THE AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN，THURSDAY，MARCH 9,1865
 These enterprising muste boors． have recently issued Boston publishers music book，oalled thery good juvenile Trumper，being a new collection，with all the variety of hymans and tunes，chants and anthems the ＂Cantata＂called＂The Origin of the Se sons．＂The collection made by Messrs．W． O．\＆F．H．Perkins shows a pure tost a just regard for the wants of the children in this line．Those seeking novelties in juvenile music，will be the＂Trumpet＂a trial．

when it oceurred to him to employ a natural aid．He caught a small slate－covered lizard when it pocurred to him to employ a natural aid．He cuaght a small slate－－covered lizard， common about springs and among stone， took the strainer from the upper end of the pipe and thrust the animal in head first， putting on the strainer again．Mr．Lizard could not back out out，neither could．he turn around－the pipe being only five－eighths of an inch in diameter．He must propel and he did，at the rate of three or four and he did，at the rate of three or four feet por minate，emerging from the lower end of the pipe heralded by the muddy
