Smith. Three English Statesmen: A Course of Lectures on the Political History of England. By Goldwin Smith. 12mo., pp. 293. New York: Harper & Bros. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co.

The peculiar tastes, sympathies and talents of the writer, find scope in the delineation of these three heroes in English history, and great works in the cause of human advancement, Pym, Cromwell and Pitt. More than half of the volume is occupied with the latter character. It is needless to commend what Goldwin Smith writes. The warmth and nobleness of his views, his fidelity to liberty, his extensive political learning, and his great abilities as a writer recommend his works to every cultivated reader. The externals of this issue are appropriate to such excellent materials.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced ten fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists to a remarkable degree in

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Cherry, whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption is inestimable.

Strong Testimony. From BENJAMIN WHITMAN, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalton, Mass.

"In the spring of 1853, I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of my malady I was prevailed upon through the influence of a neighbor to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and, before using two bottles, the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor. Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted."

MANUFACTURED BY Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Co.

Embraces all the attachments of their other well-known Machines, with many peculiar to itself, and in all the requirements of a Family Sewing Machine.

Is the most perfect of any in use.

The following extract from the report of the Committee on Sewing Machines at the New York State Fair, 1866, gives a condensed statement of the merits and excellencies claimed for this machine:

"We, the Committee on Sewing Machines, after a careful and thorough investigation into the respective merits of the various machines submitted for examination, find the Elliptic Lock-Stitch Sewing Machine to be superior to all others in the following points, namely: Simplicity and Thoroughness of Mechanical Construction. Ease of Operation and Rapidity of Movement. Noiselessness and Quietness of Action. Beauty, Strength, and Elasticity of Stitch. Variety and Perfection of Attachment, and Range of Work. Compactness and Beauty of Model and Finish. Adaptation to material of any thickness, by an Adjustable Feed-Bar, and in the Unequalled Precision with which it executes the Lock-Stitch, by means of the Elliptic Hook; and we therefore award it the First Premium, as the BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE, and also, for the above reasons, the First Premium in the BEST DOUBLE-THREAD SEWING MACHINE."
