Aews of the Week.

XLth CONGRESS-First Session.

Senate .-- June 16 .-- Mr. Sherman. of Ohio, introduced a bill " to promote commerce among the several States and cheapen the transportation of the mails and military stores," which was referred to a select committee of seven to report next session. The bill provides for the construction of several railroads. The House bill removing the disabilities of certain citizens of North Carolina, was passed. The names of ex-Congressmen George W. Jones, of Tennessee, and Thomas J. Mackay, of South Carolina, were inserted. June 17.—The members of the Chinese embassy, headed by Mr. Burlingame, were introduced to the Senators. The bill amendatory of the National Currency act was amended by striking out the first section, (forbidding any National bank from paying interest on the balances of any other bank,) and by adding a proviso, that the circulation herein au-thorized shall be issued only as circulation is withdrawn, so that the aggregate circulation shall never exceed three hundred millions, and passed by a vote of 25 to 16 ... A conference was ordered on the bill to relieve certain citizens of North Carolina of their political disabilities.

June 18 .- The bill devolving on the Senior Associate Justice of the Supreme Court the office of Chief Justice, "th' case of the latter's inability, was passed. Bills passed amendatory of the act to pre-vent and punish revenue frauds, and providing for the appointment of a Supervising Surgeon of Ma-rine Hospitals. The bill for the relief of certain exporters of rum and alcohol was rejected. The conference report on the bill removing political disa-bilities of certain ex-rebels was agreed to. The report omits the name of George Houston of Ala-bama, and Grorge W. Jones of Tennessee.

June 18. The Committee on Indian Affairs, made a report on the subject of the treaty with the Great and Little Ossige Indians, for the cession to a railroad company of 8,000,000 acres in Southern Kansas, at 19 cents acre, declaring it in violation of justice and the rights of settlers. A resolution ex-pressing the hope that the Senate will not ratify the treaty, was adopted. The Election Committe made a report in the case of Hogan versus Pile, stating that Mr. Pile, the sitting member, was duly elected, The Judiciary Committee was discharged from further consideration of the resolution relating to Judge Field, of the Supreme Court. The bill rela-ting to appeals from the Court of Claims was passed, also a bill relieving express companies from liability for goods damaged by armed forces during the rebellion. June 19.-The Passenger bill was passed. The bill extending the Harvey Screw Patent was defeat-ed. The Conference report on the bill relieving the political disabilities of certain ex-rebels was voted upon, the yeas being 78 and the nays 55. This being less than the two-thirds necessary in such cases, was a rejection. The Senate amoughments to the joint resolution giving damaged ordinance for the Lincoln monument; to the Freedmen's Bureau bill; to the Supreme Court succession bill; to the Phila-delphia collection district bill; and to the whisky exporters' relief bill, were concurred in ... The Senate resolution of thanks to Mr. Edwin M. Stanton was also concurred in.

June 20.--- A message was received from the Pres ident, vetoing the Arkansas bill, and the bill was immediately passed over the veto-yeas 111. navs 31. Mr. Schenck, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported the bill relating to the tax on whis ky and tobacco, and to the tax on banks. It makes the tax on whisky 60 cents.
