BURIAL CASKETS.

Draped inside throughout with Cashmere, Satin, or other material, and constructed substantially air-tight by the novel invention of patent Circular. Ends, with-out any joints, making it impossible for oxygen to pe-netrate from the outside, thus rendering them more durable, and better adapted to the purposes for which they are needed they are needed. They are tastefully manufactured from grained Rose-wood, Mahogany, Black Walnut; and other materials that render them less expensive and place them within the means of persons of moderate circumstances, and all finished according to the wishes and taste of those giving the orders. While the Casket retains all the requisites of an appropriate receptacle for the dead, its construction and appearance is such, as entirely to do away with all dis-agreeable and unpleasant sensations. There is noth-ing in the arrangement or shape of the Casket, that is in the remotest degree repulsive, but quite the con-trary, it is beautiful. And surely that which tends in any degree to soften the poignancy of grief in the hour of bereavement, must commend itself to the fa-vorable consideration of every afflicted heart, and vorable consideration of every anticed heart, and sympathizing friend. The Caskets when required, are made air-tight, emitting no offensive odor, and hence are specially valuable in the removal of deceased bodies from any of the battle fields, and other, distant points to remote localities for interment, and are not liable to the ob-

LITTLE HOPE'S BIDE. "Little Hope, will you be awake early in the morning ?"

"Mother does not let James ride his rockinghorse on Sabbath."

"And so you think it is wrong for grown people to ride with a carriage and real horses." İs that it?"

"You are right, Hope, and wrong, both at once. What does James ride his rockinghorse for ?"

"Why-he likes to." "Yes, it amuses him. But suppose little Mary Green was very sick, and to-morrow Him. Think whether you do or not, Hope." For the mile or two that remained of their way. Hope sat quite still. Edward desired that her verse that week should be a good thing in her memory, and I think it was. YUGH.

THE NOVEL READER.

All day long Marcia sat in 'the corner' of the family room, reading a novel. So absorbed was she, it was hard to lay it down to take her meals even. Her mother was obliged to speak more than once if she wished her assistance in any-thing, and if at last she succeeded by an exercise of authority, in making her do what she was a first requested to, she went to the work with a sullen, tragic air, as if she was the fancied heroine of her story, enduring all manner of persecu-tions and fanciful distresses. Aunt Annie, who was but a visitor in the house, took note of all this, but wisely said that it was useless to comment until the heroine was fairly, brought out of all her tribulations, and desirably settled in life; thus Marcia might be willing to hear something beside her story. It was ended at last, and with a dissatisfied air the young lady put it aside, and came down to every-day life again. Never did the stocking basket, with its overflowing contents, look so distasteful to her-after her just taking her departure from such enchanting scenes, fragrant with orange buds, and fluttering with gossamer robes and bridal vails.

"Do you feel that your time has been profitably spent to day?" asked practical Aunt Annie, "and does novel reading make you any happier, Marcia?"

"I'm sure it makes me a great deal happier, while I am reading it, Aunt Annie, and there are a great many lovely sentiments in this book, and real religious truth is inculcated at times. I think it is a real good book, and you would think so too if you would read it, I feel sure."

"What would you think of a miller, Marcia. possibly be scattered among it, when there were "Yes, I guess so. How early, and what great golden granaries at his hand which were quite free to him. confidence. "Above all, my dear girl, such reading hardens the heart. The more we weep over imaginary sorrows, the less we shall sympathize with real ones. It deadens the soul too. The habitual novel reader cannot be also a Bible reader-cannot be a prayerful Christian. Is this enjoyment

JACHSON-Dear, Sr. Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great ser-vice. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safet and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours, respectfully, J. H. TURNER, 726 N. Nineteenth St.

From the Rev. Thomas Winter, Pastor of Rozborough Baptist Causra. Dn. JACKSON-Dear Sir : I feel it due to your excellent preparation-Hoofand's Gernan Bitters-to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was solvined by a friend to try a bothle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief. My health has been very materially benefited. I confidently recomminend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been essured by many of their good effects. Rozborough, Fa., Dec. 1858. T. WINTER. From the Rev. Thomas Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist Church.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Eilitor of the Eucyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know general, through distruct of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this more received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this more received from any simple preparation, and against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend 'Robert Shoemakar, Eq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long-continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, as the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental sigor which I had not fait for six mouths before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I interest thank Got and my friend for directing me to the use of theset. Philada, June 23, 1861.

to introduce into the country an improved breed of pigs, he had his reward in the whisperings of an approving conscience. Turnips had for years occupied much of his attention; nor had cheese passed without many serious thoughts. Onions and carrots, he might say had rarely been absent from his mind. Still much remained to be done. There was no limit to the fat which might be carried by the Clan-jainfry breed of cattle; and whatever might be the feeling of others, he, for one, would always connect the gerrimers and hogs of this district with the future prosperity of the country. PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common run, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise of Obriander Seed.

Corrander seen. This class of Billers has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their uss the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Simm-lants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death. For a Liquor Billers, we publish the following receipt. Get Ome Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result soll be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excilence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoosamland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquer, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERSI

AND, THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. s our We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nime-tanths to the lace that a contract b occurs and perivstical incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the wrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are inffaring from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofand's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. JACKSON," is on the WRAPPER of each bottle.

PRICE PER BOTTLE 75 CENTS, OR HALF DOZ. FOR $4.90.
