoners; ten miles from Baton Rouge they captured a rebel picket of 160 men.— They have supplied themselves with fresh horses on the route, and brought in over 300 contrabands on horses, and nearly all of the latter leading norses. The damaging effect of these operations upon the enemy is beyond calculation. Immense armies are gathering around Vicksburg, and while preparations are in progress for a new assault upon that place, the back country is devastated and the people plundered by cavalry raids. MEXICO.—The more complete and reliable news which we have lately received from Havana, is, in general, unfavorable to the French army, whose repulse from Puebla is confirmed. They are again at the Fortress San Xavier, which they won at the commencement of the siege. To this point they were driven back by the bayonet, and up to date of bition. They knew the leaders of the mob, and April 22d, the projects of Forey were unpromising. Puebla was not fully invested by the French, and though they kept up a continuous bombardment, the Mexicans repaired at once all breaches made, and assumed, in various ways, the offensive. Of a battle fought at Atlixco we have French and Mexican accounts, both of which claim a victory. Puebla lies seventysix miles east-southeast from the city of Mexico, and has a population of seventy thousand. This is the limit of the French advance in sixteen months. The army of Comonfort was being largely reinforced, while that of the French
