Aches of Aur Churches.

THE LARGEST CHURCH.—We observe that several of our New England exchanges report Dr. Cuyler's Church in Brooklyn, (1030 members,) as the largest Presbyterian church in America. Dr. C.'s church is a live body of Christians, but it is not the largest of the name, as several other churches in our own body report a larger membership:-e. g the Kensington Church in this city (Rev. Wm. T. Eva's) reports 1058 members, and has had accessions since then. The Seventh Church in New York reported 1023 last spring, and has presumably grown since then.

PHILADELPHIA, LOGAN SQUARE CHURCH.— The organization of this church was preserved through darkness and gloom, trusting in God for the appearance of day. And His promise to perseverance, in faith in Him, has been redeemed. One year ago its Sabbath School numbered about 65; to day it has on its roll rising 300, with an average attendance of over 200. Our week evelous life.—Evangelist. ning meetings-on Wednesday evening and Friday evening-are fully attended for the size of our congregation, and yesterday afternoon we had added to our membership, and we trust, eventually, to the membership of the "Church of the First born above," 7 persons by certificate and 7 on profession of faith. This is the result of the regular stated preaching of God's word.

WARREN, ILL.—The Presbyterian church and congregation of Warren, Ill., must surely be published. Such treatment as they are heaping upon their pastor, cannot pass unnoticed any longer. Not content with having provided, last Spring, a new parlor carpet and a fifty dollar overcoat, and on Christmas Eve, a seventy five dollar sewing machine-all these complete surprises,-the good people filled our house last Tuesday evening, spent a couple of hours socially together and left most heartily thank them for their unremitting kindness. There is a good degree of religious interest among us, and some are consecrating their lives to the service of Jesus. E. H. AVERY.

WYOMING, IOWA —A home missionary writes us from this place:—"We have had a very interesting series of meetings in connection with our Methodist friends, resulting in 40 or 50 hopeful conversions. We began with the Week of Prayer and continued seven weeks. The spirit of harmony was delightful. The interest has been gen-

REVIVALS AND ACCESSIONS.—The church in Weston, Ohio, has recently received twenty-eight, all adults, and many of them heads of families. Before the revival it only numbered thirteen members, most of them praying women. ——In the bounds of the Kirkersville, (O.) Church, some sixteen or eighteen have recently obtained hope that they have "passed from death unto life."
—The Lord is blessing Crawfordsville, Ind., as never before. Nearly all of the Churches are enjoying precious revivals, and many are coming to Christ.—Thirty two have already united with the Church in Ripley, O., on profession of their faith, most of whom are of mature years, and from families hitherto unconnected with any religious denomination. Seven of them were husbands with their wives. The church is so greatly blessed, and the house is so full, that they are obliged to arise and build. The Week of Prayer was well observed by the Presbyterian Church, of Granville, O., and since its close they have held meetings from four to five evenings a week. The result is, religious interest has been revived among the members, a considerable number of the impenitent have been in the inquiry meetings, and some profess to have savingly embraced the Savior.

PINE GROVE, PA.—Centre church (O. S.,) and Pine Grove church, (N. S.) have just enjoyed a gracious visit. The "Week of Prayer" was faithfully observed by both of these congregations, and a considerable degree of interest was manifested. The congregation at Centre then proposed a union meeting, which was cordially acceeded to. These meetings were continued four weeks-two in each church. During this time we had two very interesting union communions. The result is about one hundred and thirty hopeful conversions. Fifty-nine united with Centre, and forty-three with the church of Pine Grove. -Cor. Pres. Banner.

NEW YORK .- The West Church, Rev. Thomas S. Hastings pastor, is engaged in an effort to remove a debt of $25,000 from their new house of worship. On Sabbath, the 24th inst., they were invited to make their annual offering to Education Cause, and responded with a contribution of about $900. More such contributions are needed from our churches to place this great and indispensable interest above want and danger .-

RED OAK, O .- A union has been formed between the two churches O. S., (94 members,) and N. S., (70 members,) to connect with the Presbytery of Chillicothe, (O. S.) They are daily expecting Mr. Atherton, of Brimfield, Ills., from the N. S. Church.

SUNNY SIDE.—The little church at Lodi, Ill., of only twenty-five members-of which number but four are males-have recently made Rev. C. L. Watson a donation of $170. The church at Granville, O., recently made Rev. E. Beach and his wife the free will offering of $290.

MINISTERIAL. - Rev. A Johnson, late of Pontiac. Ill., is about to take charge of the churches of Kinmundy and Mason, seventeen miles apart on the Chicago branch of the Illinois Central Railroad. His correspondents will please observe the change. — The Rev. Nelson Millard, pastor of the church at Montclair, N. J., has accepted the call to the Olivet church, of Chicago. At a meeting of the congregation, his resignation was accepted, and a series of warmly appreciative resolutions adopted. - The only Protestant Clergy-Rev. Charles M. Blake, formerly of Benicia and tions need aid to prevent them from dissolution. The lately Chaplain in the Army of the Potomac. He is Chaplain at Fort Whipple, near Prescott. Arizona.—Rev. W. G. Hubbard, for seven years the pastor of the church at Wilson, Niagara County, N. Y., has accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Schoolcraft, Kalamazoo Couny, Michigan, and will commence his labors on the 1st of March.

MILWAUKEE, WIS .- Our Presbytery had the leasure, on the 13th inst., to receive and instal Rev. Hiram Eddy, late of Litchfield (Conn.) North Association, over the first church and congregation in this city. The sermon was preached bp Rev. Alfred Eddy, D. D., of Chicago. Mr. Eddy enters upon this interesting field of labor with very encouraging prospects. The church is united, and gives many indications of the reviving of God's Spirit. In the past they have passed through years of fiery trials, at times of a severity to threaten their existence as a portion of our Zion. They have for years exhibited the experiment of a church and pastor with no mutual denominational spmpathy. After surviving tual denominational spmpathy. After surviving $25,000 from the late Charles Avery, of Pittsburgh, these struggles they seem now to have rallied, in on condition (not hard for Oberlin) that the College

IOWA CITY, IA .-- A letter from the editor of the North Western Presbyterian says of the pending legal case in this place:

"The New School church formerly existing here, has merged itself by a public vote into the Congregational. A respectable minority of real Presbyterians remain, and, of course, as well as of right, claim the property. The claim is pending now in the courts, but how can it be decided other than in favor of those who adhere to the Church for whose use and by whose means the house was built? What right have Congregationhouse was built? What right have Congregationalists to such a property? If they go out and leave, setting up a different altar, why should they claim that which belongs to others? The courts, however, will doubtless understand the merits of the whole case."

THE PRESBYTERY OF MEADVILLE, (PA.,) met at Garland on the 12th of February. The church with us $175. We do not complain, but we do in this place propose to build a new house of worship and have some thirteen hundred dollars subscribed towards it.

Rev. Wm. H. Taylor, of Titusville, was appointed Commissioner to the next General As-

Churches in this region seem to be, from reports made in Presbytery, in a healthy, growing condition compared with former years. The atendance on public worship is large; weekly esting and promising. There has been considerable interest at Sunville.

THE UNION PRESBYTERIAN.—We have recived this new paper, published by the (very conservatively) liberal wing of the United Presbyterian Church, and are much pleased with the liberal spirit which animates it. We wish it all success in its chosen work.

Religious Entelligence.

The Old Covenanters and Presbyterian Reunion.—The last number of the Reformed Presbyterian and Covenanter is out against any union among the churches, which does not comprise these two principles: "First, that no man should praise God in any other songs but the Psalms of David; and second, that this should be inserted in our Creed as a part of our testimony for truth." Even our U. P. brethren do not come up to the standard, for there is still another difficulty in the way. The same publication says: "There is another hindrance to union that stands in the way of Covenanters. This is our view and practice in regard to civil government. Were even the Psalmody question adjusted consistently with truth, we are still shut out." The editor of the monthly (Dr. Sproul,) represents the ultras of the body, rather than the whole Church.

Revivals and Accessions.—The O.S. churches of Rayne and Harmony, Pa., have been greatly revived. Meetings were continued over four weeks, and seventy have already professed faith in Christ.

The O. S. church in Wheeling has had forty-two accessions on profession—the membership having been only 25.—The church in Millersburgh, O., has had 26 accessions, and the work is advancing.—The O. S. Church of Two Ridges, O., Feb. 10th, admitted into the fellowship of the church forty-six on pro-fession of faith, and six by letter. Twenty-five of this number received the ordinance of baptism .-The church in Scipio, Ind., has received since the Week of Prayer, thirty-five.—The church of Martin-ville, O., has had a delightful season of revival: thirty have been added on profession.-Recently sixty united with the O. S. church in Barnsville, O. on profession of faith; making one hundred and thirty-one in a little less than eleven months.

Revival in Western Pennsylvania.-The church in Neshannock, has enjoyed a season of refreshing during meetings, held night after night, for weeks. On Feb. 10th, at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, one hundred and two applicants were received into the church, on profession, including persons of every age, from the child of ten, to the penitent of seventy, who now sat down with his children and his children's children. Quite a number were heads of Cumberland Presbyterian .- Revivals are reported at Enfield, Ill., (35 or 40 conversions,) at Newbern Iowa, (54,) and the interest still unabated; at Palmyra, Ill., 25 professions; at Milton, Iowa, 50 conversions, and a new congregation organized; one at New Providence, Ill., 50 conversions; at Danverse, Ill., 63 accessions; a meeting at Kinmundy, Ill., still in progress after fifty professions.

A Prosperous and Working Church.-The Western Presbyterian gives the following facts con-cerning the Second church in St. Louis, Missouri, to which the Rev. S. J. Nicolls now ministers: "It now numbers about 400 members. Their house of worship, with sittings for 1,000 or 1,200 persons, is usually well filled. Their new edifice, to be erected this season, will cost over $100,000. We learn that ast year, besides paying $30,000 for their new lot, their contributions to benevolent objects amounted to over $20,000; and this is not what would be called in our large cities a wealthy congregation. They support three or four mission schools in different parts of the city, with not less than from 2,-500 to 3,000 children.

The Southern Presbyterian Churches have not lutions adopted.—The only Protestant Clergy recovered from the effects of the war. One hundred man in Arizona, according to The Pacific, is the and fifty edifices were destroyed, and 1500 congregachurch at Murfreesboro, Tenn., encouraged by the success of the First church of Nashville, and the church of Gallatin, Tenn., has made application to the Government for damages to the amount of $10,

Rev. Israel Folsom, of the Choctaw Nation, is now on his way to Washington as a delegate from his people. He brings with him eleven Choctaw youths, to enter the University at Lebanon, [Cumberland Presbyterian,] and eight young ladics, (one of whom is his own daughter,) from the same Nation, to enter the school at McMinnville. Br. Folsom is now the General Superintendent of Schools for the Choctaw Nation, and desires to take back to his Nation when he returns, (which will be in about six weeks) about six young ministers to teach and to preach. He promises from $400 to $600 per annum for their services.

Candidates Coming From Abroad.—At a stated meeting of the Presbytery of New Brunswick, held at Princeton, N. J., on the 5th inst., twelve candidates for licensure were received. Of these, nine were from Canada and Nova Scotia.

Congregationalist .- Oberlin College receives to fifty of its most needy colored students. $63,000 have already been paid in or pledged toward the new endowment. The revival continues without abatement. The first class was graduated in 1836. The whole number of the Alumni is now 1158, of whom 110 are deceased. Of the graduates 177 have been ministers, 44 lawers, 23 physicians, and 118 professors and teachers. As to their present residence, 53 are in New England, 113 in the Middle States 347 in Ohio, 381 in the Western and North Western States, of which the late Dr. Bethune was pastor. Salary. $6000. Dr. Eddy's ministry of nearly ten years in Northampton, has been highly successful.—The late Mr. Isaac F. Curtis, of North Bridgewater, Mass., has left the American Tract Society $1,000 American Bible Society, $1,000; American Board, $1,000; Mass. Home Missionary Society, $1,000; Porter Evangelical Society, North Bridgewater, $1,000.—The Rev. Dr. Kirk's health is improving, though he will not preach for several Sab-baths to come. During his disability a letter from him has been read each week at the church prayermeeting.—In the church in Spencer, Mass., one hundred and twenty-five are inquiring; of these, perhaps seventy-five are indulging a hope in Christ The work is chiefly among the young, embracing twenty or more young men who are earnestly en-listed on the Lord's side.—Rev. John R. Herrick has been elected to the Professorship of Systematic The tendance on public worship is large; weekly prayer-meetings are generally maintained, and in some cases Sabbath-schools are especially interesting and promising.

The beginning of Prof. Harris. Mr. Herrick is a native of Vermont, and went as a missionary to the West for some two years. Since then, he has mony was delightful. The interest has been general—pervading the whole community and bringing in all classes, from the child to the man of gray hairs. A very large and interesting class of young men and women have been the subjects of renewing grace. A number of the heads of families have shared in the work, and many family altars have been erected. To Christ be all the glory."

Servivals and promising.

The church at Cherry Tree has enjoyed a great the church in Malone, N. Y. He is a theologian of the true New England type.—Feb, 7, the New England church in Chicago, Rev. J. P. Gulliver, was dedicated. It cost $80,000, and has more than doubled since January. Rev. W. T. Dickson, of Pine Grove, reports a union protracted meeting with the other branch of the Church, which resulted in fifty-five hopeful conversions. There has been considerable interest at Sunville. der of Priests in the Episcopal Church, Feb. 15, in St. Stephen's church, Boston.

When the picture is forwarded at our expense fifty cents additional are required.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE LIKENESS. Mrs. LINCOLN writes: "I have seen various portraits of my deep-ly lamented husband, but not one that approached the truthfulness and perfection of likeness of yours. * * aiore we could not ask or Mr. ROBERT T. LINCOLN writes: "I am perfectly satisfied with it as a likeness. Mr. Marshall made a very good picture, but there is something unsatisfactory about it which I cannot explain, and 1 would have no hesitation in choosing between the two." Hon. W. H. HERNDON, (for twenty years Mr. Lincoln's law partner) writes: "When I opened the box and unrolled the portrait, Mr. Lincoln flashed on me as never from picture. As a portrait—a likeness—it is Lincoln. * * * It looks to me, and is a better portrait and likeness than Marshall's."
