Army of the Potomac.—Report of Gettysburg. Gen. Meade's official report of the campaign in Maryland and Pennsylvania was published last

He sums up the result as follows :- The defeat of Lee at Gettysburg, his compulsory evacuation of Pennsylvania and Maryland, and withdrawal from the Shenandoah valley, and the capture of 3 guns, 41 stand of colors, and 13,621 prisoners. We collected 24,978 stand of small arms on the battle-field. Our own losses were 2,834 killed, 13,709 wounded, 6,643 missing-in all 23,186. General Meade pays army, officers and men.

General Meade has sent to Washington his official account of the late engagements on the Rappahannock. General Sedgwick captured 4 guns, 8 battle-flags, and over 1,500 prisoners. French took over 400 hundred prisoners. Sedgwick's loss about 300 killed and wounded, and French's about 70. General Buford passed through Culpepper Nov. 18th, and made a reconnoisance of the enemy's position on the Rapidan river. Several collisions have occurred between our forces and parties of rebel guerillas.

General Averill's Victory at Droop Mountain, W. Va., according to a despatch from Gen. Kelly, when a bloody conflict ensued in the burning streets was most decisive. The enemy's force engaged between Texan Union men and their vandal oppres was over 4,000. They acknowledged a loss of 300 sors. Thus, the very landing of the expedition has killed and wounded. The Rebel Canadian Plot.—On the 12th., intimation of designs for the rescue of the 2000 rebel 29th. officers on Johnson's Island, Lake Erie, by aid from Canada sympathizers, was received from Erie, but was scarcely credited. In the afternoon of the same day it was ascertained that Secretary termanding of orders, the iron-plated frigate Prince Stanton had sent the following dispatch to Buffalo:

WASHINGTON, Midnight, Nov. 11th.-To the Mayor of Buffalo:—The British Minister, Lord Lyons, has to-night officially notified the govern-ment that from telegraphic information received from the Governor General of Canada, there is reason to believe that there is a plot on foot by persons who have found an asylum in Canada, to invade the United States and destroy the city of Buffalo, and that they propose to the preserving Buffalo, and that they propose to take possession of some steamboats on Lake Erie, to surprise Johnson's Island, set free the prisoners of war contined there, and proceed with them to Buffalo. This government will employ all the means in its power to suppress any hostile attack from Canada.

In pursuance of this purpose, Gen. Dix was sent to Buffalo. A regiment of cavalry and a battery were sent to Johnson's Island. The United States Steamer Michigan lies off the island. The U. S. Gazette says:

Were it not for our treaty obligations, which expressly prevent the increase of our naval force upon the great lakes, we could easily provide against any such event by an augmenting of our armed steamers. England, too, bound by the same treaties, is equally powerless in that quarter, and in case the rebel conspirators should succeed in getting a privateer afloat to cruise in those waters, England and the United States would each have but one steamer to look after her. Hence the present plot was not only feasible, but was imminently dangerous.

At his summer residence in Sing Sing, New York, Mr. ROBERT PASTERSON, of New York city, on the 26th of September, 1863, in the 70th year of his age. He was for many years a ruling elder in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, New York, under both its pastors, and was at the time of his death the last surviving member of session who had been ordained by the late Dr. Alexander McLeod. He was distinguished for his active, persevering and punctual attention to all the business of the church. His place in the Session, in the chair of the superintendent of the Sabbathschool, and in the other places of trust to which he was called, was seldom vacant. He was a wise, prudent, and devout man. He had his afflictions especially in his latter days, and submitted with patience and hope to the will of God, as displayed in the sudden and very severe decease that dismissed him from the earth. Mr. Patterson had made a liberal subscription to the endowment of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and made provision for its payment in his last will and testament. In this he has set a good example to others, and expressed his deliberate conviction of the worth and importance of a learned and faithful ministry, educated in the principles of the Reformed resbyterian Church in which he lived and died.
