South America. - In NewGranada, General Acoso had been recognized as President by the majority of the people: even Canca, Mosquera's native State, acquiesced in the new rule. The State of Bolivar, however, had declared for secession from the Union until Mosquera, who is in prison, should be reinstated. In Peru, matters were quiet, although another revolution was feared. Delegates to the Congress of South American republics were beginning to arrive at Lima. The President of Chili had recommended that the vessels purchased in the United States be sold, as they were unfit for service. Japan.—Of 6,433,414 pounds of tea exported from Japan during the period from May 31st, 1866, to May 15th, 1867, 6,079,269 pounds were sent to this country.

The Jaffa Colony that emigrated from Maine to the Holy Land, is according to letters received from them, in a totally demoralized condition. Of the original one hundred and fifty-six who left Maine a year ago, only eighty-six remain. The leader of the expedition proved to be good for nothing, and the colonists soon ignored him. Eleven houses had been commenced, but only one had been completed. Fifty-three persons in all have come back to the United States. The remainder will doubtless all return before the expiration of the year. They have found the land sterile, and encountered disappoint ment in every way.

Canada.—Co-operative associations have been ormed in Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, and London; and steps have been taken to form a co-opera-tive society in Ottowa, "Crop prospects are remarkably good. One of the largest hay crops ever had has been gathered.—The remainder of Table Rock has been blown off.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

July 23:-London.-The Sultan left England tolay for Vienna.—Paris, evening.—Admiral Farragut arrived in this city and receives on all sides the most distinguished attention,—The French Government has prohibited the placing of any portion of the Russian railroad loan in the Paris market.—Berlin. -Count Bismarck's official organ denies that there s any truth in the recently reported stories of a probability of war.—Trieste.—The Imperial frigate Novara has sailed for Vera Cruz, to bring from Mexico the remains of Maximilian, -St. Petersburg. -By an Imperial akase all political and governmental distinctions between Poland and the Empire of Russia are obliterated, and Poland is now absorbed into Russia as one of the provinces of the Empire.

July 24.—London.—In the House of Lords the Reform bill was passed to a second reading.—Evening.—The House of Commons has passed the bill for the abolition of church rates.—Copenhagen,—The Danish Government has intimated to Prussia its willingness to give guarantees for the protection of the German inhabitants of North Schleswig, but demands information as to the nature of the guarantees required by the Prussian Cabinet.

July 25.—London.—By the order of the British War Office, a trial of the American 15-inch Rodman gun was made to-day, in presence of a number of naval and military ffiocers and experts. It was proved by the tests to which the gun was submitted that no iron or steel armor yet invented was capable of resisting its shot.—Omar Pacha reports that the military forces under his command have succeeded in suppressing the insurrection in Crete, and 1033 CHESTNUT STREET, Corps Legislatif, yesterday, passed all the provisions in the budget of extraordinary expenditures.

July 26. London, evening. There is much caution shown by capitalists and business men here, the feeling having become general that war between France and Prussia is imminent. A private despatch from Berlin received this evening, makes mention of the general opinion there that war is certain, and adds that Prussia is actively urging forward her preaus that ryussia is actively urging forward her preparations for such an event.—Consols for money, 94; Erie shares, 47½; Illinois Central, 76½; 5-20s, 72.11-16; Atlantic and Great Western, shares, 23.

Frankfort, evening.—United States, bonds, 76¾ for the issue of 1862.—Florence.—Baron, Ratazzi, the Prime Missian of Italy has made an affirm Prime Minister of Italy, has made an offer to garrison Rome to protect it from the threatened attack the Freedmen's Bureau, where it had been placed on the morning of the 4th. The city called an indigsent a note to the King of Prussia urging him to surrender the Danish Provinces of North Schleswig to Denmark. The Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, declines to interfere.—Berlin.—A couple of conscripts belonging to the imperial army, to-day attempted to escape, and succeeded in reaching an American vessel at Bremer Haven, which was just on the point of setting sail. The Prussian authorities threatened to open their batteries on the ship if the commander refused to give up the conscripts.

After a short parley the men were surrendered.

July 27.—Paris.—The Monieur positively denies the truth of the statement that the Emperor Napoleon had sent a note to the King of Prussia urging him to surrender the Danish Districts of Northern Schleswig to Denmark.—Berlin, evening,—Notwith-standing the official denial in the Moniteur of Napoleon's note to the King of Prussia, in regard to North Schleswig, the semi-official journals of Berlin continue to urge King William to repel the intrusion of the French Emperor in the political affairs of Germany.—Vienna.—The official Journal says it is the right and interest of the Emperor Na poleon to enforce the treaty of Prague, and that the Czar has sent to King William a note to that effect. -The Sultan of Turkey has arrived here from England, and is the guest of the Emperor.

July 28.—Paris.—Last evening Admiral Farragut was received at a state dinner in his honor by the Emperor Napoleon. The French Minister of Marine and other members of the Imperial Cabinet and the Abassadors of the United States and General Dix were among the invited guests.—Cherbourg. The Empress Eugenie yesterday visited the United States steamer Colorado, now lying in this harbor, and was received with all the honors bentting her exalted rank. At her approach salutes were fired and the yards were manned.

July 29 .- France. The Moniteur of this morning declares that the rumors of war which now prevail on the Continent are without foundation. It says the existing relations of France with all the European powers are eminently pacific. It denies that the formation of new military camps is contempla-ted, and says the reserves of artillery and cavalry horses are to be sold to the farmers in the departments.—London, noon.—The sincerity of the repeated denials put forth by the Paris Monitour, of the war reports now current in Europe, is doubted here.

The London Times, in its city article this morning, is of the opinion that the alarm created by these war-like rumors, will have the effect to check trade generally, until next spring.
