DEATH OF REV. R. S. COOK.

We are pained to announce the decease of another of the distinguished laborers in the church. Rev. R. S. Cook, extensively known, first as one of the Secretaries of the American Tract Society, and since as Secretary of the New York Sabbath Committee, departed this life at the summer residence of his friend, the Rev. Dr. Ganse, of New York City, in Pleasant Valley, Duchess county, N. Y., at the age of 53 years.

In the year 1841, the Tract Society took up the work of colportage as a distinctive feature, borrowing the idea, as the name indicates, from the system for the distribution of religious reading Pollock. previously inaugurated in continental Europe. Mr. Cook, who had previously performed extensive service as an Agent of the Society, was then advanced to a Secretaryship, and the new colporteur enterprise became his special department. How wide that enterprise immediately became under his officient administration, and how its influences thrilled cabins, farm houses, hamlets, settlements, new and old, and by-ways of the great cities, throughout the Republic and its neighboring Provinces, are too well known to require rehearsal.

In this labor Mr. Cook was not merely a desk Secretary. He was abroad. searching out fields and men to fill them. gathering workers into district conventions and there, with prayer and exhortation, infusing them with his own indomitable and Christ-loving energy, and then dismissing them to their alloted mission of toils, cross-bearing, and salvation.

In 1853, forced by impaired health to go abroad, he labored much, and with no in building up the Redeemer's Kingsmall success, in England and Scotland, dom." to give an impulse to the same efficient plans for reaching the masses, which at home had now passed out from the experimental stage, to an established sys-

Finally in 1857, continued ill health forced him to the resignation of an office which required an amount of activity now beyond his powers; and not long after he accepted the Secretaryship of the Sabbath Committee—a service less exacting of his strength. Still, however, his health went down, until consumptive symptoms became unmistakably developed, and his friends were forced to the sad conclusion that he had literally worked himself into the grave. A vovage to Florida last spring proved unavailing for improvement, and he returned in calm submission to the conclusion that his work on earth was done.

And so good and useful lives must all have their end. But the work lives. It passes from hand to hand, and shall never want hands and hearts, so long tian Herald, returning from a visit to as one object for Christian faithfulness remains in this world of sin. OITY RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

THE NORTH BROAD ST. CHURCH had the satisfaction of welcoming back their pastor, Rev. E. E. Adams, D. D., a few days since. He has lost flesh during his vacation, but is in improved health, and enters at once upon the principal duties of his office in that important field. The lecture-room of the new building was thronged on Sabbath morning last with those anxious to hear his voice again, and with strangers. His text was from Ps. 42, 8: "In the night his song shall be with me."

REV. D. MARCH, D. D., of Clinton St. Church, has, we regret to say, been suffering from a severe and alarming attack of illness for some ten days past. At this writing his condition is much improved, and the anxieties felt in regard to so valuable a life have happily been allayed.

THANKSGIVING for the recent successes of our national arms, on land and water, was, we believe, universally offered in our churches by a grateful and rejoicing people. The admirable document put forth by our Chief Magistrate was read, and in some instances commented on, with decided expressions of approval, as a token of the appropriate regard which in high places should be manifested towards Him"in whose hands are the destinies of nations."

REV. F. L. Robins preached in the Wagner Free Institute on Sabbath afternoon last.

THE NEW COIN.

The Mint has recently given us a new coin—a two cent piece. It is of bronze, near the size of the old copper cent, and with a neat and clear die. The noteworthy feature of the piece is the motto which surmounts the shield-"In God we trust." Our nation has, from the first, been lamentably sparing in its documentary recognition of any national relation to Jehovah, the only sufficient protector of nations. The absence of any acknowledgment of God upon our coin was a more marked deficiency, from the fact that it was almost if not altogether without a precedent among Christian nations. Something tantamount to the "Dei Gratia" was every where else regarded as an indispensable feature of the coinage-a reminder of the dependence of the nation upon the favor of Heaven, which every man must carry in his pocket, and have constantly under his eye.

We believe this most gratifying important improvement was adopted at the carnest recommendation of the christian patriot who now presides over the Mint-Ex-Gov. James

The scarcity of nickel has also led to the use of bronze in its stead, in the present coinage of the one cent piece. They come out with something of a golden face, but they soon verify the old proverb, "All is not gold that glit-

PASTORAL QUALIFICATIONS.

The people of a vacant pastorate (Bap tist,) in Clearfield County, this State thus express their views on this subject in a call which they make through The Chronicle for a pastor: "They want a man who can preach the whole Gospel fearlessly, and at the same time to conduct himself as a Christian gentleman toward those who differ from him. Such a man, self-sacrificing in feeling, who is willing to devote himself entirely to the work, and who does not make money and ease the first considerations in seeking a settlement, can be supported here and would doubtless be largely blessed

THE SUNDAY MAGAZINE.

This is the title of a paper about to be commenced under the editorial supervision of Rev. Dr. Thomas Guthrie, the distinguished Scotch divine. In this country, on account of the atrocious anti-Sabbatical character of the so-called Sunday papers, there would be a great infelicity in the use of such a title, even for a paper devoted, as we suppose this is to be, to suitable Sabbath reading, and gotten up and circulated without trenching upon holy time.

CHAPLAIN STEWART'S ADDRESS for the the Saginaw river, about three miles present is. "Rev. A. M. Stewart, U. S. above its entrance into the bay of the A., Box 29, Washington, D. C." The Chaplain is preparing to issue his admilis expected that it will be under the rable letters in book form. He will still, we are happy to say, contribute to our columns.

DATTON, IND .- A writer in the Christhe Presbyterian church in this place ministry of its much-valued pastor.

News of the Churches.

REV. ISAAC RILEY, pastor of the Forest Church, Middletown, Delaware, has been called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church, Pottsville, Pa. We understand the prospect is that the call will be accepted by Mr. Riley. The people of Pottsville Church have made out the call in such liberal terms as the financial exigencies of the times make necessary.

THE PRESBYTERY REPORTER has an interesting account of the coming up of the church in Waltham, La Salle county, Ill., under the pastoral labors of Rev. W. W. Wells.

"Some years ago," says the Reporter, Mr. W. settled among the people as a farmer, his health having become so much impaired that he felt constrained to retire from the active discharge of ministerial duties. His health improving, and his heart more and more interested in behalf of the people, he gradually increased his labors among them, depending, however, for his support mainly upon his own resources. These labors were blessed. The congregation increased and the house of worship was well filled. About four years ago a precious work of grace was enjoyed which brought numbers into the communion of the church. At this period the church became desirous that Bro. Wells should devote himself to the culture of the Lord's vineyard in place of his own farm. As his state of health seemed to justify such an arrangement. he entered into it and God has blessed his labors. From year to year increase of numbers, strength, confidence, and affection have been the result.

"The last winter a precious revival was enjoyed; as the first fruits of which, twenty-three individuals have united with the church, nearly all of them adults and heads of families; and several more are indulging hope of eternal life, who will probably soon seek the communion of the church. Year by year their offerings for benevolent purposes have been increased, and their temporal prosperity has been quite as manifest as their spiritual. The present membership of the church is one hundred and twenty-three. Their last year's donation for Home Missions was $64, and will this year be considerably larger. The congregation has become so numerous that their place of worship does not at all well accommodate them, and new accommodations must and will be provided. The result will probably be that in a year from this time two new church edifices will be erected on that field four or five miles apart—and our brother Wells, who possesses the entire confidence of the community, will find himself the pastor of two flourishing and effective churches.'

SYNODICAL MISSIONARY FOR MINNE-SOTA.—The Home Missionary Committee, on application from the Synod of Minnesota, have appointed Rev. A. G. Ruliffson as missionary within its bounds. The District Secretary writes to the

"I am most happy in being able to state that he has entered upon his work with great diligence and energy, and with the most hearty co-operation and perfect confidence of his brethren, both of the ministry and laity."

Wisconsin.—Nearly thirty churches are within the bounds of the Synod of Wisconsin, and not more than two of them able to secure pastoral labor independent of aid from our Home Missionary Committee. Most of them, however, as the country advances, are growing to such a degree that they may be reasonably expected to be self-supporting at no very distant day, and in their turn to become contributors to the treasury from which they are now assisted. This is the wise economy of missionary benevolence, that besides securing a present good, it is self-perpetuating and self-enlarging. The dollar given now becomes dollars in the years

CAPE VINCENT, N. Y .- We read in the Evangelist that the church in this place under the pastorate of Rev. Hiram Hill, has for some time past enjoyed a good amount of prosperity, external and spiritual. The church edifice has been repaired, the Sabbath school within three years has increased three-fold, additions have frequently been made to the church, and $150 has recently been added to the pastor's salary. It would speak well for our churches if, in these times when with so many of our pastors the provision of daily wants has become the battle of life, such items as the last could be frequently chronicled.

LAKE CITY.—A Presbyterian church is about to be organized in Lake City, prospectively an important business place for salt and lumber, situated on same name, an arm of Lake Huron. It pastoral care of Rev. D. B. Campell, who is already laboring there, in connection with the neighboring towns of Banjoe and Kan-Kawlin.

A CONSIDERATE CONGREGATION .-From the same paper we learn that the Presbyterian church in Portsmouth, Ohio, have just added $300 to the reguar salary of their pastor, Rev. Dr. E. P. Pratt, and also voted him a furlough for a short rest from arduous labor, accompanied with a purse of $200 for expenses.

Re Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer.

WOOSTER, Ohio, May 20, 1863. Sirs ;-Having had occasion to use Perry Davis' Pain Killer in my family for the last five years, I am pleased to acknowledge its beneficial effects in every instance. Feeling confident that it was this medicike that saved my child's life, when attacked with Cramp Colic, it is a leasure to me to recommend it as a good family medicine, and one which every family ought to have in their house. In cases of emergency there can be nothing better; at least, I have always found it so, and I find it o be generally known and esteemed.

"A GLORIOUS INSTRUMENT."

We have from time to time presented the testimony of a large portion of the most eminent Organists and A tists in the country to the great merits of our

and to the fact that they excel other Instruments o

Annexed are extracts from a few Notices of the Press 'The Highest Accomplishment of Industry in this Department."

"Foremost among all American makers stand Messrs.
Mason & Hamlin, whose OABINET ORGANS now represent the highest accomplishments of industry in this department. Taking for their starting point, more than ten years ago, the remembered melodeon, with its thin, sharp tone, they have gone on, step by step, until they have reached a position beyond which the enlargement of Reed Organs cannot, for the present, be advantageously continued. Leaving to others the manufacture of instruments of smaller compass, they have given all their energies to producing the best possible specimens of the class they advertise, and it is nothing more than truth to say they have succeeded. This is not only our opinion, but the unanimous verdict of the Organists and Musicians who have examined these Organs, and have often subjected them to long and severe tests, and whose names have been signed by scores to the testimonials of favor which have been freely given."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

"The Universal Opinion of the Musical Profession."

"That Messrs. Mason & Hamlin have succeeded in making a better small instrument—from little bandbox-like things to those which, though portable, and not larger than a piano, can make themselves felt in a church—is the universal opinion of the musical profession. They agree that no such mechanical works of the kind can be found in equal perfection in Europe. The tone is pure and full, and with an immense body for so small a provocative force. They stand rough traveling, bad usage, and will live in climates that kill American missionaries."—New York Tribune.

'Nearly Every Organist or Pianist of Note."

"The instrument known as the CABINET ORGAN is quite as great an improvement upon the melodeon, introduced some twenty years $50,0 r ks successor, the harmontum, as a concert grand pinno forte of to-day is over the inverfect pianos in voque a quarter of a century since. The melodeon lost favor from a lack of capacity for expression. Its music was monotonous to a degree annoying to cultivated ears. The harmonium was an improvement upon the melodeon, but still failed to satisfy is the extent demanded by its use in chapels, sehool-rooms or halls, as a support to choral singing. Within a couple of years, Mesons Msson & Hamlin, who have always taken the lead in this country as manufacturers of reed instruments, have succeeded in largely overcoming the defects nowiced in instruments of this class. An important modification introduced is the Automatic Bellows Swell, by which the performer is enabled to produce the softest tones, or to awaken a volume of tone second only to, and in point of musical quality fully as fine as that derived from superior charch organs. * * * * The favorable testimony of nearly every organist or pianist of note in this country, together with that of certain distinguished foreign authorities, has forestalled our appreciative comments upon the excellence and value of these carefully made instruments."—New York World.

So Effective and Beautiful as to meet the Desires of the Most Refined and Fastidious."

"A glorious instrument for the temple service, so readfly secured as to be available for any congregation, and so effective and beautiful as to meet the desires of the most refined and fastidious admirers of appropriate music. * * With your cyes shut you cannot distinguish its sound from that of the pipe organ; and the advantages that commend it are it sprice—for it can be had for one, two, three or four hundred dollars, according to the size you wish; it is not affected by heat or sold, or any change of temperature; it remains for a long period in good tune; and lastly, it can be sent by express or otherwise any distance, with safety."—New York Observer.

"Singular Unanimity."

"Induced by these considerations, we have been at some pains to ascertain what instrument, of the many now soliciting the public favor, combines the greatest amount of real excellencies. We have prosecuted this inquiry entirely independently of aid or direction from inferested parties. The opinions of some of the best musical critics, composers and performers have been obtained; reports of experiments made in the ordinary use of various instruments in churches, schools and familios have been compared, all of which, with singular unanimity, concur in assigning the first place to the Cabinet Organ of Mason & Hamlin—a decision that corresponds with our own previously formed convictions, received from personal observations."—New York Christian Advocate and Journal.

U. S. 7-30 Loan.

The Secretory of the Treasury gives notice that sub scriptions wil. be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from Aug. 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum,—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six percent. gold-bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may clect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit. Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN.

IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U.S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.

Convertible into a Six per cent. 5-20 Gold Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U.S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent, per annum.

Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation.

But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated a special Act of Congress exempls all bonds and Treasur notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country. It is believed that no securities offer so great induce ments to lenders as those issued by the government In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED by the Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositaries, and by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.
