

ter to the last Evangelist, and says that a new and beautiful Church edifice will be dedicated on the 3d Sabbath of this month at Blackhawk.

Reformed Presbyterian. Mission to the Freedmen.—We find in a newspaper of another church a report of the Chairman of the Committee of the recent General Synod, in regard to a Mission to the Freedmen. It appears he visited Washington and was courteously received; but no practical measures are yet adopted.

Miscellaneous. Remarkable Circumstance.—On a recent Sabbath a venerable and respected father in the parish of Kineff, who has attained the great age of ninety-three, and down at the commandable of the parish church, and has done so regularly since his conversion, which was in the year 1750.

A Neglected Spot in Massachusetts.—In the June issue of the Christianian, we give some account of his labors at Blackhawk, in the State of New York, during the month of August.

The Dunkards.—The "Dunkards" of Pennsylvania, at their recent annual assembly at Morrison's Grove, have resolved to prepare a life of the late Admiral Foch, which will be published by the authority of the Admiralty.

Life of Admiral Foch.—The Rev. Dr. Bacon of New York has in preparation a life of the late Admiral Foch, which will be published by the authority of the Admiralty.

Dr. Francis Wayland has made calculations showing that the American population for Foreign Missions does not receive annually as much as spent in the city of New York for cigars.

The Lutheran Church at the South does not appear to be in a very prosperous condition. A Richmond paper discussing the propriety of holding the General Conference of the Synod of the South.

Burning of Lawrence, Kas.—Quarrelling the Missouri guerrilla taking advantage of what seems a culpable negligence on the part of the military authorities of that section.

The Draft.—The President of the American Peace Society (Rev. Dr. Howard Malcom) has two sons upon whom the recent draft has fallen for service in the army.

Rev. W. L. Brockbridge D. D.—We learn that this brother has escaped from rebellion and arrived in Louisiana, Ky., which is his present post-office address.

New Haven Conn.—Mr. Henry S. De Forest, a tutor in Yale College, and a graduate of the class of 1857, having been recently elected to the service of the country, and having determined not to seek release from the duty, was ordained as an evangelist on the 22d of August.

Western Churches and the War.—Out of one hundred and ten churches in Illinois, one-eighth of the members have gone to the war.

Rev. Prof. E. A. Park, of the Theological Seminary at Andover, Mass., sailed on Saturday, the 1st inst., from New York for Bremen, to be absent some time on a tour in Europe.

Operations Against Charleston.—The siege works of General Gillmore were in readiness August 13th, but the attack was postponed on account of some difficulty as to the quality of the army ammunition, and owing to the serious indisposition of General Gillmore.

Poland, Russia, and the three Powers.—The London Times says: "It is said that the three Powers have agreed to send a Commissioner to Russia, to inquire into the treatment of the Poles."

Charleston Harbor.—Rebel armies to the 20th represent the force of 2000 Parrots from Morris Island "as too much for the walls of Fort Sumter," the fort replying only on long intervals.

Our own advice gives the particulars of the terrific bombardment which commenced August 17th. The monitors and gunboats kept the forts on Morris Island busy while our land batteries played on Fort Sumpter. The damage done to the walls is visible without a glass.

Savannah.—The Fort Royal New South has the following items: The vessel steamer Robert Habersham, which had been waiting on a voyage to the Savannah river, exploded her boiler, killing all the crew.

The South-west.—Our forces are active in exterminating and expelling the rebels from West Tennessee. The first Alabama (Union) Cavalry are assisting in the work.

Mortality of White and Colored Troops Compared.—The immeasurable advantage of sending colored troops to those parts of the South where the heat is so oppressive to white soldiers is emphatically shown by the lists in the Fort Royal Hospital from July 1st to August 4th.

Army of the Cumberland.—Parson Brownlow writes to the Christianian that on August 17, that Brigade is marching upon Knoxville, Tenn., at the head of a heavy force of cavalry and mounted infantry.

Two of the captured crew of the Atlanta escaped from Fort Warren a few days since, by crawling over the ramparts when the sentries were out by duty.
