DEATHS OF MINISTERS.

REV. JOSEPH H. BUCHANAN, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church in Rushville, Ohio, died on the 6th inst., after a brief illness.—Rev. J. S. McCready, pastor of the U. P. church in Cadiz, O., died in Baltimore, on the 7th inst. The United Presbyterian says of him that "deeply interested in the cause of the Government, he earnestly encouraged enlistments for its defence, and when these seemed to be failing, offered his own services to lead a company of volunteers. He had been nearly two years in the service when he was wounded in the battle of the Wilderness. Since that time he has been in one of the hospitals at Washington until near the time of his death. He was at Baltimore on his way home. Too much exhausted to endure the journey he there gradually sunk until the date of his death. He died in peace, and in the midst of devoted friends and relatives."—Rev. JAMES S. KING, of the Presbytery of New York, died at Sing Sing, on the 15th inst., in the 30th year of his age.—Rev. THOMAS M. SMITH, D. D., a prominent clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church, and Professor of Systematic Divinity in the Seminary at Gambier, died in Portland, Maine, on the 6th inst.—Rev. EPAPHRAS KIRBY, of the New England (M. E.) Conference, died on the 8th inst., aged 87 years.—Rev. R. D. CHAMBERS, (Meth.) President of Emory Female College, Carlisle, Pa., died on the 9th inst. The Advocate and Journal says of him, "he was an ardent patriot, an eloquent preacher, a brilliant scholar, and an earnest Christian."—Rev. H. B. COLLINS, Meth., died in Franklin, Ind., on the 4th inst.—Rev. SIMON SHALLER, a venerable Baptist minister in Connecticut, recently died at the age of 88 years.

RE-UNION.

Our neighbor of the Presbyterian Standard, while publishing the Newark manifesto, (the substance of which appeared in our paper of last week,) makes the following proposal: "It will be noticed in the report of the meeting of the friends of the speedy re-union of the Presbyterian Church, which we publish this week, that the meeting recommended 'conventions of the friends of re-union, at important points, to be composed of ministers, ruling elders, and others, to consult to, and declare their views. This is a good idea. Cannot a convention be held in Harrisburg, before or after the meetings of our Synods this fall, to be composed of the friends of re-union in Pennsylvania? We hope so. That say you, brethren of other branches of the Presbyterian Church?" Our branch of the church, for reasons which are obvious, and we believe on sides approved, leaves it to our O. S. brethren to take the initiative in these movements. We believe its true co-operation may be relied on in any fair part in this direction.

BOOKS RECEIVED.

The following have come to hand too late for further notice this week. HISTORY OF THE REFORMATION in the life of Calvin by D'Aubigne. Vol. III. SYBIL and CHRYSIA, and HARD MAPLE, by the Ellen Montgomery's Bookself Series. THE BURNING OF CHAMBERSBURG, by Rev. B. S. Schneek, D. D. New Story Book by Fanny Fern. From the Presbyterian Publication Committee, The American Presbyterian Almanac, 1865; The Shepherd of Bethlehem, an A. L. E. Story; Stories from Jewish History, by A. O. E.; The Communion Week, by Rev. Ashon Ozenden. Tracts: Second Series No. 23—Promity a Crime, by Dr. Brainerd; No. 24—The Work of the Christian Church; No. 25—Save Souls by Richard Baxter.

INTERESTING SERVICE.

The Congregationalist says that "by social effort and appointment, a large number of aged persons in the parish of St. Hiram N. Gates of Barkhamstead, Conn., some of whom, for years before, had not attended church, were present at Sabbath services, September 4th, and a sermon was preached by the pastor from the words: 'The hoary head is a crown of glory.' At the intermission, the venerable company were provided with a comfortable meal at the parsonage, and in the afternoon, with others, they gathered around the communion table, many of them, doubtless, for the last time. The sight was a very remarkable one, and the congregation were affected to tears. Why cannot the same thing be done, with profit, in other places?"

NEW AND DESIRABLE PREMIUMS.

We are able to announce some valuable additions to our list of premiums which at the present season of high prices we are sure will be appreciated by our friends, and especially by our ministerial brethren, whose inadequate salaries forbid any large appropriations for books.

DR. SHEDD ON CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE.

For four new subscribers and the pay, $10, in advance, we will send, post paid, the new and valuable work of Dr. Shedd, of Union Theological Seminary, New York, on the History of Christian Doctrines, in 2 vols. 8vo., price $6. This great work is now in the third edition, and would prove a most welcome addition to a minister's library.

CONYBARE AND HOWSON'S PAUL.

For five new subscribers and $12.50 in advance we will send, post paid, a copy of this standard popular work, indispensable to every student of the life and epistles of the great apostle.

JOHN HUSS AND HIS TIMES.

We are still sending this great work, written in the fresh graphic style of Mr. Gillett in response to orders from those procuring new subscribers, and have more copies to be disposed of in the same way. Sent for four subscribers, and the pay, $10, in advance.

A NICE SUBSTITUTE.

An exchange says that a wealthy gentleman in New Jersey, a few days since, enlisted as a substitute a stalwart and patriotic Canadian, paying him $800, and expending a considerable sum for an outfit. When they parted the recruit promised, at the request of his principal, to write at the first opportunity. The gentleman was a little surprised at receiving a letter from the man, dated Quebec, informing him that his money had enabled the substitute and his wife to set up a corner grocery, and they were doing well, and if his patron would give him a call, he should have a drink gratis. The letter concluded as follows: "p. s. them rebels is a set of Skoundrels an ought to be put down an of you Yanks cant do it just send for a lot of you canadians an Wee will do it for you, yures J. c.

A SUBSTITUTE BROKER IN TROUBLE. The Sherbrooke (Canada East) Freeman says—"On Saturday, the 20th ult., a man by the name of David Kimball, from Lunenburg, Vt., was arrested at Lennoxville, C. E., for attempting to procure recruits for the Federal army. It appears that Kimball had paid in advance to four persons $50 each, in greenbacks; for another, $40, and $20 more to hire a team to take them across the lake. He was committed for trial at the next term of Queen's Bench. Another substitute-runner was arrested on Sabbath morning last, for attempting a small operation, with a view of assisting to fill up the last 500,000 call. He was also committed for trial at the October term of Queen's Bench.

NEW USE FOR CARTES DE VISITE. We see a paragraph taking the rounds under the above heading, which states that in Vienna, the curious custom prevails of inserting photographs of deceased persons in their tombstones covered with glass. It is more than a year since we saw the same in our own country. The likeness was even then much faded, as we suppose any photograph would soon be under so much exposure to the light of open day. A slide, or some other contrivance to shut out the light in common, will probably be necessary, should this custom come into general use.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS. The Vienna Presse declares that the Mexican monarchy is intended not only to react against the Anglo-Saxon race and the Democratic ideas of North America, but also against American Protestantism. We should think either half of the above achievement would furnish the new Emperor with sufficient employment to wear off the rust, at least until he finds out his throne is his own. But we like to see men on good terms with themselves, and if Max's spread of programme administrators to his self-complacency, let him try it.

FORTY MILLION SEVEN-THIRTIES SUBSCRIBED. The subscriptions to this popular loan are now forty million dollars, and they continue to come in at the rate of about a million a day. The public are satisfied that there are no other investments so profitable as the U. S. securities. While nearly all the hundreds of miscellaneous stocks sold in the New York market have been declining for several weeks, Government stocks have remained firm; and while lenders loan very sparingly, and at high rates, on the best mercantile paper, they have plenty of money to lend on Government paper, at as low rates as ever. While the Government needs the people's money, and pays for it liberally, it offers the highest possible consideration besides, and that is safety.

DEDICATION.

The large and handsome new edifice North Broad Street Church, at the corner of Broad and Green Streets, will be dedicated, by leave of Providence, on Sabbath evening next; services commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock.

News of the Churches.

ECCLIASTICAL CHANGE.—The Congregational church in Clinton, N. Y., has lately taken a dismissal from the Oneida Association to connect itself with the Presbytery of Utica, as a full-membered Presbyterian church, a bench of Ruling Elders having been already chosen. This is one of the oldest, and among the most important churches in central New York; and the change is more felicitous from the fact that Clinton is the seat of Hamilton College, an institution in close connection with our church, Rev. Albert Erdman is the much esteemed pastor of the church.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES, &c.—Rev. T. B. Jervis has been obliged, to the great regret of his people, to leave his pastoral charge in Oriskany, N. Y. Restoration of health is the object sought.—Rev. E. E. Fish has changed his residence from Marietta, O., to Stevens' Point, Wis., where he has assumed the care of the church.—Rev. H. O. Howland was installed, on the 7th inst., as pastor of the church in Girard, Pa., by the Presbytery of Erie.—Mr. W. W. Newell, Jr., was ordained as an Evangelist in the Allen Street Presbyterian church, New York, on last Sabbath evening.—Rev. E. P. Willard has received a call from the church in Dunkirk, which he is expected to accept.—Rev. W. A. Hendrickson has assumed the charge of the church in Winchester, Ill. The Christian Herald says that the congregation has nearly completed an excellent house of worship, and that everything about their circumstances is promising.—Rev. S. R. Bissell, late of Uadilla, Mich., has entered upon the work of a missionary in the region around Eppingham, Ill.

NEENAH, WIS.—The Presbyterian church in this place has hitherto been in connection with the so-called "Convention" of Congregational and Presbyterian churches in that State. Recently it has changed its relation from that body to the Fox River Presbytery, thus securing for itself a consistent Presbyterian connection.

MELODION—HARMONIUM—CABINET ORGAN. As usual in such cases, the large demand for these instruments has induced a great number of persons to engage in their manufacture, some of whom are quite unequal to the business they have undertaken. It requires something more than the mechanical skill of the artisan in wood and iron to make and prepare for use a musical instrument; and yet some have evidently brought nothing else to their aid in the business. The result is that the country is becoming filled with inferior and defective instruments. Large sums of money are expended for valueless articles, and the people are defrauded of their needed musical education. The evil is intensified by the fact that these inferior instruments are, on account of their inferiority, most industriously urged upon the public. Because they cannot compete with better ones in the open market, they are pressed upon the public by direct solicitations; and because they offer larger commissions, they are those most commonly offered by agents and hawked by peddlers. And as most purchasers are unable to judge of the relative merits of these things, the inferior articles are often bought when better ones are desired, and would be cheerfully paid for.

Induced by these considerations, we have been at some pains to ascertain what instrument of the many now so licitly the public favor combines the greatest amount of real excellencies. We have prosecuted this inquiry entirely independent of aid or direction from interested parties. The opinions of some of the best musical critics, composers, and performers have been obtained; reports of experiments made in the ordinary use of various instruments in churches, schools, and families have been compared, all of which with singular unanimity concur in assigning the first place to the cabinet organ of Mason & Hamlin—a decision that corresponds with our own previously-formed convictions, received from personal observations.

We are too little an expert in musical matters to rely very confidently on our judgment in such matters; but on account of the united testimony of those in whose opinions we have the fullest confidence, we unhesitatingly recommend that instrument as altogether worthy of general favor. But, though we make no pretensions to critical powers in music, we still have our likes and preferences, and this instrument more nearly answers to our tastes than any other we have heard. We like its tones and compass of sound, and its organ-like depths and flexibility. It seems to avoid at once the asthmatic wheezing of the old melodions, and the reedy chattering of the harmoniums. In short it makes good simple and natural music, such as the uncultivated ear is pleased to listen to, and with which the partially disciplined voice may readily unite; and both ear and voice are cultivated by it. The size and form of the instrument are also in its favor, making it an elegant and not cumbersome piece of parlor furniture. Its price too, ranging in these times of high prices down nearly to a hundred dollars—though more elaborately constructed and highly ornamented ones cost much more—brings it within the reach of the many. These remarks, however, scarcely apply to the large sized and finely finished ones, whose excellence in all things pertaining to an instrument of the kind would justify much higher praise than we have given.

We have written these things without solicitation from any one, and without the knowledge of those whose personal interests we may seem to favor. The interests of our readers is the object we have sought especially to promote, and in that interest we have prosecuted our inquiries, and now we record our convictions. We write also in the interest of social music, for the family, the school, the Sunday school, and the neighborhood church, where the instrument is necessary to the maintenance of the most interesting portion of the devotional exercises—which with its accompanying good results is promoted by the use of a good instrument, but damaged by an inferior one. Other instruments of the same family may combine many of the good qualities of the one we have named, but we commend no other as in all points its equal; and believing that in such a case it is as much a matter of economy as of good taste to "get the best," we name only this one.—New York Christian Advocate and Journal.

MARRIAGES.

On the 21st inst. at the Presbyterian Church in Albany, N. Y., Miss ARABELLA KIMBALL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kimball, and Mr. SWAN W. GARDY, to Miss ELIZABETH E. BUTTS, all of Albany.

TO YOUNG MEN.

The best way to succeed in business is to prepare for it in the best manner, and the most valuable investment you can make is to secure a course of instruction at THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE, N. E. CORNER TENTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS, an institution affording advantages of the very highest order, being conducted upon a system of ACTUAL BUSINESS TRAINING, originally and pre-eminently practical, under the management of gentlemen of education and extensive experience in business. The system of instruction combining theory and practice in the most perfect manner, the most improved advantages of the merely theoretical methods of ordinary Commercial Colleges.

This institution has been the pioneer in MODERN IMPROVEMENTS, and now offers in the substantial and practical value of its course of instruction, and in all its appointments, equal inducements to those who desire to secure success in any employment or business, by the best preparation for its duties.

INSTRUCTION IN Book-keeping, Penmanship, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Law, Engineering, Surveying, Navigation, Telegraphing, &c., DAY AND EVENING.

TELEGRAPHING BY SOUND, and all the duties pertaining to Telegraphing as a profession, is practically taught by an operator of eleven years' experience—students being allowed after some practice to work on the wires extending to various other offices in and out of the city. In this manner they are fitted for the regular duties common to telegraph lines with another day's practice on any line and are ready to sit down at the operating table and earn a good salary.

Nowhere else in the world can such advantages be obtained. Call and read letters from our graduates, who are now scattered all over the country. Call or send for an Illustrated Circular.

L. FAIRBANKS, A. M., Principal. 658-51

DYSPEPSIA AND FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR These distressing complaints is now made known in a Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations, published by Dr. C. PHELPS BROWN. The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner, that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, as it has cured everybody who has used it, and never failed in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be seen in our drug store. Sent to all on the receipt of five cents to pre-pay postage. The work, of 46 octavo pages, beautifully illustrated, also treats on
