News of the Week.

XLth. CONGRESS-First Session.

Senate.—January 7th.—Mr. Sumner's bill pro-viding for equal rights in the District of Columbia, similar to that passed prior to the recess, was again referred. The bill to repeal the cotton tax was passed, with amendments exempting cotton grown in 1868 from the tax, but providing for its resumption after the present year; also, exempting from duty cotton imported between April, 1869, and April, 1869.

January 8th .-- A memorial for the relief of naturalized citizens was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee. A resolution was adopted asking the President if he had delivered the District equal rights bill to the Secretary of State, and if it had become a law. January 9th.-The House bill to prevent frauds in collecting the tax on distilled spirits was passed, with an amendment striking out the words "in bond." The bill to convert registered into coupon bonds, was reported from the Finance Committee, and indefinitely postponed. Mr. Morton's resolu-tion looking to the establishment of new provisional governments in the South, was considered. The nomination of Edmund Cooper, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was rejected. January 10th.—A resolution was tabled, instructing the Finance Committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill for a consolidated 31 per cent. loan, repeating the bill limiting the amount of national currency, etc. The bill to prevent fur-ther contraction of the currency was considered. January 11th.--Mr. Summer offered a resolution, which was referred, declaring the amendment to the Constitution, known as the Fourteenth article, duly ratified by three fourths of the States. Mr. Doolittle, of Wis: gave notice that he would move to aniend the forthcoming Reconstruction bill by a proviso establishing intelligent and freehold suffrage.

Mr. Cary, of Ohio, spoke in favor of paying part of the public debt in greenbacks.

January 8th.—The joint resolution from the Committee on Foreign Affairs requesting the President to intercede with Queen Victoria to secure the spee-dy release of Rev. John McMahon, a citizen of Indiana, convicted as a Fenian raider and now contined in Kingston, C. W., was reported. The Sen-ate amendments to the cotton bill were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

January 9th .- The Postmaster-General was directed to communicate the reasons for the discontinuance of the midnight mail between New York and Philadelphia and other places, and whether it should not be resumed. The Whiskey Meter Commission bill was passed. A communication was received from the President showing that twenty-one States had ratified the proposed fourteenth ar-ticle of the Federal Constitution. The report in the contested case of the First Kentucky District was adopted, and Mr. Trimble was sworn in.

January 10th.—Resolutions requesting the Pres-ident to intercede for the release of Father Mc-Mahon Lohn Lynch, of Milwaukee, Colonels Warren and Nagle, and other condemned Fenians, were adopted unanimously. The Senare amendment to January 11th.—The session was devoted to speech making.

January 13.—The bill placing the South under the exclusive control of General Grant was made the special order until disposed of. The bill de claring that no decision adverse to the constitutionality of a law of Congress shall be given by the Supreme Court, except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the Judges, was also reported under a sus-pension of the rules. Mr. Williams, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment requiring unanimous consent of the Judges. This was rejected, and the bill passed finally, with a proviso that if any Cir-cuit or District Court of the United States decide an act of Congress to be unconstitutional, its decision shall be at once certified to the Supreme Court, and if two thirds of the members of the latter do not sustain the decision, it shall be reversed.

City .- The Herald says : " Most of the manufacturing establishments are keeping on the usual complement of hands, and at the old rate of wages, but are working on half time. The tailors, hatters and clerks are at present the only classes who have been discharged from employment to any extent, and discharges among these classes are looked for at the present season. About one-third of the clerks in the retail stores have been dismissed. There have been no discharges from the large express companies. The hotels are not quite as crowded as they have been, but there is very little falling off. The receipts at the savings banks show some, but no great diminution. The worst state of affairs exists along the wharves. From the ship-yards near-ly all the men are discharged. There is little doing at machine and boiler shops, and with the general lassitude of business along the river, 'longshoremen find their occupation gone. Barges and towboats lie clustered in unoccupied slips, having nothing to do. There is a great stagnation of business among the pilots.—The buildings 112 and 114 Broadway, formerly occupied by Crittenden & Co., were sold, January 13, to the American Express Company, for
