his ministry had been eminently successful, and blessed of God to the salvation of many souls. He was a brother of Rev. Charles S. Robinson. D.D., who has just resigned the charge of the

First Church, Brooklyn. REVIVALS .- The Evangelist reports the following: The Thirteenth-street Church of New York-Dr. Burchard's-is now experiencing a delightful spiritual visitation. On Sabbath before last thirteen were received by letter and forty-eight on profession of their faith. Of the latter number, several were heads of families, twenty eight were from the Sabbath-school, including several from the Bible-class taught by the pastor. With one or two exceptions, the work has been carried on without additional help, the pastor going from house to house preaching the word.—From Allegan, Mich., the Rev. John Sailor writes: We have a very precious work of grace in our church. We have had one hundred enquirers, some seventy indulging hope, and the interest still continues. Our oldest citizens say that there never has been as much interest in the concerns of religion since the settlement of the village. A correspondent writes under date of March 4th: We are having quite a revival here in Deerfield, Lenawee county, warded to the President of the Philadelphia con-Mich., just now. About seventy are or have vention. J. H. Morrison and J. S. Woodside were been inquirers, many of whom profess to have appointed. January, the churches of Bloomington, Ill., have been visited by the Holy Spirit. The Second Church (Rev. A. McDougall's) have been greatly blessed, and heads of families have been led to Christ.—In Plainfield, Ill., twelve or fifteen Church viz: the evangelization of the world; (See of the young people have been brought to Christ, John xvii:) and and the church had an accession of sixteen on a recent Sabbath. The Occident reports unusual interest and daily meetings in the Church in the now divided sections of Christ's Church; Marysville, Cal., and an accession of twelve members to the Church in Oakland, Cal. The pastor of the Church at Port Jervis writes to the Observ r March 1: At our communion, fifty persons came forward to acknowledge Christ and enter into fellowship with His people. Nearly forty of these received the Sacrament of Baptism—the youngest 12 years old and the oldest more than three score. Here were fathers and childen, now for the first time to take their place with wives and mothers in the household of faith. Here were husbands and wives, mothers and daughters, brothers and sisters, friends and strangers. The good work began with the Week of Prayer. It is still going forward, and many hearts are yet interested .-The Herald reports revivals in Maroa, Ill, where thirty-one have united with the Church; in Collinsville, Ill., where about sixty persons have manifested religious interest, and where Dr. Nelson and other St. Louis pastors are helping on the work; in Lawrence where a general religious in terest is shared by all the churches, and where daily noon-prayer-meetings and protracted meetings are the order of the day; in Portsmouth, O., where forty-seven (thirty-nine on profession), have been gathered in on a recent Sabbath as first fruit; at Montezuma, Ind., where thirty-six (all but two on profession), have been added to the church; in Aurora, Ind., where a good degree of religious interest prevails; at Dayton, and where the Weck of Prayer was observed for the first time, and where thirty-five have been received to communion, thirteen by baptism: the church is rejoicing over backsliders reclaimed and members quickened into life and love; in Poynette, Wis., where over sixty have been converted in, and forty-five have sought admission to our church, which was organized last Spring; in Lowville, Wis., where eight heads of families, and several young people have come out

CHURCHES.—Rev. H. M. Shockley, (O. S.) Principal of the New Castle Academy, has been serving as Stated Supply our Church at Anderson, Ind., since September. At his own request his labors closed there on the first Sabbath of

on the Lord's side.

PRESBYTERIAL.—At a meeting of the Third Presbytery of New York, the following young men, members of the Union Theological Seminary, N. Y., were licensed as candidates, for the Gospel ministry, viz: C. P. Blanchard, T. J. Brown, Howard Cornell, T. Y. Gardner, J. V. Griswold, T. B. Hascall, C. H. McCreery, B. F. McNeil, Otto Meerwein, George P. Noble, B. Pick, J. W. Teal, John Thomson, E. G. Wickes.

ANOTHER CANON ENFORCED.—Every Episcopal minister is required "especially to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all indecency and irreverence in the performance, by which vain and ungodly persons profane the services of the sanctuary." The Episcopalian tells us that,

"On a Sunday morning, not long ago, a rector felt justified in interrupting the progress of a composition or arrangement which was so glaringly profune in character, as to cause the people to look at each other in amazement. In another case an organist did not scruple to perform, as a voluntary, a variety of selections from 'The Grand Duchess!' There would really seem to be no limit to the unscemly liberties which the choirs in some of our so-called tashionable churches are accustomed to take with that portion of the worship of God which is entrusted to their hands.'

ACTION OF MISSIONARIES ON REUNION.

At a meeting of the North Indian Mission of the O.S. (Lodiana Presbytery), and the R.P. (Saharanpur Presbytery) churches, the following action was taken (Nov. 12) on the subject of Presbyterian Union, while the National Presbyterian Convention was meeting in this city.

The Docket Committee, November 12th, reported as follows:—
V. Should our Mission take any action in reference to the movement for union among the Presbyterian Churches in America and Europe, particu-

In answer to the fifth item of the Docket it was resolved, that a Committee of two, one a member of the Lodiana Presbytery and one of the Saharanpur Presbytery, be appointed to prepare a Minute on this subject, to be inserted in the minutes and for-

The Committee appointed to prepare a minute in America and Europe, reported as follows :-

Whereas, Union among believers in the Lord Jesus Christ is absolutely essential to the accomplishment of the great work He has committed to His

Whereas, it is the duty of every Christian to pray and labor for the attainment of this Union among

Whereas, we have heard with unspeakable pleas ure of the efforts that are now being put forth, both in the British Isles, and in America, for the consoidation into one body of the various branches of the Presbyterian Church in these countries; and in particular of the Convention of delegates of the severa Presbyterian bodies in the United States, assembled at this particular time in Philadelphia; and

Whereas, the members of this Mission, belonging to two of the Churches represented in the Phila-delphia Convention, have lived and labored together for more than 30 years in perfect harmony, have thus demonstrated that the churches they have the honored to represent are in reality one; Be it, there-

I. That we feel called upon to offer up our warmest thanksgiving and gratitude to God for having stirred up His people in Europe and America to earnest efforts in this holy cause.

II. That we look with much hope to the Philadelphia Convention, as likely, under God, to be the means of removing many of the obstacles hitherto in the way of an organic union of the Presbyterian Churches of America; and we shall continue to offer up our daily supplications to God for a blessing on its efforts.

III. That we believe there is no longer any ground for maintaining separate organizations, so far as the Churches we represent are concerned; and that we are fully prepared to enter into an organic union on any basis that may be agreed upon by our respective Churches, preserving intact the great principles of doctrine and Church government now common to both.

IV. That we carnestly entreat the friends of union at home to persevere, and would warmly encourage them, in their endeavors to attain the ends aimed at. Union is of God: It is an important element of strength in any cause, especially in the Church; whereas, the absence of union in the Church becomes a corresponding element of weakness.

V. That for the accomplishment of this work we will use our best endeavors in every way in which it may be legitimately promoted.

VI. That while we earnestly desire the organic union of all who cordially agree with us in the doctrines and government of the Presbyterian Church, as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith; yet we could not desire to see a union formed between those who are not really one in their doc-trines and Church polity.

The resolutious as amended was accepted and

The Theological Seminary closed its sessions March 5th. Three students, Messrs. Murdock, Boyce and Ramsey, were examined in the morning on the various subjects taught during the session, and in the evening the two latter delivered discourses to a very respectable audience in Dr. Steel's church, and the last was recommended for licensure. The difficulty caused by the publication of two calls for the meeting of the Board, one from the Secretary to meet at the First Church, the other from the President, at the Fourth Church, was settled by the good natured yielding of those who complied with the

The Capocoro Concert of a fortnight since was, beyond all question, the most successful of the series. Never have we seen Musical Fund Hall so well filled, and the audience evinced, by the patience with which they waited to the close of the long programme, as well as by their hearty, intelligent, and appreciative applause during the performance itself, their high satisfaction with the character of the entertainment. We were glad to see so many of our Broad st. Ch. singers -Miss Wells (soprano), Miss Neely (alto), Miss Hazel (soprano), and others, so ably sustaining the distinguished parts assigned to them, while it would be unjust to pass by without mention the exqusite singing of others not so well known personally to many of our Philadelphia readers. Miss Caldwell and Miss McKnight (sopranos) of Mr. Stevenson's church, Miss Hogue (alto), Mr. Moyer (tenor), and others.

The result of the concert has been to bring the Society largely before the favorable notice of the general public, as none has elicited so much and such favorable comment in the musical and music-loving circles of our city. It will be seen by our advertising columns that another concert is to be given on the evening of next Friday, for a very deserving object. Of the pieces the duett "Roma," is a very beautiful composition descriptive of the Italian Patriot's detestation of old Rome and his hope for the new future of Rome and the regenerated Re-
