DOMESTIC.

RECONSTRUCTION. Two proclamations were issued by President Johnson, June 13, looking to reconstruction. One removes all restrictions from trade with the greater part of the South...

The State of Tennessee is recognized as fully restored to the Union, with the following conditions: "But nothing herein contained shall be considered or construed as in anywise changing or impairing any of the penalties and forfeitures for treason heretofore incurred under the laws of the United States..."

Another proclamation appoints William L. Sharkey Provisional Governor of the State of Mississippi with duties assigned him, as follows: "At the earliest practicable period to prescribe the such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for convening a convention, composed of delegates to be chosen by that portion of the people of said State who are loyal to the United States and no others..."

JEFF DAVIS AND OUR PRISONERS.—The government has received documentary proofs incontrovertible, of the guilt of Jeff Davis in the matter of inhuman and most brutal treatment of Union prisoners. When disclosed to the public, as the facts will be in a few days, they will astound the civilized world.

DECLINE IN BEEF.—In the New York cattle market on Wednesday, June 14th, good to prime cattle sold at 16c. @ 17c. @ lb., estimated dressed weight; common to fair at 14c. @ 15c., and poor at 12c. @ 13c. The contract for supplying the Government with beef cattle for the coming three months was awarded at $9 35 @ 100 lbs. gross weight, against $13 49 three months ago—a falling off of $4 15, or of over 29 per cent.

EXPOSURE OF REBEL PRISONERS.—During the last few days, our city thoroughfares between the Delaware and the railroad depots has been quite lively with released rebel prisoners, on their way from Fort Delaware to their homes. They belong mostly to the Southwest. Some 500 hundred were discharged from the Fort last week. They are, almost without exception, a forlorn looking company who would be none the worse for a few northern refinements, the schoolmaster and soap and water included.

THE CROPS IN NEW JERSEY.—The crops of wheat and rye throughout Camden county promise a fine and abundant yield. Potatoes, early and late ones, look vigorous and thrifty; cherries are plentiful, and an average crop of other fruit, such as peaches and apples, is in appearance, and is growing rapidly. The grass is abundant, and will give very heavy crops. Throughout Burlington, Gloucester, Salem and Cumberland counties the crops are likewise good, and farmers are anticipating satisfactory remuneration for the labor bestowed on their fields.

KIRBY SMITH AND MAGRUDER.—News from the Gulf represents Kirby Smith as already having winged his way to Mexico, with a handsome trunk full of specie, realized in the honest calling of the cotton trade. While Davis, Lee, Johnston, Taylor, and others of his confederates were foolishly occupied with war, Kirby Smith plied his peaceful vocation in cotton, and now has something laid up against a rainy day. Magruder, who will doubtless seek refuge in Mexico, it only remains for Mahomed to go to the mountain. Or to organize the aporism, since Maximilian did not aid Magruder, Magruder had to go to the aid of Maximilian.—N. Y. Times.

BEN WOOD'S PAPER SUSTAINED BY SOUTHERN MONEY.—The paper referred to is the New York Daily News—the same to which the recently arrested apostate Irish patriot John Mitchell transferred his editorial services, when the capture of Richmond broke up his career there. In the last Friday's proceedings in the trial of the assassination conspirators, some decidedly sensational developments were made, confirmatory of the often repeated charge that the News was sustained by funds from rebel sources. An assistant manager of the Montreal branch of the Ontario Bank testified to the existence of drafts of $25,000 drawn on the City Bank of New York, payable to Benjamin Wood or order, and that, in at least one instance, Ben Wood indorsed such a draft. There is no attempt to conceal the fact that this money really came from Jacob Thomson, the leading rebel agent in Canada, the projector of the St. Albans and Lake Erie raids, the chief patron of Blackburn, who undertook to introduce yellow-fever and small-pox into New York cities, and the spokesman of the South in the Niagara Falls Conference with Mr. Horace Greeley.

JOHN MITCHELL, editor of the late Richmond Examiner, perhaps the most violent and able rebel sheet in the whole South, and understood to be the organ of Davis himself, had the effrontery to come North, and attach himself to the New York Daily News, where his editorials, with all their old rancor, have been printed, and doubtless paid for. After one peculiarly violent in tone, in which he declared he did not need and would not accept a pardon from the President, he was on the 14th, quietly arrested by Government detectives, and placed in confinement. The New York Times says:—"Unless we are greatly mistaken, we think it will be found that Mr. Mitchell is held to answer for giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States, especially in regard to the treatment of our prisoners. The Government, we have been informed, is in possession of testimony on this subject, which made his arrest a matter of absolute necessity. FINANCIAL.—Gold was 1 1/4 on Thursday. Large amounts have been leaving the country. THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.—On Tuesday, June 13th, $2,056,500 were subscribed. Gold, Tuesday, 1 P. M., 38 1/2—38 1/2.

FOREIGN. GREAT BRITAIN.—The heir to the Prince of Wales, and after him to the crown of England, was born June 3. England and France have withdrawn their recognition of belligerent rights from the rebels. For one month, however, England still insists on preventing pursuit of pirates for twenty-four hours. Secretary Seward therefore promptly gives notice that the courtesies of our ports are denied to British vessels of war. 5-20's 67 @ 67 1/2 and in good demand, June 7th.

FRANCE.—The French Government has prohibited a two-sou subscription for a medal to Mrs. Lincoln, and in one case seized the money collected. This is very small business indeed. MEXICO.—The capture of the two hundred Belgians in Tacambaro, appears to have been made the occasion of a special message to King Leopold and the Emperors of France and Austria. It has called out serious comments from the press and in the Belgian Chambers. One of the members asked the Minister for Foreign Affairs whether his order of the day did not constitute a fresh and veritable act of intervention in the affairs of Mexico. Another member asked whether the Government felt no apprehension as to the attitude the American Republic would assume toward it, in the event of a war between the United States and Mexico. To this the Minister replied that as the United States had recruited men for themselves from all parts of the world, they would not care about a few thousand Belgians having enlisted for the Emperor Maximilian. As to a war between Mexico and America the minister said "he looked upon it as impossible."

ITEMS. Ex-President Buchanan has, with the Apptions, in preparation for publication, his defence of himself from charges of collusion with the secessionists at the close of his Address to the Nation. Jeff Davis, in 1860, speaking of the United States Government "as a creature of the States," said "Mr. Lincoln try it, or Douglas either, and we'll hang them higher than Haman." So it seems Davis believes in hanging.—Ex-Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky, has come out decidedly in favor of the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment by this State. So learns the Louisville Journal, which says further: "We understand that Governor Magoffin is so fully impressed with the importance of immediate action on this great question, that he intends to take the stump in behalf of this amendment."—A Montreal paper says that emigration to the United States and other causes have combined to greatly depreciate the value of property in Canada, and in many localities farms are unobtainable at any price.—One who has seen Gen. Sheridan's speaking portraits, says they would be like him "if only his whiskers were a little redder and a greater hostility to the War Department thrown into the expression of his face."—The Michigan State Prison has been burned.—The Emperor of Brazil has recognized Maximilian as Emperor of Mexico.—General Herron, at Alexandria, Louisiana, has issued a proclamation recommending the slaves to work for their former masters for wages.—Governor Murray, of Texas, has called the rebel Legislature together, and ordered a State Convention. He has ordered all rebel property in the State to be divided among the people. Gen. Sheridan will overrule these proceedings. The loss at the great fire at Nashville is estimated at $1,250,000.—The guerrillas of Tennessee, and Northern Georgia and Alabama have dispersed.—A subscription of $60,000 has been raised in New York for General Lee.—The Fenians have organized a new brotherhood of their order in Camden, New Jersey. It has already a large membership.—A delegation of prominent Democrats have waited on the President, and had a pleasant interview. The President told them that he intended to administer the Government for the whole people and not for any party.—Several five cases of confiscation of property in Richmond have been commenced.—General Howard has very satisfactory reports of the work of freedmen on the South Carolina coast. Nine thousand colored children attend school and forty thousand freedmen are at work cultivating crops.—The spacious and elegant mansion of Pierre Soule, near New Orleans, is occupied as a Colored Orphan Asylum, under the superintendence of an intelligent lady of color from Boston, Madame L. Mortier.—Gen. Terry, the distinguished captor of Fort Fisher, has arrived at Richmond, to take command of the Department of Virginia.—Gov. Parker, of N. J., has followed the example of Gov. Curtiss, and has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to assemble on the fourth of July next, and by appropriate public exercises, observe the day as an occasion of Thanksgiving and rejoicing; and that special arrangements be made in each locality, to give a suitable welcome to the brave soldiers of the Union.—Meetings of the Southern people desirous of restoring their States to the Union, have been held in Summerville, S. C., and in Alabama.—A delegation of Col. had an interview with the President upon the subject of emigration. Twenty thousand desire to come to this country. An effort will be made to have them settle in Virginia.—Several South Carolina planters are saying their slaves wages are small.—The Spaniards are beginning the evacuation of San Domingo.

GIVING IT UP.—Major A. C. Baird, an Alabamian, and an officer in the late rebel army does this thing, reluctantly we have no doubt, but still gracefully. At a recent reconstruction meeting in Guntersville, in his State, he said:—"We have met to bury the tomahawk; to smoke the calumet of peace. All of us ought to reverence that government which we could not destroy, and to which we have been compelled to submit. I shall do it cheerfully." At the same meeting the late rebel Col. A. L. Sheffield, said:—"I have done all I could to establish the Southern Confederacy. I carried a musket for three years! I am whipped. I have been whipped for twelve months. The Southern Confederacy does not exist. I stand today like an erring child who has been whipped by his father!"

Quite the reverse of the above, and eminently characteristic, is the following mock acquiescence of Dr. Converse in his Richmond Christian Observer:—"The result of the gigantic struggle—though apparently subversive of the hopes of many—must be accepted as of Divine appointment. The sacrifices and bereavements it required, are in harmony with the prophetic words of the son of God to his friends and disciples: 'In the world ye shall have tribulations.' It becomes us not to complain, if we share the discipline which He has ever administered in His spiritual kingdom on earth."

Schools, Academies, &c. RUGBY CLASSICAL AND ENGLISH ACADEMY, NO. 1226 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA. This Institution will begin its first Session on SEPTEMBER 18, 1865. The mode of instruction and government will be after the best ENGLISH AND AMERICAN SYSTEMS. The number of pupils will be selected and limited, so that each may receive the personal attention of the Principal. It will be the constant aim to secure thorough training and sound scholarship, and to induce permanent habits of attention, application, self-reliance, method, exactness, and thoroughness. Strict discipline will be enforced, but the system will be adapted largely to moral sanctions, and will recognize the student's self-respect and sense of honor. Young men thoroughly fitted for the BUSINESS OR PROFESSIONAL LIFE. Those also who have the special co-operation of the Principal, who are preparing for College, and who wish to take a high rank in their class, and to graduate with distinction. The course in Mathematics and Natural Science will be complete. Thorough instruction will be rendered in Greek and Latin, including Greek and Latin Prose Composition, Prosody and Versification. Applications for admission will be received at 1226 CHESTNUT STREET. Until the stated number of pupils is secured. Circulars to be had on application. EDW. CLARENCE SMITH, A.M., Principal. TESTIMONIALS. From Major-General GARFIELD, M. C. (Ohio), March 20, 1865. Having learned that E. Clarence Smith is about to establish an English and Classical School for boys, in the city of Philadelphia, I desire to say that E. Clarence Smith was a classmate of mine in college, and was one of the first in his class, in all the studies of the course. He is a gentleman of clear intellect, and of most thorough cultivation. I know of no man to whom I would sooner entrust the education of young men.

From Rev. MARK HOPKINS, D.D., President of Williams College, March 14, 1865. Edward Clarence Smith pursued the full course of studies at this College. He was thorough and accurate, and was among the very best students of his class. MARK HOPKINS, D.D., Professor in Union Theological Seminary, New York, March 24, 1865. I cordially recommend the Rev. Edward Clarence Smith as a man of superior scholarship, and of the highest character. He took a high rank in this Seminary, and was very successful as a teacher in this city. In his personal and christian character he is worthy of the highest confidence. HENRY B. SMITH, WILLIAMS COLLEGE, March 28, 1865. E. Clarence Smith was a member of the senior class in this College, of the year 1856. I recollect him as a superior scholar, and more than usually correct and elegant writer. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Society, and rendered thorough and finished instruction in any department he may undertake. JOHN BASSON, Professor of Rhetoric, WILLIAMS COLLEGE, March 14, 1865. Rev. E. Clarence Smith was graduated at this College in 1856, and maintained during his connection with the institution the very first rank as a scholar, in all departments. ARTHUR L. PERRY, Professor of History, etc. REFERENCES: Rev. E. Adams D.D., Rev. Frank L. Robbins, Rev. W. T. Evans, Rev. Thomas Brazer, D.D., Rev. James Y. Mitchell, Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Hon. William D. PHILADELPHIA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES, NORTHWEST CORNER OF CHESTNUT and EIGHTEENTH STREETS. REV. CHARLES A. SMITH, D.D., PRINCIPAL. This Seminary has been in successful operation for several years; No. 1530 Arch Street. A new location has been selected, not only because it is more centrally in its relation to the most densely populated portions of the city, but also because the building is unusually large and airy, and admirably adapted to the purpose to which they are designed. To the present arrangement of the school it is needless to speak of its advantages. To others, who desire to send their daughters to a first-class institution, it will be enough to say that the design of the school is to educate, in the only true sense. To secure this end, thoroughness is aimed at in all the branches pursued, and that the student may understand the principle involved in every investigation. The classes are arranged in three departments:—Primary, Academic, and Preparatory. The instruction is given in the English, French, and Spanish languages by native resident teachers, who have no equal in this city. The students are selected for their talent of superior ability and experience devote all their time to the department of Vocal and Instrumental Music, which is directed by the Military Superintendent, has charge of the Military Department. For catalogue, &c., apply in person or by letter at the school. 951-1y

SELECT CLASSICAL AND ENGLISH SCHOOL, S. E. cor. of Thirteenth and Locust Sts., PHILADELPHIA. FOR THE SCHOOL YEAR 1864-5. Sessions Commence September 5th and February 1st. Pupils are carefully prepared for any class in college or for mercantile life. Thoroughness in every study which is undertaken is insisted upon as essential to true progress and mental development. A fine enclosed playground on the premises gives unusual value and attractiveness to the location of the school. All other desirable information will be furnished to those interested on application, either personally or by letter. B. KENDALL, A. M., Principal.

A. J. WEIDENER, 33 SOUTH SECOND STREET, PHILADELPHIA. MANUFACTURER OF COAL OIL LAMPS AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN GLASS TUMBLERS, PATENT JARS AND GLASSWARE GENERALLY. Dealers will find it to their advantage to examine our stock and compare prices before purchasing their goods for the spring sales. We would call the attention of the public particularly to our NEW STYLE OF PATENT JARS FOR PRESERVING FRUIT WITHOUT SUGAR. We can refer to hundreds of respectable persons who put up peaches and other fruit last season without the use of Syrup, and found upon opening that the fruit retained its natural flavor, and in fact was just the same as when put in the jars. A. J. WEIDENER, No. 28 South Second Street, PHILADELPHIA. SIX DOLLARS FROM FIFTY CENTS. Call and examine something urgently needed by every body, or sample will be sent free for 50 cents, call retails for 25. E. L. WOLOUT, N. Y.

Dealers will find it to their advantage to examine our stock and compare prices before purchasing their goods for the spring sales. We would call the attention of the public particularly to our NEW STYLE OF PATENT JARS FOR PRESERVING FRUIT WITHOUT SUGAR. We can refer to hundreds of respectable persons who put up peaches and other fruit last season without the use of Syrup, and found upon opening that the fruit retained its natural flavor, and in fact was just the same as when put in the jars. A. J. WEIDENER, No. 28 South Second Street, PHILADELPHIA. SIX DOLLARS FROM FIFTY CENTS. Call and examine something urgently needed by every body, or sample will be sent free for 50 cents, call retails for 25. E. L. WOLOUT, N. Y.

PHILADELPHIA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES, NORTHWEST CORNER OF CHESTNUT and EIGHTEENTH STREETS. REV. CHARLES A. SMITH, D.D., PRINCIPAL. This Seminary has been in successful operation for several years; No. 1530 Arch Street. A new location has been selected, not only because it is more centrally in its relation to the most densely populated portions of the city, but also because the building is unusually large and airy, and admirably adapted to the purpose to which they are designed. To the present arrangement of the school it is needless to speak of its advantages. To others, who desire to send their daughters to a first-class institution, it will be enough to say that the design of the school is to educate, in the only true sense. To secure this end, thoroughness is aimed at in all the branches pursued, and that the student may understand the principle involved in every investigation. The classes are arranged in three departments:—Primary, Academic, and Preparatory. The instruction is given in the English, French, and Spanish languages by native resident teachers, who have no equal in this city. The students are selected for their talent of superior ability and experience devote all their time to the department of Vocal and Instrumental Music, which is directed by the Military Superintendent, has charge of the Military Department. For catalogue, &c., apply in person or by letter at the school. 951-1y
