A CITY PASTOR REMEMBERED. A month ago, we reminded our readers that the exceedingly appropriate and useful practice of supplementing the salary of pastors in these times of stimulated prices, had not gone out of fashion; and by two recent examples, we encouraged them to feel that they would not be lonesome or singular in performing such a kindly act to their pastors, if they had not already done it. We are happy to be able to add still another and a very illustrious instance to these recent examples:—that of old Pine Street Church, to the pastor, Rev. Dr. Brainerd and to his estimable lady. Immediately after the prayer-meeting of Friday, July 1st, the congregation was called to order by Saml. Work, Esq., when Mr. Young rose and said that all would remember, that two years ago, the congregation had given Dr. Brainerd a supper, commemorative of the Quarter Century of his connection with Pine Street Church. On that occasion, an omission was made in regard to Mrs. Brainerd, which they now desired to make good, and he begged the privilege of giving her the silver tea set before them; purchased for the purpose at the Sanitary Fair. Robt. J. Mercer, Esq., then rose with an envelope containing $1,250, (afterwards increased to $1,400) and remarked that the tea-service was beautiful, but unfortunately empty. These times, he said, pressed heavily on all "salaried men, whatever might be the Doctor's salary, it was now practically reduced to twelve or fifteen hundred dollars, and no clergyman in the city could live on that. The old friends of the church and pastor, in consideration of this fact, had supplemented his salary by the enclosed sum of $1,250. Dr. Brainerd said, in response, that he had been a speech-maker from his youth up. He had made speeches, political, judicial, ecclesiastical and religious; but he was now in a "tight place," for he had never been called to acknowledge from any quarter before, a donation of $1,250. He took it not as an act of justice on the part of his people—they were only bound by their covenant—but as an expression of their affection and Christian liberality. He took it for granted, that such a gift, from such a source, was not perilous, for he hoped it came from those who loved the plain truth, and was meant to encourage the pastor to be faithful in correcting such defects of his people as might yet remain. The meeting was then dismissed. This was a deserved tribute to a faithful and laborious pastor, who has maintained by the blessing of God, a downtown church, in a lively, working and prosperous condition up to the present time, in spite of powerful tendencies on the part of the population to remote parts of the city. Dr. Brainerd has just cause for gratification that his work is recognized, not only in the great councils of the denomination, but in the city and congregation with which he is so closely and honorably identified. Nor have his eminent services as a man of earnest, outspoken, and unwavering loyalty, in this time of national trial, been overlooked in this demonstration.

The congregation of this church vacated their former preaching-place in the Spring Garden Commissioners' Hall, and took possession of the Lecture Room of the new church, last Sabbath, July 3d. There was a crowded congregation. The services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Newlin, who preached the sermon, and Rev. John W. Mears, who offered a dedicatory prayer. Afterwards, the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants. The absent pastor was fervently remembered in these services. The room is commodious and airy, and neatly furnished. Services will be held on Sabbath mornings in this room, and Sabbath school in the room adjoining. The pastor is still in New Hampshire in improving health. CALVARY CHURCH. Services in this church were closed for the season last Sabbath evening. Rev. Wolcott Calkins, pastor elect, preached a sermon of marked ability, in which doctrine and practice were skillfully intermingled and earnestly pressed upon old and young in the audience. Subject: Christ's Anointing by the Holy Spirit. We sincerely hope that Calvary Church may succeed in obtaining his services. CAUSES FOR JOY AND THANKFULNESS. The Fugitive Slave Laws of 1793 and 1850 were repealed by the Senate June 23d, the House having previously voted to the same purpose. The Constitutional Convention of Maryland, the next day, by 53 to 27 votes proclaimed universal, immediate and perpetual freedom for the slaves in that State.

S. N. A. 12mo. Pamphlet. 25 Cents. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Among the many publications from the press this is eminently timely. Setting out with the idea that the present calamities upon our country are the just judgments of God for our national sins, it faithfully proceeds to show the prominent ways by which, as a nation, we have sinned, viz:—By adopting a National Constitution which makes no formal recognition of God; by disregarding the law of God in relation to the moral character of our civil rulers; and by maintaining slavery, and relying on it as the basis of our national greatness. The author, at page 51, makes sad havoc with the popular fallacy, that because the Hebrews had slavery, therefore Southern slavery was legitimate.—Presbyterian Standard. "The Book for the Nation" is the title of an earnest and forcible pamphlet, in which the author shows that God is not merely chastising, but punishing us for our national sins.—Christian Instructor. A full, faithful, earnest, honest tract, exactly suited to our national exigency. It is definite in its statements, plus its finger on the sins, the actual sins of the land, and exhibits the principles on which Jehovah deals with nations. The author, at page 51, makes sad havoc with the popular fallacy, that because the Hebrews had slavery, therefore Southern slavery was legitimate.—Presbyterian Standard. Kennard, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church: Dr. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice of my profession, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I deem for once an unusual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is the most safe and reliable preparation I have ever used, and which I do not think it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth St., below Coates, Phila. From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of Baptist Church, Germantown: Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. Cases of severe cold and general debility I have frequently benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others. Very truly, Germantown, Pa., May 31, 1860. W. RANDOLPH. From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hadding M. E. Church, Philadelphia, April 20, 1860. Dr. JACKSON—Dear Sir: Since your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the most safe and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER, 726 North Eleventh street. From the Rev. Thomas Winter, Pastor of Nazareth Baptist Church: Dr. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation—Hoofland's German Bitters—to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have, for years, at times, been troubled with indigestion in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and experienced great and unexpected relief. My health has been very materially improved, and I can now perform my duties with ease. I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully, Nazareth, Pa., December, 1858. T. WINTER. From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge: Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and efficacy, I yet cannot but be convinced why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Dr. Geo. Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. Philada., June 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN. PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in a quart bottle, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste diluted by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. JACKSON" is on the WRAPPER of each bottle. PRICE PER BOTTLE 75 CENTS. OR HALF DOZEN FOR $4. Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward, securely packed, by express.
