American Presbyterian and Genesee Evangelist.

Rev. J. Evarts Weed, who for the last four years has been laboring in Monroeville, Ohio, has accepted an invitation to engage in a Mission enterprise, under the auspices of Rev. Mr. Williams' church in Toledo, Ohio, at a salary of $1200 per year.

Other Branches of the Presbyterian Church.

Both the Synods on the Pacific coast have with-drawn from the official connection they held with hands of the Congregationalists. —The Presbyter and the Christian Herall are discussing reunion. The former wishes have concerned the horizontal and the Christian Herall are the horizontal and the backward and the backward the horizontal are the horizontal and the backward the horizontal are the horizontal and the backward the horizontal are the horizontal and the backward to be horizontal and the backward to be horizontal are the horizontal and the backward to be horizontal The former wishes by egones to be by egones and discovered. The river was too much swollen by the the union to take place as between "two indepen-dent bodies on the Constitution as it was and is." The Herald replies that it is not union but re-union that is in discussion. It says: "There can be no such reconstruction that shall 'forget the past,' for it is to the past we are invited to return.' If the it is to the past we are invited to return.' If the Editors of the Presbyter will propose to unite the two Churches as they are, and that then, when united, they shall adopt the Constitution and beunited, they shall adopt the Constitution and be-gin anew, we shall not have a word to say or write about the Exscinding Acts."—The Mobile Register gives an account of the murder of Rev. James Pelan near Okolona, Miss., by a gang of ruffians, and says: No explanation can be given, but that Mr. Pelan was a Northern man, who had come South, before the war, for the benefit of his health, and may have uttered sentiments offensivo to Southern ears, and refused a cordial support to the Confederacy.—Strange things, says the Banner, will sometimes happen. Even Old England can sur-prise us. She can fraternize with slaveholders. Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., of Richmond, Va., under date of July 11th, thus writes: "I have preached for the Rev. Messrs. Chalmers and Car-lyle, and was immediately invited by both of them to preach again. I have also been invited by Dr. Hamilton to preach for him. He is now in Ire land, and one of his elders wants me to officiate in his church next Sunday week. I am going to preach for Mr. Chalmers again to morrow; I like hi u very much, and he seeks to promote my enter-South, before the war, for the benefit of his health, him very much, and he seeks to promote my enter-tainment in many ways. When I get home, I shall have something to tell you about this strange and sudden demand for the services of a Southern slaveholder and rebel."

Baptist.—There has been a conference between the Baptist missionary organization of this country and the Grande Ligne Mission, Canada, with a view to co-operation. The Chronicle says the at-tempt failed because the majority of the missionatheir privilege but their sacred duty to commune with pious Pedo baptists. After such a declara-tion, it was of course evident that we could no longer, as a denomination, co-operate with the Grand Ligne Mission. The influential brethren in Canada West and East told us to go on and commence a mission among the French Canadians. The new Society are now fully organized, and intend to es-tablish themselves in Montreal. - 400 baptisms have taken place among the freedmen in the vicinity of Hilton Head. A contribution taken among the Hilton Head. A contribution taken among them for creating a monument to Col. Shaw, reached $180.25, every cent, says the Watchman and Re-flector, won by severe toil under that burning sun.

Episcopal.-From the New York Christian Times we learn that the drafted and accepted clergy of Western New York, five in number, have all been provided with means to escape the necossity of bearing arms. A diocesan collection of over $1100, more than supplied the deficiency in the ability of their several congregations.

Methodist.-Returns from all the conferences show an aggregate of 923,394 members, against It was commenced by an attack of Burnside on the show an aggregate of 925,594 members, against 942,906 last year—a very large and alarming de-crease. Has Methodism reached its culminating point? What has become of the thousands and thousands of accessions announced last winter and thousands of accessions announced last winter and thousands of accessions announced last winter and spring? The deaths 13,269 are not sufficient to account for the decline.—Rev. John Kennaday, D. D., an old and highly successful minister, who has labored in the New York and Philadelphia confer-Three desperate charges were made upon our positions during Sunday night, but they were handsomely repulsed. On Monday morning, Gen. Burnside evacuated Lenoir, but, owing to the ences, was struck with apoplexy while in a prayer meeting in Brooklyn, Nov. 10th and died Nov. 14th. He was twice pastor of Union Church, Philadelphia, and of Asbury Church, Wilming-ton.—A new church is in contemplation in the western part of our city, "worthy of Methodism;" so says the Methodist.—Bedford Street Mission is under the care of Rev. J. H. Beckwith, who warns the chartishle avainst indiscrimingte giving in that under the care of Rev. J. H. Beckwith, who warns the charitable against indiscriminate giving in that vicinity. He says: "Some benevolent gentleman distributed a lot of clothing on the street some time ago, and went home no doubt thinking he had done a gread deal of good, because the women he gave them to promised to come to church and do better; but he did positive harm. None but the least worthy received any of them, and they sold them at the 'cribs' down here, and ent cloriously denies of the state charge onerebels drove our men by a desperate charge one-third of a mile from their first position. Army of the Potomac, Nov. 15th.-A cavalry issance to the Rapidan revealed the presence of the enemy in entrenchments along the South bank. As our cavalry approached they were greeted heavy storm of Saturday night to cross, and so our cavalry returned. Soon after their withdrawal the of the 3d Corps last week, turned out and recon structed the fencing on the farm of John Minor Botts, which had been destroyed by the troops encamped in that vicinity. Mr. Botts is now at home and in good heath and spirits.

The South-west.-The telegraph has been exten ded from St. Louis to Fort Smith, on the western paper writing from Chattanooga says:

"This new move on the military chess-board, by which the Federals got possession of Lookout Valley and the railroad to Bridgeport, was a masterly stroke. The conception was brilliant, execu-ted admirably, and the combination faultless. Everything slipped from us so easily, or was taken so adroidly, we hardly know when it was done. There is no longer any doubt of the Federal compander's ability to obtain superline this minter commander's ability to obtain supplies this winter unless speedily overcome. To do this we shall have to fight another battle, and overcome physical difficulties of a serious character. Why, then, should we remain longer in the mud and water of Chattanooga Valley?"

Our own advices say :--

Hooker's position is considered impregnable. Communication by the river between Brown's Ferry, two miles below, and Bridgeport is uninter-rupted and secure. Wagons pass daily by the river road. Supplies for men and animals aro accumulating steadily. The dead point of danger is past. The army is sanguin and the future is bright. The enemy hold Lookout yet, and throws shell occasionally in both directions. Nearly all fall short. None have been injured in the city and but short. None have been injured in the city, and but one killed and one wounded in Lookout Valley.

The most important recent item from this quarter conveyed in a dispatch dated Nov. 16th, announcing that Gen. Sherman was at Gen. Thomas' headquarters; having formed a junction with Gen. Grant's right.

Supplies to our prisoners returned.—The Steamer Convoy, which left Ft. Monroe Nov. 14th, with provisions and clothing for our soldiers held as prisoners in Richmond, returned on the 16th, bring-ing back the provisions. Col. Irving went in charge, and was refused the privilege of taking the retions to Richmond rations to Richmond.

Later dispatches are more reassuring. The supplies sent by the Government have been permitted to reach their destination by the rebel authorities. The rumor that the rebels have permitted clothing to be distributed and not food is an error. Forty eight thousand rations sent by the Secretary that they have been distributed. The error was caused by the fact that the rebel authorities

FOR ITS GREAT DELICACY AS AN ARTICLE OF FOOD. THE YOUNG PARSON. 12мо. $1.25. This work is the production of a gifted young clerryman, and is founded upon his own experience in his first settlement. "It possesses many of the first elements of popularity; it is original, witty, full of life and interest, in many traits profoundly truthful and touching, and calculated to encourage and forewarn the Young Pastor, as well as rebuke the troublesome classes of persons to be found in every Church." Rev. RICHARD NEWTON, D. D., says of it :--Rev. RIGHARD NEWTON, D. D., says of it :---"I have read 'The Young Parson' with unusual interest. It abounds with life-like sketches. There is a rich vein of genuine humor pervading it, mingled with deep and touching pathos. At the same time it illustrates and unloids the pre-clous, life-giving truths of the gospel with clearness, discrimi-nation and power. It is a most enjoyable book." "The book deserves a wide circulation."--Christian Intelli-renzer. "The book deserves a wide circulation."---Cariana interior gencer. "An exceedingly attractive volume. The author is a master hand at delineating character."--Reformed Presbylerian. "One of the principal charms of the book is its fidelity to nature. The humor of which the book has its full share is rich and refined, while its pathos is so touching as frequently to moisten the eye with a tear. The religious tendency of the volume is unexceptionable."--The Evengelist. "The writer may setely put his name on the title-page, with the confidence of having written one of the truest and most amusing books of the year."-The Press.
