COMPROMISE.—Two churches in New Lisbon, Wisconsin, O. S. Presbyterian and Congregational, regarding a consoli-

REV. B. N. SEYMOUR, late pastor at Centreville and Alvarado, Cal., has been dismissed by the Presbytery of San Jose, to unite with the Bay Association of Congregational Ministers.

GRANVILLE, OHIO.—The pastorate here was vacated, a few months since, by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Jacob Little, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed pastors in the State.

CHANGE OF FIELD.—Rev. A. C. Frisell has been compelled to relinquish his pastoral charge at Buttermilk Falls, N. Y., on account of an affection of his eyes, requiring him, for the present, to discontinue his studies.

THE "MISSIONARY BOX" CAMPAIGN OF THE WINTER OPENED.—A Home Missionary (anonymous) acknowledges, through the Evangelist, the reception of a box, barrel, and a draft for thirty dollars, from the First Presbyterian Church in Aurora, N. Y.

ORDINATION OF EVANGELISTS.—Two licentiates, Mr. Arthur Goodenough and Mr. Andrew Montgomery, were ordained, sine titulo, on the 31st ult., by the Presbytery of Delaware, N. Y., in session in Stamford.

UNION CONVENTION.—We have before noticed the fact that, by previous mutual arrangement, a Union Convention of the Presbytery of Trumbull, N. S., and the Presbytery of New Lisbon, O. S., was to be held at Youngstown, Ohio, on the 7th instant.

By the diffusion of intelligence among the ignorant masses, it hopes to dissipate the mists of prejudice and thus assist in the establishment of our free institutions upon a basis that shall never be moved.

Some of those whom it proposes to relieve have never been our enemies, but have steadfastly maintained their integrity in the face of tremendous odds, and have suffered the loss of all things on account of their allegiance to the government of their fathers.

Resolved, 1. That the ministers of these two Presbyteries cultivate fraternal intercourse by exchange of pulpits and by associate works in extra efforts, as may be convenient.

Resolved, 2. That ministerial and lay delegates be appointed by each Presbytery to attend the regular meetings of the other, at least once a year.

Resolved, 3. That a convention of these two Presbyteries be held at such time and place as shall be mutually agreed upon by the respective Presbyteries.

Resolved, 4. That we encourage the circulation of the religious literature of both branches of the Church in our congregations.

Resolved, 5. That our Presbyteries memorialize our General Assemblies respectively, asking them in their wisdom to consummate an organic union when the way shall be prepared.

CALIFORNIA.—The Synod of Alta California held its annual meeting in Oakland, the first week in October. The subject of Home Missions is naturally the engrossing one in ecclesiastical meetings on the Pacific coast, and it occupied the earnest attention of the meeting now noticed.

W. F. B. Lynch, of Nevada, was ordained by one of the Presbyteries connected with the Synod. The services took place in the church in Oakland, in the presence of a large audience.

METHODIST ENTERPRISE SOUTHWARD.—There is a right way of doing things. As such we characterize the organization of the "Methodist Episcopal Church Extension Society," having for its object the enabling of the several annual conferences to extend their influence through the various States and Territories, by assisting the inhabitants to secure places of worship, so that a vigorous growth of Methodism shall go on as the country progresses.

Every assistance given to education and industry affords direct and indirect aid in the solution of the difficult problems affecting the Freedmen. What we need at the South is Christian Charity.

PENNSYLVANIA BRANCH, AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION.

Its object is to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and to aid in every possible way the impoverished masses of the South, in the re-establishment of their industrial and educational institutions upon a just and firm foundation.

By timely succor to suffering, it expects to be instrumental in allaying asperity of feeling, and uniting in fraternal affection, those who are destined henceforth to be bound together in one common nationality.

citizen of the Country, should labor to promote the interests of all sections. I know of no better way to do this, than by advancing industrial enterprises, and elevating all classes and colors, by the dissemination of virtuous intelligence. * * * You are at liberty to command my service at any time."

General Burnside says—"It will be followed by the prayers of all the loyal people of the Country."

Governor Holden, of North Carolina, says—"There is great need of your schools."

Governor Murphy, of Arkansas, says—"The Commission is another evidence that the spirit of Christianity is spreading. The people are needy, and kindness will conquer all bitter feeling. The numerous efforts of benevolent institutions of the North, have done more to conquer rebellion than all our armies."

General Howard, Superintendent of Freedmen's Bureau, says, and let his words be well weighed by every patriot and Christian—"Everything that you, as a Commission, can do to facilitate industrial pursuits, to encourage emigration, and meet the wants of the suffering among the poor white people, who have been degraded by slavery, is collateral with my work, and meets my hearty sympathy and support. The work of elevating the poor people of the South, of all classes, is the privilege, may more, it is the duty of all true men in this transition period of our history as a nation. It is well to bear in mind, particularly amongst our Christian people, and at a time when public sentiment is likely to be absorbed by other objects of interest, that duty requires them to remember the suffering poor, and make their contributions to meet their pressing wants. The Union Commission affords facilities adequate to this important work, and it becomes the Christian Churches to examine carefully the fields that demand the sort of labor referred to, and to seek earnestly, and prayerfully, to discharge the responsibilities, now more than ever devolving upon them respecting this matter."

PERRY DAVIS'—Sir: Although personally a stranger to you, yet the benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induce me to put a word of praise for it in your paper. I have been afflicted with Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weakness, Common Colic, Cholera, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Toothache, &c., there is nothing better than the Pain Killer. I have recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache by using one or two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minute intervals, in a warm cup of water.

I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the Cholera during the summer of 1864, when it was so prevalent in this city. I had constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, which the Pain Killer is a sovereign remedy; one teaspoonful during the worst case in an hour, or at most half a day. My hope of life has fled. Should this disease make its various diseases.

I have heard many cases, the country over, of dysentery, and its cure by its use. Put in the teeth, it would stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this accolade for its use. D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

The following letter is from Mr. Woodward of St. Louis to J. M. Hart, New London, Conn. Mr. Woodward is a resident of St. Louis, a gentleman of high respectability, and during the prevalence of the Cholera in that city, watched the result of the application of the Pain Killer for this disease, and his testimony can be relied upon with the utmost confidence.

Dear Sir: You recollect when I saw you in New London in your last, my expressions of my most sanguine expectations that DAVIS' PAIN KILLER would have a tremendous sale in the West. I have not been disappointed, and I have seen more than realized, and the testimony of thousands who have used it has been that they would not be willing to do without it in the future.

On the appearance of the Cholera in this city, such was the confidence in the Pain Killer as a remedy, that many who had not used it, and who had no fears or dread of the Cholera as long as they had the Pain Killer by them, and hundreds took it daily for preventive, for no person can over-derangement of the bowels or diarrhoea if they use this medicine. This was the security and confidence of the friends who were attacked with the Cholera they would administer the remedy in large quantities internally, and also externally by bathing and rubbing them with it, and in every case, when it has been taken in any of the first stages of this disease, it has proved a certain cure.

I consider it an infallible remedy. I have not heard of any individual in any family, who used the Pain Killer when attacked, but who speedily recovered. The clerk informed me that he administered it to several who were sick in the cramps, and it gave immediate relief, but still it should be given quickly, for when the discharge of "rice water" has begun, it is too late to use it. It is a safe and certain remedy, its appearance among you as in all probability it will be not alarmed; you and all others there have the remedy, and you are confident that the Pain Killer is used, not a death by Cholera will occur in your city. Respectfully yours, J. WOODWARD.

Schools and Academies

A NEW ENTERPRISE. TWO THOUSAND YOUNG MEN TO RECEIVE A COURSE OF INSTRUCTION, AT THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE. GRATUITOUSLY.

This number of transferable Scholarships, to be issued at $50 each, entitling every holder to full instruction in the Commercial Course, with the privilege of assigning the same, after the completion of the course.

AT THEIR FULL VALUE. To erect a Magnificent Building, on Chestnut street or elsewhere, for the accommodation of the College. EVERY STUDENT To have an interest in the enterprise as a stockholder, and to become the patron of an Institution which, by its character and permanence, shall be an honor to the city and its founders.

PROPOSITION. I hereby propose to issue to all qualified applicants for instruction in the Full Commercial Course in THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE TRANSFERABLE SCHOLARSHIPS, TO THE NUMBER OF TWO THOUSAND.

Indorsed with a contract to give each original holder all the privileges of the Institution, until such time as he has completed the prescribed course, with the right afterwards, or before providing he surrenders his right thereto, to assign the same for its full value to a second person, who shall be entitled to the same course, and understood and agreed that when two persons shall have so received and accepted of the scholarship it shall then be deemed cancelled.

The object of making this proposition is to increase the facilities and usefulness of the Institution, to guarantee its permanence, and identify it more closely with the enterprise and spirit of the City of Philadelphia as a city of schools and colleges, where general educational interests receive their just appreciation and liberal support; and I pledge myself to carry out the plan and purpose of the Institution, which shall be for the accommodation of the Institution, which shall be all that can be desired in architecture, dimensions, and conveniences for the purpose intended.

It is apparent that the success of the enterprise will depend upon a large increase of patronage, and if the rate of increase shall not be deemed sufficient, I reserve to myself the right to discontinue the issue of these scholarships at any time, yet, without prejudice to the rights of any who hold those already issued.

L. FAIRBANKS, PRESIDENT OF THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE.

ADVANTAGES OF THE SCHEME. First.—Under no circumstances can it be any disadvantage to the Student, inasmuch as he will receive for his instruction at the same price as he would otherwise be charged, and whatever he may afterwards receive for his scholarship will be the really a gift on the part of the proprietor. If the donor of the scholarship, his course of instruction will cost him nothing.

Second.—The scheme is entirely practicable, as its success will require no more than three times the patronage employed by this Institution during the past year.

Third.—Whether it be eventually carried out or not, the student will be equally the gainer, for the contract with him will remain good at all events, and his scholarship will be redeemable as before provided. Fourth.—Parents and Guardians having sons and wards to educate in the future, can save money by purchasing for their children the rights of the time of their entering.

Fifth.—Young men without the necessary means to pay for a course of instruction, can purchase for themselves a Scholarship, and, by their own efforts, and by the aid of their friends, secure the benefits to be derived from it, and reserve to themselves a very acceptable present from a Merchant to a faithful employee. Let the Merchants of Philadelphia remember this at the approaching holidays.

Seventh.—The charter of the College, and an agreement already made for the purchase of the building, afford a guaranty of its permanence; and at any time during its existence these scholarships must be redeemed, according to agreement, whether in the hands of the present proprietor or of another.

ADDITIONAL ACCOMMODATIONS SECURED. In addition to the building now occupied, the large HALL OF THE SPRING GARDEN INSTITUTE, N. E. CORNER OF BROAD AND SPRING GARDEN STREETS, has been leased, and will be immediately fitted up in superior style.

This is one of the finest Halls in the city for this purpose, and is admirably located to accommodate those residing in the northwestern portion of the city. It is 100 feet long and 45 feet wide, and is now undergoing alterations and repairs costing about $2000. It will be furnished at an expense of about seven thousand dollars, and will be one of the most convenient and attractive school-rooms in the country.

TELEGRAPH LINE. The building at Tenth and Chestnut streets will be connected with that at Broad and Spring Garden streets by a Telegraph Line, thus giving additional facilities in the Department of Telecommunications.

TEACHERS. Several new Teachers have been engaged, and every facility will be afforded to those who enter the institution for the acquisition of a thorough practical knowledge of business.

TO PARENTS, GUARDIANS AND YOUNG MEN. Immediate application will be necessary to secure the advantages of this offer, as the proposition will not be continued before the public without the fullest assurance of its ultimate success. All scholarships issued, whether it be ten or one hundred, shall be redeemed as agreed. Scholarships can be secured in advance of the time when it is intended to use them, by remittances, pro draft, through the mail, or express. L. FAIRBANKS, A. M., PRESIDENT.
