Relus of the Week.

EXECUTIVE.

General Grant yielded up the War Department, January 14, to Edwin M. Stanton, who is now in office as Secretary of War. The following is Gen Grant's note to the Presi-

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY U. S.-]

January 14. 1868. His Eccellency. Andrew Johnson, President of the United States. SIR: I have the honor to enclose herewith a copy of the official notice received by me last evening of the action of the Senate of the United States, in the case of the suspension of Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War. According to the provisions of section 2d of an act regulating the tenure of civil offi-cers, my functions as Secretary of War ad interim ceased from the moment of the receipt of the written notice.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your bedient servant, U. S. GRANT, General. obedient servant, 🐣 The total internal revenue receipts of last week were $2,178,000.

XLth. CONGRESS-First Session.

Senate.-January 14.-The House bill regula-ting the Supreme Court was referred. The anticontraction bill was considered.

January 15.—A memorial was presented from Mississippi, asking relief from the prevailing destitution. A resolution was adopted appropriating $28,000 damages for seizure of a Spanish steamer by General Sherman at Port Royal. The anticontraction bill was passed, with an amendment that "the amount of such notes now existing shall not be reduced until Congress shall otherwise provide. 224 DE

January 16 .- The Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner of Internal Revenue were allowed the floor during debates affecting the revenue. The bill repealing the cotton tax was received back from the House, that body having rejected the Senate's amendment.

January 20.-Conference committees were appointed on the disagreeing amendments to the Anti-Contraction and Cotton bills. The case of Senator elect Thomas, of Maryland, was debated. House.—January 14.—An unsuccessful attempt was made by Mr. McCarthy, of New York, to introduce resolutions relative to the naturalization ques-tion. The Senate amendments to the cotton tax repeal bill were non concurred in, and it will be sent back to the Senate. Resolutions were passed ordering the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of selling the right to manufacture spir-its to the highest bidder. Mr. Van Wyck made another explanation about the Gettysburg lottery scheme. The amendatory Reconstruction bill was then taken up, and Mr. Brooks presented a majority report. A telegram from Gen. Meade to Gen. Grant, relative to the test oath, was read.

January 15.-Bills relating to the Public Land Offices, and allowing applicants for homesteads to make affidavits before county courts, were reported and passed. The new Reconstruction bill was debated. The notorious Fernando Wood was formally censured by the Speaker, in accordance with the express vote of the House, 114 to 38, for using the following language in reference to the new Reconstruction bill: "A montrosity—a measure the most infamous of the many infamous acts of this infamous Congress." January 16.—The House Deficiency Bill was passed with amendments. The Library Committee vere directed to inquire into the subject of international copyright, with a view to the protection of authors. Executive communications were received, including two from Secretary Stanton. The Senate amendmendments to the Anti-Contraction Bill were referred. The new Reconstruction bill was debated. January 17 .- The Senate amendments to the Deficiency bill were referred. The Senate amendment toth vart Contraction bill wes rejected, and the bill construction bill was continued.

January 20.-The new Reconstruction bill was considered, and the previous question seconded, but the House adjourned without voting.

January 16th .- London .- It is reported that Lord Bloomfield, the British Minister to Austria. and Lord Clarendon have gone on a mission to Rome, to request the Pope to use his influence for the suppression of the Fenian agitation. The aggressive policy of the Russian Government on the Eastern question causes much alarm in Turkey. The Northern Post, of St. Petersburg, declares that the Russian Government does not desire any extension of territory, her only aim being to secure the safety of the Christian subjects of the Porte. The St. Petersburg Gazette asserts that both England and France have urged the Sultan to make extensive military and naval preparations in the Mediterranintary and naval preparations in the intediterra-nean.—Later advices from Rio Janeiro represent that the allied army had been heavily reinforced, and was pressing the siege very closely. January 17th.—London.—Advices from Hong Kong and Shanghae state that another battle had been fought battaran the rebels and imparticipation been fought between the rebels and Imperialists at Shentang. The Imperialist army, under Fontal, was again defeated.—Florence.—The sales of the ecclesiastical estates sequestrated by the Italian gov-ernment prove very productive. The sums realized show, an average appreciation of 45 per cent. on their value since placed in the market. January -19th. London When the Scotia, from New York for Liverpoll entered Queenstown, last evening, a strong police force quietly, went aboard and arrested George Francis Ilrain, and two other passengers, who sailed from New York. It is understood that, they were taken into custody on the charge of being active members of the American wing of the Fenian organization. "Nothing was found on the person or baggage of Train to justify suspicion (1) (1) January 20th London - Later information from Africa in regard to Dr. Livingstone, it is thought, confirms all previous reports of his safety. --Copenhagen.--The bill for the ratification of the treaty transferring St. Thomas and St. John's to the United States, was referred to a special committee, who will meet in secret session. BY CUBA CABLE.

January 16th. Havana. The election in St. Thomas had resulted favorably to annexation to the United States; 1244 votes were cast for the transfer of the island, and only 22 against it. FOREIGN.

A FRENCH PAPER states that a scientific gentleman has determined to erect a building on the summit of Mont Blanc, and establish therein a meteor ological observatory, which will be placed at an al-titude of about 17,000 feet above the ordinary level of the earth. Two guides will spend the summer in this glacial habitation, for the purpose of making meteorological observations. During a period of twelve months three guides were kept at the ex-pense of this gentleman in a chalet on the Col de St. Theodule, at an altitude of 10,700 feet, or more than 2000 feet above St. Bernard,
