REVIVALS.

In the First Church N. L., interesting services on the successive evenings, of several weeks past have been held and we are gratified to state that, at the late communion, thirty-one persons, on profession, were added to the membership.

FIRST CHURCH KENSINGTON.—Deep and wide-spread religious interest prevails, especially in the Sabbath-school and Bible-classes of this church. The number of inquirers is very large, in fact unprecedented in the experience of the pastor, who has seen many seasons of revival; and the interest appeared somewhat suddenly.

WILLIAMSPORT.—We were gratified with a visit, one day last week, from Rev. J. Macfarlane, of the Presbyterian Church, (O. S.) of Towanda, who confirms all the accounts of the wonderful and extensive character of the work of grace in that town and section. A communication from his pen, describing some of the missionary features of the work, will be found on the inside.

Mr. Macfarlane visited Williamsport on his journey to this city. He arrived there at ten o'clock at night, and his hotel was directly opposite the Court House, where union services had been in progress for some weeks. At that hour, he expected to find the people dispersed; on the contrary, there was still a movement towards the Court House, which he entered and found crowded with upwards of a thousand hearers, hanging in deep and fearful interest upon the speaker, Mr. Hammond.

REVIVALS IN MINNESOTA.—The church in Belle Plain, (Rev. J. Ruliffson's), has recently had an accession of eleven members on profession. Sixteen have been received on profession to the church in Mankato, of which Rev. Mr. Marshall is pastor.

VENANGO CO., PA.—The church in Sunville, under the pastoral charge of Rev. W. C. Birchard, has enjoyed a season of special Divine influences. At the communion season, on the 18th ult., thirty-nine were received on profession of their faith.

A NEW PASTOR IN NEW YORK.—Rev. E. W. Hitchcock, the newly elected pastor of the Fourteenth Street Church, formerly Dr. Asa D. Smith's, entered upon his work last Sabbath. Mr. H. comes to his new field at the unanimous and earnest call of the congregation, and brings to it a great amount of experience, and the prestige of past success.

BROOKLYN CHURCHES.—The La Fayette Street Church, (Rev. T. L. Cuyler's), is blessed with a powerful work of grace; conversions are multiplied. This work was preceded by a temperance revival. Rev. C. S. Robinson and wife sailed, with several friends, on Wednesday, for a six months' tour in Europe and the Holy Land.

LANE SEMINARY.—The much regretted transfer of Professor Day from Lane to Yale, has occasioned an important recast of the faculty of the former, including the election of a new professor, whose name and services, if secured, will be a ample compensation for the loss sustained. Prof. Smith has been transferred by the Executive Committee to the chair of Biblical Literature; Prof. Allen to the chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology; and Rev. R. W. Patterson, D. D., of Chicago, has been elected Professor of Systematic Theology.

CHURCH ORGANIZED.—Eight persons were organized into the Church of Sulphur Springs, Mo., in December, by Rev. W. S. Post; others are preparing to unite. Mr. Post says to the Presbyterian Reporter: "I will add that I have an order from Rev. Dr. Nelson's Church, of our Presbyterian Publication Committee, for $50 worth of books for our new Church, and for our Sabbath-school, or where ever else I may deem it best to use them."

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.—Rev. Ely Burchard, of the Presbytery of Utica, died in Clinton, N. Y., on the 4th ult. Mr. B. was for a few years, in the earlier part of his ministry, settled over the church in Augusta, N. Y., where he labored with acceptance and success. The chief part of his life was devoted to teaching, a work to which he felt himself more peculiarly adapted. He had little ambition for wide fame, but was distinguished within the circle of his acquaintance for clearness of mind and a well comprehended theology of the Calvinistic type, and also for an unusual familiarity with the original texts of the Holy Scriptures. As a man and a Christian, he won a universal esteem and affection. He died at the age of 77. His end was peace, speaking with his latest breath of Jesus as altogether precious, and chief among ten thousand.

PEW-RENTING AT RED BLUFF.—The Pacific says:—There is one secular paper in this State, (California,) which takes a positive interest in the religious affairs of the place it represents. It is the Red Bluff Independent. Not a few of our newspapers spend ten columns on some notice of a sermon to one they spend on a Church of Christ. Our Red Bluff exchange notices all business meetings of the church (Presbyterian) in that place, and we have seen notices also of the weekly prayer-meetings. Its last number has a paragraph on the services held during the Week of Prayer. Of the recent pew-renting it says:—"We are happy to state that the demand for pews was greater than ever we saw it since the church was built, and shows that our citizens are determined to sustain the preaching of the Gospel."

PRESBYTERIAN.

Deaths in the Ministry.—Rev. John A. Lewis, of the Indiana Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, died at his residence in Fort Branch, Gibson Co., Ind., on a late Sabbath, at 8 o'clock A. M., after a protracted illness of chronic diarrhea, contracted while in the service of his country as chaplain of the 10th Indiana cavalry.—Rev. Jesse Edwards, a much valued Western minister, departed this life on the 7th ult., at Plover, Wis., at the age of 47 years.—Rev. Henry E. Crawford, pastor of Pleasant Church, in Madison Presbytery, Ind., died of pulmonary disease on the 5th ult. On his dying bed, he reaffirmed the truths which he had preached, and enjoyed in fullness their support.

Rev. J. A. Hodge, of Philadelphia, has become pastor of the Presbyterian church in Hartford.

First Pastor Installed in Colorado.—Rev. Theodore D. Marsh was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church of Black Hawk, Colorado, Feb. 4th, by the newly formed Presbytery of Colorado. Rev. J. B. McClure, of Denver, preached the sermon; Rev. G. M. Campbell, of Boulder, gave the charge to the pastor; and Rev. Wm. Crawford, of the Congregational church, Central City, gave the charge to the people. This is the first installation in the Territory of Colorado, and over a church which has the only church-building yet erected in the Rocky Mountains.—Evangelist.

A Non-Secession Church in Texas.—During the entire rebellion the Old School Presbyterian church at the capital of Texas, Rev. Wm. M. Baker, pastor, held itself entirely aloof from the Confederate General Assembly, never being represented therein, nor in Synod or Presbytery, these having given in their adherence to the same. Mr. Baker having entered upon another field of labor, this invitation to Rev. Thaddeus McRae, of South Carolina, to become their pastor. With the hearty assent of this brother, who has labored in Texas with great acceptance for several years, the Austin church have resolved to continue that connection with the General Assembly of the United States, which even the rebellion had failed to sever. The location of this church at the capital of Texas, lends an interest to its straightforward and steady course, making it a conspicuous example well worthy of imitation.—N. Y. Observer.

A Minister and Editor Disabled.—The North Western Presbyterian announces the prostration, by paralysis, of its associate editor, Rev. Alfred Hamilton, D. D. The hope is expressed that he may not be permanently disabled. Dr. Hamilton formerly filled an important pastorate—that of Fagg's Manor, in the neighboring county of Chester, and enjoyed largely the esteem of the churches in that region.

Revivals.—The Western Presbyterian contains the following from Rev. W. R. Brice, Columbus Grove, Ky.:—"I wrote you some time since that the Lord was blessing us here, in reviving his people and turning sinners to himself. The good work still goes on. Since our meeting has commenced, one hundred and eleven united with the church—one hundred and six on examination, and five on certificate."

A short time since, we mentioned the existence of a revival in Rev. Mr. Stevens' church in Jersey Shore, Pa. We now see it stated that already forty-seven have been added on profession of faith. Among these were persons of forty and sixty-six years old, who had withstood the influence of the Holy Spirit during all the past revivals with which that church has been blessed.

A correspondent writes to the Pittsburgh Banner:—"We have just closed an interesting series of meetings in the church of Kirkwood, Rev. C. W. Chaffant, pastor, and received thirty-one members, twenty-three of whom were received on profession. This nearly doubles our active membership in this little church."

The church in Elizabeth, Presbytery of Redstone, of which Rev. J. Logan Sample is pastor, is having a precious season. Forty-four—twenty-seven males and seventeen females—profess hope in Christ, and the work is growing in power. A New York letter says:—"Prayer-meetings have been held every day for the last four weeks in different Presbyterian churches. Last week these meetings were held in the First Presbyterian church, on Fifth Avenue, of which the Rev. Wm. M. Paxton, D. D., late of Pittsburgh, is the pastor. These services have been very well attended, and give evidences of awakened faith, prayer, and activity among Christians, and also of some inquiry on the part of the impenitent."

the Holy Spirit doing its saving work. Conversions are numerous, mostly among the young.

Quite a number of accessions have been made to the Presbyterian church, (Rev. E. McCord's), in Clayton, Ind.

The Chicago correspondent of the Presbyterian reports revivals in progress in the churches in Chester, Geneseo, and Champaign, all in Illinois.

The same paper says:—"We hear of a work of grace in Penn's Valley, Pa., in the bounds of the charge of the Rev. Robert Hamill, where the power of the Spirit of God has been manifested in the conversion of about thirty-five, while many are deeply interested in the great question of salvation."

The N. W. Presbyterian reports a number of revivals in Illinois. Among the places named is Kankakee, Buoyong, Ohio, has also been blessed. The season of special interest is from the revival at Kankakee. The Cincinnati Presbyterian contains the account of a quiet but steadily progressing work of grace among the young ladies in attendance upon the Cooper Female Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. It is believed that about twenty have, under its influence, passed from death unto life. A revival is also reported from De Graff, Ohio, and another in the "Parish Church," a new and promising field near De Graff. The pastor at Highland, Kansas, writes to the same paper that about forty persons in his congregation have recently expressed a hope of salvation, while others are deeply anxious. Montgomery, Ohio, and Tipton, Ind., are also scenes of peculiar religious interest.

The Proposed O. S. Convention.—The Cincinnati Presbyterian earnestly second Dr. Breckinridge's proposal for a convention to meet in St. Louis, in May next, on Tuesday evening before the Assembly meets, for the purpose of prayer and conference, in regard to the state of the Church, and the new work of preparing a paper to be presented to the Assembly on the duties, dangers and necessities of the Church in the present crisis. "We propose," says the Presbyterian, "to keep Dr. Breckinridge's call before our readers for several weeks, and we ask our ministers and ruling elders, who approve of such a Convention, to send in their names, that they may be published as uniting in calling it. We hope this request will not be neglected. Let it be known how far this measure is approved in the Church."

Congregationalist.—We regret to say the Congregationalist, to record, this week, the dismissal of several excellent ministers for the simple reason of inadequate support; and we have other instances in mind where similar action is contemplated for the same cause.

The Congregational Association of Western Pennsylvania held its annual meeting with the church in Randolph, Crawford Co., about eighty miles north of Pittsburgh, commencing Tuesday, February 15th, and continuing until the afternoon of Thursday. It was good to be there. The church was crowded during all the services with attentive congregations. George E. DeLamater, of Meadville, says, "I was largely attended; no deep work, but the business of the meeting with fine spirit and promptness. The Association comprises about ten churches, the reports from which were of the most interesting character, indicating the presence of the Holy Spirit, and waiting and longing, on the part of pastors and people, for the revival of the work of grace."

The Congregationalist has the account of a great work in progress at the Central Church in Brooklyn (Mr. French's). Without any special call, the regular Friday evening prayer-meetings were so largely attended, that the pastor, Mr. French, was obliged to conduct the services of the meeting with fine spirit and promptness. The Association comprises about ten churches, the reports from which were of the most interesting character, indicating the presence of the Holy Spirit, and waiting and longing, on the part of pastors and people, for the revival of the work of grace.

Micellaneous.—The N. Y. Observer takes from a private letter from Charleston, S. C., the following items:—"Church matters are looking up a little. Dr. Smyth has returned, and has resigned his pastorate, although he still supplies the pulpit. The Zion Presbyterian Church occupy the building of the Globe Church. The Central Church will soon re-open; repairs are going on. Rev. Lucien Outhbert, late of Aiken, S. C., has settled with the traded Square Baptist Church. There is a prospect of a temporary union of the First Baptist Church and the Wentworth Street Church, to re-open the church in Wentworth Street. The Methodist Protestant Church has been 'reconstructed,' and is now a Lutheran Church; Mr. Bowman, the pastor, his former church uniting. St. Michael's Church has been repaired and opened. St. Philips is being repaired. The Huguenot stands untouched as yet."

Reformed Dutch.—The Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed Dutch Church has inaugurated an effort to raise a "Church Building Fund" of $50,000. The first Sabbath in April is the time designated for simultaneous collections, and the Board appeal to every pastor, consistory, head of a family and Sabbath-school scholar, to make special exertions at that time. The Board of Foreign Missions has been, for some time past, under serious pecuniary embarrassment. A liberal friend who has lately given $2500 for its relief, now proposes, through the Intelligence, to be one of five persons to give $1000 or $2000 each, during the next sixty days, for the same object.

Lutheran.—Our readers will have noticed that a good many revivals have been recently noticed in the Observer. Special services have been held by many of our pastors. A religious awakening more or less extensive has been experienced in many congregations. Hundreds of immortal beings have been brought to a saving knowledge of Christ, and the approaching Spring Communion. From the letters that come to hand we are satisfied that there is a very encouraging state of things in our Church, within the bounds of the General Synod. One feature of the recent revivals in our Church is, that they are carried on in connection with the regular means of grace, and strictly within the Church. The pastors and elders and praying members are the workers. Neighboring pastors lend their aid. The truth is faithfully preached by ministers on the ground and those who live near the place. There is more general reliance on the truth of the Gospel and the power of the Holy Spirit, and less on men and their manner of presenting the truth. It is felt that Christ, by himself, can build up His kingdom. The result has been deeper religious conviction, clearer perception of the truth, by the awakened, more thorough conversions, more solemnity in the services, and a purer love of piety.—Lutheran Observer.

Episcopal.—At the semi-centennial celebration of Trinity Church in New Haven, February 20th, a collection of $2622 was taken for building a new window to commemorate the event.—The Diocese of South Carolina, in convention at Charleston, Feb.

16th, resolved to return into union with the Church in the United States. After the adoption of the resolution the Convention rose and sang the Gloria in Excelsis.—St. Paul's Church, New Orleans, has, at an expense of $300, placed upon its walls a tablet in memory of its late Diocesan, Right Rev. and Gen. Leonidas Polk. The latter of the above titles is very wisely left out from the marble.—The Diocesan Board of Missions of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, is aiding in the support of twenty-nine laborers within its bounds, at an aggregate expense of $5574. An itinerant missionary has recently been appointed to visit and minister in the unsupplied villages along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Board asks for the means of carrying this effort out generally along the routes.—An Episcopal parish was recently organized in Oil City, Pa., the Presbyterian church edifice being loaned for the occasion.

Methodist.—The Western Christian Advocate, Methodist, states that upon a careful examination of its columns for the last five weeks, it finds that during that time within the bounds of its circulation, over ten thousand have been added to the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church.—On the 15th day of April, 1866, the African Methodist Episcopal Church will have completed the fifth year of its organization. The membership now numbers about seventy-five thousand. In accordance with the advice of the bishops, the 8th, 15th, and 16th days of April, are to be devoted to special sentimental or jubilee services.—The Methodist states, there is likely to be some trouble about the transfer of the Churches claimed by the seceding Baltimore Conference. At present they are added to the Methodist Episcopal Church. A Washington despatch to the Evening Post says:—"The President has issued an order restoring all the churches and parsonages within the bounds of the Baltimore Annual Conference, embraced in the State of Virginia, to the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, held by said churches prior to 1861. This order further states that such possession shall be valid until the civil courts shall have determined in whom the legal title vests. The effect of the order will be to take from under the control of the Conference lately sitting in Alexandria, [the disloyal branch] all such property, and place it in the possession of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States, which will meet the last of this month in Baltimore city."

Baptist.—A new Baptist Church in Stockton, Hunterdon County, N. J., was publicly "recognized" by an ecclesiastical council, on the 13th ult.—The last National Baptist, gives the following account of the progress of the work of grace in its churches in this city:—"The pastors of the churches, in which there has been unusual interest, continue to be greatly encouraged. Last Lord's day baptisms were administered, so far as we have learned, as follows: by Brother Smith, of the Eleventh Church, sixteen candidates; by Brother Kennard, of the Tenth Church, thirteen; by Brother Wilder, of the Olive Church, thirteen; by Brother Perry, of the Mariners' Church, six; by Brother Lang, of Germania, eleven; by Brother Simmons, of the Fifth Church, three; by Brother Castle, of the First Church, West Philadelphia, six; by Brother Cooper, of the Berean Church, three; by Brother Jeffery, of the Fourth Church, five. The work of Divine grace in the Falls of Schuylkill Church, Twenty-first Ward, advances with augmented power. The sanctuary is crowded each night of the week. Sixteen more were baptized on Sunday evening, and many more are earnestly desiring to see Jesus."

The Baptist has been connected to the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, in Chicago. While waiting for the erection of a Seminary building, the class is accommodated in the University.—A large and elegant church at La Crosse has recently been burned. No doubt exists that it was a case of incendiaryism, and it is supposed to have been instigated by run-sellers and their customers.—The accounts of revivals, contained in our Baptist exchanges, still continue numerous.

ALLOCK'S PAIN PLASTER.—A celebrated physician says: "I was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. He affirms that headache cured by one worn just below the breast bone; that one placed over the stomach will cure hysterics, as well as dysentery, and affections of the bowels."

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.—It is not likely that the popularity of this celebrated medicine will in any measure decrease, or that the demand for it will in the slightest degree decline, until some other specific for relieving pain and curing the various ills for which the Pain Killer is used shall be discovered of equal potency with it—of which there would seem to be little probability at the present day. We understand that the cost of some of the ingredients of which the Pain Killer is composed, has very much increased since the commencement of the war, though the price of the medicine has been but very little advanced. Indeed it is not only one of the very best and most reliable medicines in use for numerous ills, but it is also one of the cheapest. As a remedy for stomach complaints at this season, or any season of the year when they occur, we regard it as of the very highest value; and we speak from experience when we say this, for we have repeatedly tried it, and invariably with the happiest results and the greatest satisfaction. When various other things failed, and we were growing alarmingly worse, we have taken the Pain Killer and found it to work like a charm. Three doses—half a teaspoonful each in a wine glass of water or milk with a little sugar—has effectually cured us when quite unwell.—Providence Advertiser. 1031-32

A Noble Charity.—Dr. A. G. Egbert, of Mercer County, in this State, who has realized a large fortune from oil lands, recently made the following generous proposal to the Northern Home for Friendless Children:—"The Doctor will donate 200 acres, near the town of Mercer, and erect thereon buildings, to cost not less than $100,000, and capable of accommodating from 400 to 500 children. The benefits of the institution are to accrue to all friendless children, but especially to the orphans of soldiers and sailors. Mr. Watson, also of Mercer County, will contribute an additional $50,000. The ground for the buildings is to be broken early in the spring. The institution is to be controlled jointly by the managers of the Northern Home and a board of officers from Western Pennsylvania. These noble offers were unanimously accepted by the managers of the Home, and the necessary committees for their early consummation appointed. No present benefit, however, accrues from this donation to the Northern Home."

Every Republican paper in Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and in Illinois except the Chicago Journal, opposes the President's veto and sustains Congress.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

The Directors of the "Revenue Extension Silver Mining Company," of this city, have received a telegram from their Superintendent, dated Austin, February 22, 1866. He says:—"At work on Revenue Extension mine; ore taken out to-day assayed $457 45 to the ton. Work on Hopkins' Tunnel has advanced seventy feet under contract." This is very flattering news for all interested, and gives every indication of early receipts of bullion by the Company. The very rich yield of ore from the Extension Mine at this early stage of working, is an undoubted evidence of the reliability of the vein, and that the surest proof that the statements heretofore made in regard to the value of this mine have not been exaggerated. The rapidity with which work is being pushed upon the Tunnel is also highly encouraging, as a distance of seventy feet has been accomplished in twenty days by working day and night. Every effort will be made to push the development of this extensive property as rapidly as possible, and, together with the very rich workings of the Revenue Extension Mine, it will ere long furnish large returns of bullion. Now that we have actual results from the mines, there is little doubt that the stock of the "Revenue Extension Silver Mining Company" will prove the best of this class of investments yet offered, and a continuance of the energy and economy now evinced by the officers of this Company will assuredly result in flattering success.

MARRIAGES.

ALLOCK'S PAIN PLASTER.—A celebrated physician says: "I was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. He affirms that headache cured by one worn just below the breast bone; that one placed over the stomach will cure hysterics, as well as dysentery, and affections of the bowels."

CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS. CITY POINT, Va., January 24, 1865. T. ALLOCK & Co.—Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking on that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there, and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account.

Yours, truly, JOSEPH GATEWOOD.

New Publications.

HORACE GREELEY'S HISTORY OF THE WAR. "THE AMERICAN CONFLICT." IN TWO VOLUMES. ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED WITH ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE PORTRAITS ON STEEL, NUMEROUS MAPS AND DIAGRAMS OF BATTLE-FIELDS, VEINS, &c. 125,000 Copies Sold.

Volume I. of this History, published almost two years later than the first part of nearly every other, includes among its chapters the full and complete history of those early works, and is everywhere recognized as the highest authority, even by the author's political opponents. Volume II. will be ready in a few months—at the earliest day on which well prepared history of the war can be obtained. The entire volume is unequalled in excellence of plan and detail, will be vastly superior to any of those now completed, (most of which were completed long before Gen. Grant's report was made), and by far the most satisfactory history of the late stupendous struggle—altogether unexcelled in clearness, fairness and accuracy of statements, combined with candor and graphic delineation of events.

If completed as designed, the work will be authorized by the State of New York, and will be a history of the Country.—A. G. CURRIE, Governor of Pennsylvania.

It would be difficult to place too high an estimate on the service Mr. Greeley has rendered our country by the preparation of this volume. * * * I await with anxious interest the entire volume with eager expectation.—Wm. D. KELLEY, M. C.

It bears the marks of labor, studied candor and accuracy.—Wm. H. SWANN, Secretary of State.

The narrative is simple and clear, with much of life and spirit in it that it is next to impossible to read a whole chapter without stopping. * * * It will be, and ought to be read by all our countrymen.—EDGAR COWAN, U. S. Senator.

Its accuracy gives it a value beyond any other history of that event. The full and complete impartiality of Mr. Greeley will make this the text of all future histories of the Great Rebellion.—THOMAS SWETT, J. R.

Of all the Histories of the Great Rebellion which I have examined, this one seems to me the best in the completeness of its antecedent and concurrent Congressional Records, as well as of the events of the war itself.—SCOURLER COLfax, Speaker of U. S. House of Representatives.

Volume II. will be accompanied (without extra charge) by a elegant copperplate Map of the Coast of War, worth $1 00. Sold only by traveling agents. Address O. D. CASE & CO., Publishers, Hartford, Conn.
