CARROLLTON, ILL.—The foundations of a new church building have been laid. It is to be of brick, in the Gothic style, and is designed to afford about four hundred sittings. The money for its erection—about nine thousand dollars—has been pledged within he congregation. Our church membership s about seventy, mostly persons of only moderate means. A few have wealth. All pushed to a speedy completion when spring

THE REFORMED CHURCHES.

IN. B.—In adopting this time-honored designation "Reformed," (as the name of those branches of the Christian church, which assert ministerial parity and outward organic union in church order, and the Augustinian or Calvinistic doctrines in matters of faith,) we, of course, would not be understood as stigmatizing other bodies as unreformed. We use the word simply in the technical, historical sense.]

is withdrawal from the ministry and communion of the Presbyterian Church, the Stated Clerk was irected to strike his name from the roll and pubish the fact in all the religious papers. Mr. Francis Heyl has been licensed to preach.

Not Willing To Go.—At the last meeting of the Synod of New Jersey, one of the officers of the Exe-cutive Committee of Foreign Missions made the remarkable statement. "that for the last eighteen months, not a single person from any of our seminaries, not one from Princeton, not one from Alleghany, had made an application to that body to be ent as a missionary to any part of the pagan or Mohammedan world.

Freedmen's Presbyterian Church.—A corresondent writes from Columbia, Tenn.:-A colored Presbyterian Church, Old School, was dedicated at Columbia, Tenn., on the 23d of December. The edilice is 35 by 60 feet, two stories; and is designed both or a church and school. The freedmen manifest no little interest in having an organization of their own, elders of their own, grounds and buildings of their own, deeded to them. This is, perhaps, the first dedication of the kind in the Old School connecion in Tennessee,—N. Y. Observer.

The Western Presbyterian Centenary is elicitng facts as to the early history of the West. The aptist claim that the first Church founded in the tate of Ohio was the Baptist Church at Columbia, ear Cincinnati. That was just 76 years ago. On he other hand, the Presbyterians claim that a Presyterian Church was founded at Marietta, Rev. Mr. torey, pastor, eight months previously to this. The first Presbyterian Church organized in Cincinnati, was by Rev. James Kemper, in 1790. The first Methodist sermon preached in Ohio was by Rev. John Kohler, in 1780.

Presbyterianism in New Hampshire. - The Beotch Irish Presbyterians came to New Hampshire as early as 1719. The first settlement was made in the southern part of the State upon the large tract soon after known as Londonderry. Accessions were early and numerously made to the colony chiefly by immigration, and soon the tide took a northwesterly course until the towns of Bedford, New Boston, Petersboro,' and Antrim were peopled with sturdy nen of faith and prayer. Hence, wherever they ocated in sufficient numbers to form churches, they adopted the Presbyterian policy.

There are now seven Presbyterian churches in the State—Antrim, New Boston, Bedford, Londonderry, Windham, Manchester, and Litchfield. The first five of these are strong vigorous churches, with an aggregate membership of over nine hundred. The church of Manchester, located on the west side of the river in the suburban village of Piscataquog, is a missionary enterprise organized in 1859. It has struggled for life amid many unpropitious circumstances, and is now in a feeble state without a stated supply or regular worship. The church of Litch-field, though situated in the "intervale" of the Merrimac, of unsurpassed fertility, in a beautiful street, and in the richest town in the State for its population, has never enjoyed marked prosperity. In the town of Windham, Litchfield, and Bedford, no other ecclesiatical organizations exist. Antrim, Litchfield and Windham are without settled pastors.

There are other fragmentary Presbyterian ele-ments in the State. Until within a few years Petersboro' had a Presbyterian polity. The nucleus of the First "Congregational Church at Manchester" was an old Presbyterian church at Amoskeag. Glusgow for its centre.

SUNNY SIDE ITEMS.—The church at Ames- "The First Church of Derry" is a union of Presbyterian and Congregational elements. And during the long pastorate of the late Mr. Parker, it was Cheadle, on New Year's day, spread a boun- regularly represented in the Presbytery of Londontiful table, and left, among other gifts, a roll derry. The First Congregational Church of Derry, was formed in part of a section of the Londonderry of greenbacks amounting to $60. The Church, when its present house of worship was thurch at Blue Ball, O., visited their pastor, erected on a new site in 1837. The town of Auburn in other years had a Presbyterian Church. And from all those old Presbyterian towns there have migrated to Manchester, Nashua and many other cities and villages many families of sterling worth, that have become very pillars in Congregational churches in those places .- Congregationalist.

[New Jersey, then, is not the only State in which churches have changed their relations in large num-

The Reactionists of the O. S. Church have larmed our contemporary, the Presbyterian, at last. One of their articles (signed "A Minority Man,") has have given liberally, and the work will be been rejected, and the whole series, with additions, is announced as coming out in pamphlet form. Better have refused the first of them.

Result of Revival Work.—The bounds of the CINCINNATI, OHIO.—A mother in Israel, O. S. Synod of Pittsburg, have been the scene of reull of years and good works, fell asleep on peated Presbyterial conventions, to discuss such questions as "What is a revival? What means ought to be employed in seeking a revival, and what encouragements have we to use them? What hinderances stand in the way? How can they be removed or overcome?" As a result, the five Presbyteries composing it report accessions of 603 in 1864, 686 in 1865, and 1125 in 1866.

Pacific Coast.—A new Presbyterian Church (O. S.,) has been organized at Visalia, Cal. The nearest Presbyterian church is 175 miles distant, at Stocksecond Church, which was organized in ton. Fourteen members have come forward, and others are expected.

Revivals.—Rayne; O., church is enjoying an encouraging revival. Twenty members were added at New London, Pa., at the last communion, making seventy during 1865-66. At German Valley, N. J. over forty have been awakened, most of whom express hope in Christ. At Petersburgh, Ill., over fifty conversions are reported. A work of grace is in progress at Lycoming Centre, Pa.; many are hopefully converted, and the church is expected to treble its numbers.

Dedication .- On Sabbath, the 23d of December, a church edifice was dedicated to the service of God, at Mechanicsville, Cedar Co., Iowa. The Church was organized eleven years ago, and has been selfsustaining for five years.

Dead .- Judge Perkins, of the "Oaks," near Cocommunion, thirty by profession, and eleven by letter.

Union Seminary, N. Y.—Zion's Herald says: "We understand that there are some to endow the professorship of "Natural Sciences in connection with Revealed Religion."

> A Veteran Gone,-Rev. John Munson, so long known in the Presbytery of Allegheny as "Father Munson," died at his residence in London, Mercer county, Pa., on the 18th of December, in the eightythird year of his age. His ministry in that county had extended over a period of more than forty > Dr. Wadsworth to Stay in California. We are glad, says the Pacific of Dec. 27th, to have the assurance contained in the Times of the 24th, that the excellent Doctor has decided to remain here, notwithstanding the urgent call he has had to go East. His sermon of Sunday last, in behalf of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, was remarkably pathetic and eloquent. Judging his pulpit performances by the sermons we have heard and read, we should pronounce them rich spiritual and intellectual feasts.

First Reformed Presbyterian Church of New York.—The Rev. Dr. McLeod delivered a discourse, Philadelphia O. S. Fresbytery.—The Rev. R. Sabbath, Jan. 13, commemorative of the seventieth Westbrook, D. D., having by letter announced anniversary of the organization of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church in that City. He stated that for sixty-six years the pastorate has been held by father and son, (Drs. Alex. and John N. McLeod, successively; both being being installed at the age of twenty-seven, and in the old Chambers St. Church; and both having filled the pulpit for a period of thirty-three years. During the past thirty-three years some seventeen hundred and twenty-five persons had been admitted to the Church, and from this organization over three others had been formed The Church was first organized at the house No. 15 Peck slip in 1797, thence to Chambers street in 1801, and thence to 12th street. The congregation is now in a flourishing condition, and claims to be the oldest Presbyterian Church in New York, but one. (Dr. Spring's, O. S.) that has continued its original ecclesiastical connection.

First R. P. Church, Phila.—This "Mother o Churches" has raised the pastor's salary from $2,500 to $3,500, by a unanimous vote. The church was established at the close of the last century, and has sent out nearly thirty ministers of the gospel, but has only had two pastors—the present incumbent, Dr. T. W. J. Wylie, being the son of the first, Dr. S. B. Wylie, who was ordained in 1799. The membership is estimated at about 800.

Death of a Pioneer Preacher.—Rev. John W. Morrison died at Lake Forrest, Ill., on the 5th inst. For a quarter of a century he preached the Gospel, as a minister of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, with clearness, eloquence, and fidelity. In many a Western settlement the first sermon ever preached was uttered by his voice, and the first baptism was performed by his hands. The congregation of Bloom, where, for twenty-one years, he was pastor, grew from a handful of Christless settlers into a large, intelligent, well-organized, praying congregation under his ministry; and his funeral exercises were blessed to the revival of religion in the hearts of many who wept around his grave.

German Reformed Statistics.—The statistical report for the Synodic year gives the following results, viz.: 2 Synods, 29 classes, 475 ministers, 1,162 congregations, 109,258 members, 70,432 unconfirmed members, 11,088 haptisms, 6,811 confirmations, 2,392 received on certificates, 90,972 communed, 196 excommunicated, 1,244 dismissed, 4,169 deaths, 926 Sunday schools, 29,167 Sunday school scholars, $50,882 46 benevolent contributions. The increase during the year is 1 minister, 33 congregations, 6,927 members, 4,143 unconfirmed members, 1,803 confirmations, 220 receptions on certificate, 59 day schools, 6,063 Sunday school scholars, and $16, 182 80 benevolent contributions. The decrease is 546 baptisms, and 435 deaths.

The Second Ref. Dutch Church, of Coxsackie, reported on Thanksgiving day $5724 as subscribed and paid during the year for improving the church edifice and the purchase of a parsonage. Of this sum $530 was the contribution of the ladies of the congregation.

The Professorship of Evangelistic Theology.--Dr. Duff, taking the matter in hand with his char acteristic energy and zeal, has succeeded in raising £10,000 ($50,000,) for the endowment of this new Free Church professorship, and has consented to allow himself to be nominated for the position. His nomination is understood to be equivalent to his unanimous appointment, as the other candidates have withdrawn their names.

OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

Bantist.—Rev. J. A. Smith, D. D., in a communication to the Western Pulpit on the subdivisions and prospects of the union of the Baptist denomination, furnishes these statistics: Regular Baptists, 1,040,303; Disciples, Campbellites, 300,000; Freewill Baptists, 56,738; Seventh-Day Baptists, 6,686; Six Principles Baptists, 3,000; Winnebrennarians, 23,800; Antimission Baptists, 50,000; Christians, 33,640; Dunkers, 20,000. Total, 1,544,167. Of these the "Christians" reject the doctrines of the Trinity, and the Campbellites undervalue Christian experience, holding faith to be an intellectual assent to the truth. Gifts in 1866.—Mr. Vassar, of Poughkeepsie, has given nearly $500,000; Gardner Colby, of Boston, $75,000; Colgate & Trevor, of New York, $75,000; Tracy H. Harris, of New York, $25,000; John Rathbone, $25,000. Besides these gifts, mostly for educational purposes, Rochester University has received $200,000; Lewisburg University, Pa., $100,000; and Brown University, two or three thousand dollars, from Baptists in Rhode Island and elsewhere.

Methodist .- Zion's Herald estimates the aggre gate of the centenary collections at $3,671,784; of which New York State gives $1,360,257, and Ohio, $695,792. Our own State cum magno intervallo se quitur, giving $258,976, and Massachusetts $236,023.

Moravian.-The German branch of the United Fratrum numbers 14,240 adult communicants. "In the missions there are 32,339 baptized adults, in all 70,235, counting candidates (12,089) and children They have eighty-nine mission stations, and 307 preaching places. There are 162 male and 151 female missionaries, 882 male and female native assistants, a total of 1,195 laborers in the foreign Missionary.—Madagascar.—In church fellowship there are now 4,374 persons, representing a total Christian population of between 16,000 and 18,000. Some of the Bibles, which were presented by the first missionaries, almost forty years ago, were preserved, and often stealthily read during Ranavalona's long reign: one of the present mis-sionaries obtained a copy which had been carefully read by the people. In the time of the persecution they seem to have had intelligent and pious men to instruct and guide them.
