News of the Week.

THE WAR. ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

The past week has witnessed another movement of this army. It does not seem to have been much more than a reconnoissance in force. The object, which was to obtain a knowledge of the situation of the enemy, was fully accomplished.

The following official dispatches give the result of the movement:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28-9 P. M.-Major-General Dix, care of John Horner, New York:—Despatches from General Grant re-ceived this evening inform the Department that an advance in force for the purpose of a reconnoissance was made yesterday by Warren and Hancock. In the evening the enemy attacked Hancock vigorously, but were repulsed. The purpose being accomplished the troops were withdrawn from the advanced position to which they had been pushed, nearer to their line of former occupation. The telegrams of General Grant give all the details received.

Despatch from General Grant.

CITY POINT, Oct. 27, 1864, 9 P. M.—Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War:—I have just returned from the crossing of the Boynton Plank Road with Hatcher's Creek. Our line now extends from its former left to Armstrong's Mill, thence by the south bank of Hatcher's Creek to the point above named. At every point the enemy was found intrenched and his works manned. No attack was made during the day further than to drive the pickets and cavalry inside of the main work. Our casualties have been light, probably less than two hundred killed, wounded and missing. The same is probably true with the enemy. We captured, however, seven loaded teams on their way from Stony Creek to the enemy, about a dozen beef cattle, a traveling forge and seventy-five to one hundred prisoners. On our right Butler extended around well towards the Yorktown road, without finding a point unguarded. I shall keep our troops out where they are until towards noon to-morrow, in hopes of inviting an attack. Signed, U. S. GRANT.,

Lieutenant General. Second Despatch from General Grant.

CITY POINT, Oct. 28.—Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War:—The attack on General Hancock proves to be a decided success. He repulsed the enemy, and remained in his position, holding possession of the field until to-night, when he commenced withdrawing. Orders had been given for the withdrawal of the Second Corps before the attack was made. He lost no prisoners, except the usual stragglers who are always picked up. Our captures for the day on the south side foot up nine hundred and ten. The Rebel General Deering is reported killed. General Meade in his report says:-"I am induced to believe the success of the op-eration, which was most decided, was mainly due to the personal exertions of Major-General Hancock, and the conspicuous gallantry of Brigadier General Hagan." (Signed) U.S. GRANT, Lieut. General.

SHERIDAN'S ARMY.

No further movement of consequence has been made in the valley since the battle of the 19th. The following particulars of the results of that battle have been received:

Our wounded are being rapidly removed to Martinsburg, from Winchester, and Gen. Sheridan is putting his army in order for another advance when General Grant shall give the signal. He is already being supplied with material for another campaign, and will not long remain passive.

A Victory in West Virginia.

The following dispatch is from Major-Gen. B. F. Felly, to Gov. Boreman, of West Virginia. It is dated October 28th.

The garrison at Beverly, composed of detachments of the Eighth Ohio Cavalry, in command of Lietenant Colonel Yarell, were attacked this morning at daylight, by Major Hill, of Imboden's command, with three hundred and fifty rebels. After two hours' hard fighting, the rebels were repulsed and routed with a loss of one hundred and fifteen prisoners, fifteen killed, and a large number wounded, among the latter Major Hill, who is mortally wounded and a prisoner in our hands.

Our loss was seven killed and twenty-one wounded, including Lieutenant Peck killed and Major Howe wounded. The rebels retreated to the mountains.

A New State Added to the Union.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES-A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Congress of the United States passed an act, which was approved on the 21st day of March last, entitled "An act to enable the people of Nevada to form a Con-stitution and State Government," and for the admission of such State into the Union on an equal footing with the original States; and whereas, the said Constitution and State Government have been formed, pursuant to conditions prescribed by the fifth section of the act of Congress aforesaid, and a copy of the Constitution and ordinances have been submitted to the President of the United

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, in accordance with the duty imposed upon me by the act of Congress aforesaid, do hereby declare and proclaim that the said State of Nevada is admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be offixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

By the President: WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

THE WAR IN MISSOURI.

Gen. Price's advent in Missouri has been very brief, considering the fact that he "came to stay," as he announced. A dispatch dated St. Louis, Oct. 27, says:

Our forces have been driving Price rapidly since Sunday. At the last accounts he was twenty-five or thirty miles southeast of Fort Scott, his army routed and dispersed. On Tuesday we had several fights with him between Mound City and Fort Scott, in all of which he was badly whipped, losing 1500 prisoners and ten or twelve pieces of artillery. Major-General Marmaduke and Brig. General Cabel are among the prisoners, with several Colonels and other officers. He was again attacked yesterday morning a short distance north of Fort Scott and driven pellmell in a southeasterly direction. burned two hundred wagons yesterday, to prevent their being captured. Nothing is stated about the loss on either side, but there seems to be no doubt that Price's army is completely demoralized and scat-tered. The telegraph is working to Fort Scott, but nothing has been received of to-day's operations, except that our forces are in vigorous pursuit. General Steele, with a heavy reinforcement, is at Fort Smith, with the probable view of contesting Price's entrance into Arkansas.

The rebels were chased all Sunday night and constant fighting kept up.

In Post Hospital at Pine Bluff, Arki, of disease, September 2, 1864, in the 46th year of bis age, Mr. CHARLES N. McGILL, of 'isbon, Wauks sha county, Wis. He was born in Wigtonshire, Scotland, emigrated to America in 1856, became a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Rock Prairie, Wis., and entered the U. S. service in August, 1862, in the 28th Wisconsin Regiment. He attended regularly all the means of grace, was a useful citizen, a faithful soldier and essemed by all who knew him. His last illness was short. Belween the intervals of intense pain, his time was occupied, mostly, in repeating portions of scripture and in prayer. He expressed his entire willingness to depart, and blessed God for the assurance of faith which he had been permitted to anjoy for many months. Our loss is great, but we ask not your return to earth. No: one more voice swells the chorus of the new song. We needed your connsel, but the Master thought your crown won, and said, "It is enough, come up higher." We bow in submission to His will. We would not sorrow for your departure, but rather for ourselves that possess so much corruption that we must still continue liere. Mr. McGill leaves a widow and son, and many relatives and riends to mourn his loss. Let us each be admonished, and let us cling more closely to the Cross fer comfort.

relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Let us each be admonished, and let us cling more closely to the Cross for comfort.

IN MEMORIAM.

Departed this life, on the 12th inst, in the Eighteenth Ward—old district of Kensington—in this city, ABRA-HAM HELFENSTEIN, M. D. in the 60th year of his age. The funeral, on the 17th, was largely attended, and from the address made on the occasion by his pastor, Rev. W. T. Eva, the follewing extract has, by request of the family, been furnished for publication.

Of our departed friend and fellow-citizen, it is proper that we should speak somewhat. A prominent man in this community for a long period—an eminent and successful medical practitioner here for forty years—one known so widely among us, and so smuch respected and regarded. As we stand in the presence of these mute remains, and are-about to consign them to the cold and silent tomb, propriety and duty alike demand such artibute.

"As a man, he was possessed of trats of character that won the respect of all who knew him. As a citizen he was public spirited, and deeply interested in the weal of the country, and the welfare of the community in which he lived. But it is in his profession that he is chiefly entitled to our regard; and speak my of him in this relation, it may be truly said, that as a physician he was kind, sympathizing, faithful, intelligent, brudent and more than ordinarily successful. Graduating from the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, at 19 years of age, and beginning the practice of medicine in this community immediately after—now forty years ago—he secured an extensive and laborious practice, and has a claim to be ragarded as a public benefactor. Te myself, personally, it is a mournful pleasure to testify to his ability and usefulness in his profession; for I, and mine, for now four years past, have been the recipients of the benefits of his skill and kindness. And I am sure that there are hundreds of families. dwelling in this section of our city, that would cheerfully reader the in these relations; and the sadness of their hearts, and their tears of sorrow to-day, are their fitting testimonials to his memory.

"But he is gone. Death, which spares none, has not spared him. He who, by the blessing of God, had delivered so many from the perils of dischase, and rescued them from the jaws of death, could not deliver or rescue himself. He is dead.

"And, as I have reason to know, he died without fear and in peace—giving expression more than once during his sickness to a hope in Christ, and pointing upward, saying that he was going to rest. He was not, indeed, during the laborious years of his life, an open, active Christan. It is to be regretted that he was not and that, like so many of our physicians, he suffered the duties of his profession to serve as a hindrance to an outward, demonstrative, practical acknowledgment of Jesus. But he was the child of goodly parents—one of whom, a venerable father now ninety years of age, and for more than sixty years a minister of the Gospel—still survives him. He belonged to a godly family, having a large circle of brothers, of whom three, and all here to-day, are ministers of the Gospel likewise. He was a member of the German Reformed Church, having been "confirmed" in that church in early life. Personally, also, he had a constant and habitual respect for religion and the things of God, and was moral and upright in all the relations of life. He was the subject, toe, of many prayers, and breathed his last amid the sacred sapirations and sounds of devotion, as one of his brothers beloved, the Rev. Jacob Helenstein, of Germantown, kneit at his bedside and commended his spirits of God."
