tion, and arranged to call a congregational meeting. June 30th, and provide for supplies in the mean-time. (In the 23d Rev. Mr. Branch, who had been time invited by the session, found the church locked, and had to preach from the front steps. New Castle O. S. Presbytery met early in July, and declared the proceedings of the meeting which elected Dr. Landis to be null and void, enjoined him to abstain from preaching within their bounds, and gave the entire matter into the hands of the session, besides censuring the Trustees for locking the church. The loyal members of the Board of Trustees refuse to surrender the keys, and legal proceedings are to be instiinted to recover the church property from them. It is just possible that neither party will be able to make out a legally valid title, in view of the way in which the property was taken from the N.S. Church

Persecution of the American U. P. Mission in Egypt .- In a letter from Cairo, Mrs. Lansing, misary of the United Presbyterian Board, speaks of the high-handed doings of the Coptic Patriarch at Osioot, Egypt, and the bitter persecution to which the Christians are subjected. The Patriarch has avowed his intention of crushing Protestantism, and asserts that he has the authority of the Viceroy of Egypt for the course which he is taking. In some cases he has had the Protestauts bastinadoed, and has cursed and excommunicated all who read Protestant books, attend Protestant schools, or have anything to do with the Protestant religion; all but the Beirut publications have been ordered to be hurned, and many volumes have, in consequence, been committed to the flames. The Protestant schools are greatly reduced, and Sabbath services neglected. There are a small number, however, who, in spite of persecution and intimidation, con tinne faithful to the truth, and attend both school and church with regularity. Λ young Moslem girl has recently been received into the church in Cairo. She had been a slave, and is the second convert from Mohammedanism. and the first to make public profession of Christ at this mission

British Items .- The Weekly Review of August 3d says:--" We are happy to announce that the Rev. Dr. Denham and the Rev. Dr. Hall, the two deputies from the Irish Presbyterian Church to America, have returned in safety."----In the Scottish Re-formed Presbyterian Theological Hall, the closing meeting for the session was held on the 28th ult. in Edinburgh. Of the students in attendance, eleven were Scotch, four Irish, one American. two Hungarian, one Bohemian, and two were of the Free Church-twenty-one in all. The Rev. W. Syming-got quit of the disputed settlement case of Cumbrae, (the Greenock Presbytery haveing inducted the presentee, the Rev. J. S. Macnab, into the charge) another case of a similar character is reported. The Presbytery of Lerwick met at Tingwall to moderate in a call to the Kev. James Barclay, of Mid and South Yell, presentee to Tingwall. The parish-ioners relused to sign the call, and objections were taken to the presentee's suitableness to such an extensive parish as Tingwall. The Presbytery were to consider the objections .---- The amount-some £500-necessary to defray the expense which Mr Macnab, the presentee, incurred in connection with the Cumbrae proceedings, has been more than realized. About £250 has been raised in subscription and the Earl of Glasgow, the patron, has given a cheque for £300.— The Stirling Presbytery met at Brilge of Teith, and ordained Mr. Huie to the pastorate of that congregation, vacant by the death of the Rev. Dr. M⁴ Merrow.—The U. P. Presbytery of Glasgow met at Balfron, and ordained Mr. Thomas Dunlop, preacher, as minister of the United Presbyterian congregation there.—The Presbytery of Coleraine met in the First Presbyterian Church, Dunboe, and installed the Rev. John Mark to the pastoral charge appointment to visit the Indian Missions of the reported 229; baptisms, 512 adults and 359 infants. Church of Scotland, and goes out this winter .-The Rev. Robert Stewart has resigned the pastorate of Tarland Free Church, as his wife's health necessitates his residence in a warmer climate. He has been laboring with acceptance for six months at Lisbon to the Presbyterian residents there, and as they are anxious that he should continue his ministrations among them, the Colonial Committee of the Cape May, after being reconstructed and put into Free Church have appointed him to the charge. Episcopalian .- The Gospel Messenger says that the Diocese of Illinois, Massachusetts, Maine, Geor-gia, and Connecticut, have refused, through their Haven, D.D., President of the Michigan State Uni-Standing Committees, to give their canonical consent to the consecration of the Rev. Francis M. Whittle, of Kentucky, as Assistant Bishop of Virginia,-some on the ground that the case of Bishop Johns does not come within the canon as a case of "permanent disability," he himself not having given Testimonials" were duly signed by the members of the Diocesan Council.—"Rev. J. E. Walton, of North Adams, formerly of Portland, has gone to the Episcopal church in Rockford, Ills. Salary, $2,000. This shows what kind of church govern-ment keeps out heresy best."—Congregationalist. We cannot congratulate either form of polity on their success in that direction .---- The Rev. Prof. J. Kent Stone, son of Rev. Dr. Stone, of Philadelphia, has been elected President of Kenyon College — The Rev. Wm. P. White, recently minister of All-Saints' church, Paradise, Lancaster county, Pa., has be-come rector of St. Timothy's church, Roxborough, than six Episcopal parishes vacant in this city. They are supplied by assistants, or by ministers having temporary charge.

people to subscribe the sum required." During the day and evening $5,000 were raised for the Freedmen's College in subscriptions of $10) each, there being twenty-one ministers of the Gospel present, and each one giving $100 to this noble cause. The Register for 1867 returns an aggregate of twelve hundred and torty ministers and twelve hundred and sixty-four churches.-Since the Christian Freeman was started in Chicago as a Free Will Baptist organ, the Western Free Communion Baptists have been drawn into closer fellowship with the Free Will same great truths of General Atonement, Free Salvation, Moral Agency, Freedom of the Will and Free Communion, &c. There are six or seven As-sociations of us in South-western Indiana, Southern Illinois, and North-western Kentucky. Each Association has at least one missionary in the field and some have two; and yet we have no denominational paper." At one of the recent Baptist anniversaries in Chicago, considerable annoyance was occasioned by the frequent announcement of meetings of the alumni of different colleges and a sudden stop was put to the practice by a similar announcement of a meet-"of graduates from the potato field, the taning "of graduates from the potato field, the tan-yard, shoemaker's bench and the blacksmith's shop, o form an alumni of the Brush heap, with Nathaniel Colver for President," and the Brush heap Alum-ni was duly organized at the appointed hour, with Dr. Colver as President.——The Rev. Dr. Kincaid, one of the oldest missionaries in India, says that the greatness of the work to be done in heathen ands appeared exceeding small compared to what it did when he first arrived in India. One may now travel six hundred miles in Burmah, and, with "one or two breaks," not have any trouble in finding a Christian family, or one where it would not be unsafe to pass the night, so great has been the progress of the to pass the night, so great has been the progress of the Gospel in that country. There are now scores of Christian villages.—Some friends of President Anderson, of Rochester, have subscribed $30,000 to purchase him a house and library. He gave as one reason for declining the tendered Presidency of Brown University: "I felt that those who had me when I was comparatively worthless, had a right to the benefit of any rise in the stock."-The First African church in Richmond, Virginia, is supposed to be the largest on the continent. It has over four thousand names on its record, and over three thousand resident members .---- The number of Baptist churches in Great Britain and Ireland is 2,381; of members, 213,766. This is less than one-quarter as compared with the Baptists in the United States. while it is double the number in the rest of the world. The clear increase of membership reported for the past year is 3,994; of which 2,842 belong to the English churches, 1,184 to the Welsh, and only 20 to the Irish, while in the Scotch there has been a decrease of 52. The accessions are supposed to have been somewhat larger than this, the reports of important accessions in the latter part of the year not having come in. The contributions of the denomination for the year the various benevolent or ganizations, exclusive of the support of the ministry and various provincial and local objects, was fully $930,000 in American currency, more than four dollars to a member.

Congregationalist .- The Iowa Religious News-Letter, has been purchased by the proprietors of the Advance, the new paper at Chicago, which will now have the editorial aid of Rev. Jesse Guernsey. Dr. Magoun reserves the right to resume the publica-tion of the Newsletter at Grinnell whenever he chooses.____An effort is made to draw Rev. Dr. Alden, of South Boston, into the corps of Andover professors; the Phillips Congregational Church at South Boston are making an equal effort to retain their pastor, and among other inducements have put into the church a new organ at a cost of $10,000. -Thirteen persons-of whom eight were heads of that congregation, ---- The Gazette notifies that of families --- were admitted on last Sabbath to the the Queen has presented the Rev. pastor. --- The Pittsburg Synod seems to be lengthening its cords and strengthening its stakes." A correspondent of the Lutheran and Missionary reports nine new churches under contract or in process of erection, in this High Church Synod.

Friends .- Revival .- The Philadelphia Inquirer of the 11th inst. says that at the meeting-house, Twelfth street, between Market and Chestnut, (Orthodox,) a deep solemnity pervades the members of the congregation, and the occasional addresses and prayers are very impressive.

Roman Catholic .-- The London Weekly Register ays :-- "A private letter from Rome states that the Holy Father has consented to re-establish the hier archy in Scotland, and that our co-religionists in the North will, therefore, cease to belong to a missionary Church. The same communication states that there will be one archbishop and six suffragan bishops named, the former to Glasgow, the latter to Edinburgh, Perth, Aberdeen, Inverness, Stirling, and Kilmarnock. If the report is true we shall soon be able to congratulate our Scotch friends upon regainng what they have lost for the last three hundred rears,"-A French Bishop, one of the many faithul who assisted at the great celebration at Rome as issued a circular letter to his clergy, which makes him the laughing-stock of Europe. He dis-approves, it seems, not only of the Great Exposition but of exhibitions in general, unless they partake of an ecclesiastical character. He has therefore forbidden his clergy from visiting so dangerous a local ity, warning them against the Palace of Industry, and its contents and attractions as the work of the arch-enemy of souls, but does not attempt to explain how it is that the Pope has permitted so many of his own subjects to contribute to this diabolical and dangerous institution, and did so himself.-The Weekly Register says:-"Another chapter upon the wickedness of the age will surely be added to the Book of the Prophet Cumming. A Princess of England, the popular Princess Mary of Cambridge, now Princess Teck, actually attended on Thursday. July 18th, at the Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of the murdered Emperor Maximilian. And not only did the Princess attend at this mass, but she knelt down, and behaved most reverently during the more solemn parts of the service, and looked as if she fully understood and positively appreciated the rite."—A new monastery is to be erected at Dubuque, Iowa, and the Herald of that city says: "The building is to be of stone, now be-ing quarried, and when finished will be the most magnificent and imposing building in the State. Its dimensions will be equal to a block of buildings in the city, with side walls forty feet high, and on the church a tower two hundred feet high. In the centre of the building will be a court square of one hundred feet. The designs, if carried out, will give Dubuque a monastery something like the grand old structures of Italy."—The Czar has given orders for carrying annually to the budget of the kingdom of Poland a credit of from 50,000 to 100,000 roubles, for the Construction of Orthodox Russian churches in the country. One is to be built this year at Lubin, and more in other places.

Unitarian .--- The corner-stone of a new Unitarian neeting-house in Boston, was laid a few days ago Rev. Dr. Robbins pronounced the consecrating words as follows: "This corner-stone is laid in the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the glory of Almighty God and the salvation of our fellow men, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen." The chapel will cost about $32,000, ex-clus ve of the land, and is to be of brick with freestone trimmings, in early English style.——On a late Sunday morning fourteen persons were baptized, and twenty-two persons became members of the church in Dover, Mass. It is hoped that many nore will soon enter the church.——Carleton writes from Pesth to the Boston Journal:—." To-day I have received a visit from a gentleman who wished to obtain the names of some of the Unitarian clergymen of Boston, which I gave him. There are fifty thousand Unitarians in Hungary [?]—the oldest body of that denomination probably in the world. They on the bonds that can be issued on the length of road have been true to freedom, and, in consequence, ave suffered great persecutions from government, and they wish to open correspondence with other | veloped country, and are no index of the vast traffic branches of the denomination."----In England there are about three hundred Unitarian ministers who have charge of "Presbyterian" congregations. The denomination has, in London, the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and the London Domestic Mission Society. In the country there are sixteen domestic mission and forty tract and other societies. In Ireland there are three Presbyterian bodies, which in point of doctrine are regarded as Unitarians, namely : the Presbytery of Antrim, the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, and the Synod of Munster. Together, they form the "Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Association of Ireland," which meets annually and quarrels continually. In the English Colonies the Unitarians have eleven chapels. On the continent of Europe, the Unitarians exist as a separate denomination only in the Austrian Province of Transylvania, where they num-ber a population of over 50,000. The latter have lately commenced to cultivate more intimate relations with those of Great Britain.----Miss Jose-phine Lapham of Woodstock, Ohio, has been li-censed to preach by the Winchester Association of that State. She is a graduate of Antioch College, and was a classmate of Olympia Brown.----It has been found necessary to close Dr. Gannett's church on Boylston street, Boston, and strip it of all its upholstery, to save it from utter ruin by the moths. -The church in Ashby, Mass., is enjoying an unusual degree of religious interest. Eighteen persons have been admitted to the church, and social religious meetings are so largely attended that they are necessarily held in the Town Ball.--The property belonging to the "Massachusetts Congregational Charitable Society," now amounts to $138,051., the income of which is applied to the relief of the wi-dows and children of Congregational ministers of Mass., who were settled pastors at the time of their death. This year, $6,060, were distributed to fiftyfour beneficiaries, in sums ranging from $80 to $200. Of thirty Trustees, the majority are Unitarians, but the appropriations are made with perfect impartial--The Benevolent Fraternity of Churches, the ity. organized Society of Unitarianism, has reached its thirty-third anniversary. The past year has been one of great activity. Its annual receipts, larger than any previous year, have reached the sum of over $14,000. A new chapel has been built in Bos-ton. The somewhat famed Pitts-street chapel is to be removed to a more eligible position, and the work of missions at the West to be prosecuted with new vigor.

in the summary manner in which Mr. Connor has been ousted from the junior pastorate of the School Street church, Boston; and Rev. E. C. Towne, of Medford, calls to Dr. Miner, the senior pastor, to an account for his part in the proceedings, and challenges him to a public debate on the religious points at issue, and on the question whether his treatment of Mr. Connor was just and Christian.

Rev. John Wesley Johnson, of Mars Bluff, with his charge of two hundred, in a body, joined the Metho-dist Episcopal Church. Three Wesleyan Methodist ministers, Dr. Prindle, and Revs. J. S. Albertson and J. E. Johnson, and one Methodist Protestant minister, Rev. J. W. Davis, were received into the M. E. Conference of Erie at its late meeting.

Lutheran .-- In the Joint Synod of Ohio the doctrine of Close Communion has been formally adopted and declared to be an indispensable condition of Lutheran synodical union and Church fellowship. The Missouri Synod has practically carried it out heretofore, and the Ohio Synod, under its leadings, now adopts it. Accordingly, no minister belonging to these Synods can allow any minister or member of any other denomination, or any one belonging to the General Synod. to commune with him or in his church, neither will he nor any of his members be allowed to commune with such ministers and members in their churches.
