

par Publishers will confer a favor by mention
we prices of all books sent to this Department.
"Prears of Fortune, or, Half round the World," is a Sequel to "The Starry Flag," and one of the series of nautical jureniles with which Wm. T. Adams, ("Oliver Optio") is so hand somely entertaining young readers. The excitement of the story is derived from the most legitimate and healthful sources, and is admirably talculated to inspire the reader with hatred of injustice and meanness, and with zeal in a good ting sort, although they'are sometimes damaged by extravagance. The engravings are totally unworthy of the book. It surprises us that such unworthy of the book. It surprises us that such execrable performances should be tolerated in execrable perform such a connection.
Make or Break, or, The Rich Man's Daughter, is another of "Oliver Optic's" "Starry Flag Sories" of juveniles. The scenes are upon land, which is somewhat a novelty with this writer, but which is somewhat a novelty with this writer, but they are novel, fresh' and healthfully exciting, they are novel, fresh and healthfully exciting, leading the reader, with steady step, through a web of deoeit out to the triumph of the right deeply interest the young render. We must win mend Mr. Adams, the writer, for abstaining in these tales from collisions between teacher and scholars, which formed such a standing topic of his earlier books. Boston : Lee & Shepard.
Huge Winford, or, The Cousin's Revenge, reprinted by J. 'P. Skelly & Co., is one of the bost and most powerfully written of juveniles. It opens with a scene at school, in which a high-spirited, reserved, boy falls, unjustly, but with seeming good grounds, under the imputation of theft. It deseribes the effeet of the charge upon his career in life, and winds up by a most noble and Christian act of "revenge," for which the lad, now lecome a man, was prepared by the counsels of an excellent mother. The wrong was heightened and complicated by the peculiar position of the accuser towards the accused, who was his cousnn. The whole book is admirably calculated to produce the best and deepest impressions on the youthfal minid. It is dramatic and skilful in strueture and claims the profound interest of the reader from the start. terest of the reader from the start has issued an excellent and attractive little treatise on anatomy, eatitled: The Earthly $H$ onse tise on anatomy, entitled: The Earthly Honse and its Builder. This is a new field for our religions publishing Societies, yet it is one in which there is abundant opportunity to carry out the objects of these Sociecies. There is no reason why the people at large may not be made to feel the power of the argument for the Divine wisdom from the human frame, which was long ago so beautifully popularized by Paley. The style of the book is very clear, the illustrations numerous and the lessons anobtrusively but effectively ed. For sale at 1210 Ohestnut street.
ed. For sale at 1210 Ohestaut street.
The Second Vonume of Kinalak
sion or tiend Crimea, has just been issued by sion of the Crimea, has just been issued by Mesars. Harpers, N. Y. It carries the narrative from the night after the battle of the Alma, to the conclusion of the battle of Balaclava, from Sept. 20th to Oct. 20th. Of course, at this rate of progress, the author has time to be very full and minute, and such he is almost to tediousness, both in incident and in criticism. We canouot see how such writing can aspire to be called history, or greatly exceed the very highest sort of newspaper reporting. The single battle of Balanewspaper reporting. The single battle of Balaclava ocoupies about oue-third of the entire conclara occupies about oue-third of the entire contents of the volume, all the various parts and incidents of the battle being desoribed, even down cidents of the battle being desoribed, even down caralry and the peculiar sounds of battle at different stages of the conflict. The conduct of officers is closely seratinized, a large space being griven to Lord Cardigan of the English Cavalry, and leader of the fatal oharge of the light brigade. The blunder by which the brigade was sent upon its brilliant, but bootless expedition, is fostened upon Lord Lucan, who unacoountably fastened upon Lord Lucan, who unacoountably mistook Lord Raghans order for an attack upon retake the artillory and the Tarkish redoubts just captured by them. Mr. Kinglake's book is a vindication of the part played by his own country in this sad Crimean war, and an attempt toremove the sloud under which British arms have siace rested, and especially the unfavorable impressions made by comparsion with their Freqeh allies. Every opportunity is taken to show the lies. Every opportunity is taken to show the anfortunate effect of the allianoe in ologging ted British valour, and led to more prompt and company the volume, which leaves the impressiontof the greatest painstaking, and is very suocessful in giving a vivid conception of the events aarrated. 12mo. pp. 633
The Water Power of Maine, is a most creditable and valuable State document, designed to exhibit the extraordinary resources of that an The amount of available water power found with. in its limits, according to the report, exoeed eds that of any other portion of the earth's surface of equal extent. This is accounted for from the large and uniform amount of rain falling in the streame run nearly at right angles, in their get-eral course, with the rock stratifications. The water powers examined by the committee of survee, give an aggregate force of about 300,000 horse, nearly dorble the total amount of power employed in the cotton, woolen, worsted, silk and flax manufatories of Great Britain and Ireland, of which but 27,724 were operated by water
The volume is one of profound interest to the capitalist, on the look-out for opportunities of profitable investment; to the statistician ; and to the friend of his country and his race, concerned for the fature improvement and elevation of both If such grand, undeveloped fields of wealth and enterprise are still in reserve in one of our oldest States, it would seem that the dreams of the most enthusiastic as to the future of our country, might fall below the reality
The volume is well illustrated with maps and diagrams, and may be had gratuitously, printed by Owen & Nash, Augusta, Me.
"What Answer?" is the significant title of Miss Anaa Dickinson's somewhat curiously expected story. The whole book is an inquiry as to the solution of the question of prejudice against color, still so deeply agitatian and destined to agitate our country. It is in the form of a New York, in this city and on the batule fiel of Chancellorsille and Charleston Harbor. The hero is one of the elite of New York society, be longs to the famous Seventh Regiment, falls in love with a woman of rare beanty and persona Worth, who turns out to be a quadroon, living in a splendid mansion near Philadelphia. It is plain that the elements of a stipring story ar furnished in these materials. Suffice it to sa hat love and honor are represented as triump ing over prejudice without a struggle, and that the absurdity of allowigg a slight intermixtur of despised blood to overpower the strongest reasons for affection and regard is most effectiveon Eort Wegneq and the New York Riot of 186 in which the hero and heroine play such a trag part, with othor incidents of the war bearing: on her theme, are narrated with a carefull regard to authorities and with high descriptive power. The writer, in a concluding note, vouches for the acWriter, in a concluding note, vouches for the actual faet of the main points of herstory, including "the portraits" of the mulatto and his quadroin family. The book is not without a reverent re gard for the general principles of celigious trath but contains no reoognition of Christian' truth except so far as it enforces 'with the deepes earnestness the principles of charity' which wh owe to the Gospel, but which so many professed believers in it fail to exemplify.
Our Mutiat Friend, is the latest issue o the Charles Dickens Edition (Ticknor & Fields) of that writer's works. The story is, in man parts, repulsive and quite unlike Dickens at his best. Yet those who would possess the entire "The Charles Dickens Edition" with ite an clear type, convenient size and shape, the origi nal illustrations and handsome and substantial externals, at the reasonable price of $$ 1.50$ per volume; must needs be a favorite with" purchasers.
For sale by Lippincott $&$ Co. sale by Lippiacott a co.
paper covers, The Harif a Dociar Edition o Tennyson's Porms, complete. Itis a delightful volume for the pocket, and it brings the riches of the author's poetry within the reach of all. Among other Juveniles we notice Chan EY Watson, or, The Drunkard's Little Son astory of poverty, vice and suffering manfully strury of poverty, vice and suffering, manfully sity of London, ( 16 moo pp. 196) and the Litrti Slate Piokers, with other stories, by Mrs. E. E Boyd, 18mo. pp. 152, sent from the trastworthy house of J. P. Skelly & Co.; The Gowden Frorr by Miss MeNair Wright, author of "The Golden Heart," &e.,(16mo. pp. 362 ) a domestin story, in which the power of divine grace Ghristian example and by providences to reac titute of any marked traits, being about equal to the average of S. S. Literature. By Hoyr. The Americant Tract Society, New York, just issued Anchoned, by the anthor of "The Climbers." 16mo. pp. 271. Thers is little at. tempt at narrative, the interest of the story centering in an old sailor, who has given up voyaging, and who lives with his widowed daughter in Minnesota. The old Captain's explauations of nautieal matters and his talks with his graid. children about the Bible make up the bulk of the book magazines regenved.
Blackwoon's Edinburg Magazing -No
DCXXXV,September, 1868 ; A merican Edition Nem York: Leoardi Scott Publishing Co. Phil delphia: W. B Zieber Cont Sketches of the Reign of George II, No. VI-
The Young Chevalier; Bunsen; Madame Au
 CLa Marmora-International Hospitalities; Let pedition; raeli, No. I
North British Revirw- No. XCVII, Sep tember, 1868, Americaa Edition. New York Leonard Scott Publishing Co. Phim Yorkhia
W. B. Zieber. Contents-Bartolomeode de Liol W. B. Zieber. Contents-Bartolomeo de Lid
Casas; The Greek Gnomie Poets; On the Edd cation of the Imbecile ; Z Wringli, the Reformer col France in Europe and in Africa; The Fout An cient Books of Wales; Nathaniel Hawthorne Hours AT Home for October.
HEWGI
Néw: Engianden

haprencotrys The Galaxy  The Gafixy OUR Young

The Coung Filks
Thelic Worid
SCHEDLMATR
BLACKWOOD
Blackwood for September
Sunday Magazive
North British Review
Norkh British Review "
Mssionary Heralid for Octol
Howad Cunt Howard Challen's Uniform Trade Lis Circular for October and November.
Sloan's Arcbitectural Review Sloan's Arcititectural Rediew.
Abstract of Proceedings of the Royal Arch
hapter of Pena. $1865,1866,1867$.
$\frac{\text { Chapter of Penna. } 1865,1866,1867 .}{\text { Systematic and Persistent adrertising the Sure Road to Sucoese }}$
T. C. EVVANS

ADVERTISEMENTS INSER IED AD POBLISHERS' LOWEST RATES,

WYERS' BOABDING SCHOUL FOR YOUNG MEN AND BOYS. at WEST CHESTER, PA.

William F. Wyers, A. M, mix
COTTAGESEMINARY

Jy16 Circulars adareas.
Rm. JOHN MOORE, Principal
Oakland Female Institute,

ELMIRA FEMALE COLLEGE SYMOD OF GENEVA.

 Ladras, BEV. A. W. OOWLES, D.D., President.

Tascarora Hemale Seminary

tualo and Palating.
The Fint sission will opeq thins.

J. WALKER PATTERSON, Prinipal, Acqademina, Juniata O.a., Pa.
mayis. 1 y :
FREDERICK TEMALE SEMINARY, FREDERICE, MD.,
TWENTY-SIXTH SCHOLASTIC YEAR The First Monday in September.

CLASSIGAL, FRENCH & ENGLISH

SCHOOL

THIRTEENTH & LOCUST STREETS,

PHLLADELPHIA.
B. Kendall, A. M.

Ingham University,

BRAINERD INSTITUTE,

Miss ELIZA W. SMITH:S BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, Re-opens September 14th, 1868.

WHITMAN'S CHOCOLATE

PHILADELPHIA STEAM OHOCOLATE
COCOA ORKS.
STEPHEN F. WHITMAN, Proprietor store no tio mabiget street
aro and Faabionable CONPHCTIONS,
STEPHEN F, WHITMAN,

$\boldsymbol{G R T H E I T H} \boldsymbol{H}$
SCREW VENTILATOR
SMOKE CONDUCTOR
No. 53 8outh Fourth Street, Pbiladelphia.

J. & F. CADMUS, 736 MARKET ST:, S. E. Corner of Eighth PHILADELPHIA, TRUNKS, OARPET BAGS AND VALISES. Ladies' Sacs, Bags, Pocket Books ingrea variety

SPRINGSTYLES, Boots and Shoes, FOR GENTLEMEN. ail the Leading Styles of Fine Goods may be obtained.

BARTLETT 33 SOUTH SIXTH STREET,
ABOVE CHESTETT

GROVER & BAKER'S
HIGHEST PREMIUM
ELASTIC STITCH
FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES

 INSTRUOTION GRATIS, TO ALL WHO APPLY
 FFICE, 730 CHESTNUT STREET

LOUIS DREKA
Stationer, Card Rngrayer and Plate Printer 1033 CHESTMUT STREET

QUEEN OF ENGLAND SOAP

1036²MARKET STREET
SARMUEL K. SMYTH,

Silver Plated Ware,

GOLD AND STIVER PLATER
No. 724 Chestrut Street,

Old Ware Repaired and Replated

FAMILYBIBLE

A NEWEDOTION

Wo know not hor this ible coild be improved for tit purposes
AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY
1210 CHESTNUT STREET

