THE REFORMED CHURCHES.

City .- The Rev. Matthew Newkirk, of Downingennsylvania, has received a unanimous call town. to the North Tenth street Presbyterian church, late Dr. Musgrave's.—The Presbyterian says, "Last week we referred to an assertion which had been made in The Evangelical Repository, that a multitude of drink-ing-house keepers in Philadelphia and region of country are in full membership in our Church, and in other denominations. We were not acquainted with any facts which would justify such a charge; but as the editors of the Repository seemed to base it on their knowledge, we embraced the opportunity that it afforded to emphasize the position in which our Church stands towards the traffic in liquoir. A good number of our pastors have spoken to us on the subject since the publication of our article. They each and all declars that they have no such men on their communion rolls, nor do they know any Session that will receive them." Ministerial.—Rev. T. H. Skinner was recently installed pastor of the First church of Fort Wayne, Ind., by a Committee of the Presbytery of Fort Wayne.—Rev. James M. Ludlow, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Albany, N. Y., has accepted a call to the Collegiate Reformed [Dutch] church, New York.——Rev. David Monfort, the youngest brother of the Editor of The Presbyter, died near Kilbourn City, Wis., on the 14th of Nov., in the 47th year of his age.—The Meadville Republican says: "We learn that the Rev. Dr. Marks has ac-cepted a call from the First Presbyterian church at Brookville, Pa., to take the pastoral charge of that congregation. Dr. Marks and family have many friends here who will seriously regret their depar- the Am. and For. C. Union have commissioned Mr. ture. The people of Brookville are fortunate in se-curing his services. He is an able preacher and a high-toned Christian gentleman."—Rev. G. L. See the distribution of Bibles and religious books Shearer has been appointed Assistant Secretary in the Financial Department of the American Tract Society. His address is 150 Nassau street, New presented to the church at Talladega, Ala., a beautiful York.—The Second [Declaration and Testimony] church, Louisville, has elected Rev. W. O. Barnes, of Stamford, Ky., to be co-pastor with Rev. Stuart Robinson. The Second church has pow two mission chapels and mission schools fully established. Two others are contemplated.

Churches .- Pequa church, Pa., (Presbytery of Donegal), recently enjoyed a precious season of re-treshing. A correspondent of The Presbyterian says: "The pastor has had the pleasure of pointing at least fity troubled and inquiring souls to the Lamb of God. About one-third of the inquirers belong to our Sabbth-schools—some teachers, some scholars." -The Missouri Declaration and Testimony Synod's Committee of Missions have been officially inform ed that the church at Ashley, Mo., finding that neu-trality could no longer be a bond of union, has for-mally declared itself to be in connection with that Synod. This action is concurred in by the whole Church, save two deacons and a few members, who adhere to the General Assembly. A Reason for Trouble.—Dr. Brown of St. Paul, Minn., who voted for the ipso-factoing resolutions at St. Louis in 1866, writes a curious letter to The North Western Presbyterian. It was on his motion that the Assembly engaged in prayer for the bless-ing of God to attend that action, but he now asserts that the Assembly's orders in '65 and '66 are the great cause of the embarrassments of the Board of Domestic Missions, especially, as these "penal or-dinances, sufficiently harsh in themselves, were made doubly offensive by the spirit in which it was attempted to enforce them," and that not a few are "boginning to think that the man who have taken charge of our ecclesiatical affairs for the last few years, are not altogether the safoot suid-

Scotch Missions in Hungary .- About thirty years ago, the Free Church became greatly inter-ested in the Christianization of the Jews; and a deputation of four divines, headed by Dr. Keith, was sent to the East to explore the condition of the Spain as a field of missionary exertion. But, like was sent to the East to explore the condition of the "dispersed of Israel," and fix upon the most suita-ble stations for missions. They did not intend to visit the Austrian dominions, not supposing it pos-takings, and an insufficient most sufficient. sible for any Protestant mission to obtain the slightest toleration. Some unexpected circumstance, however, caused them to return by way of the Danube; and at Pesth Dr. Keith was taken ill and detained for a long time. This came to the knowledge of the Archduchess Maria Dorothea, a Wurtem-berg princess, and wife of the Archduke Joseph, then governor of Hungary. This lady, originally bred in French infidelity, had been led by affliction to rest in the Gospel. She not only hastened to min-tor to the work of the Archduche but entered ter to the wants of the sick clergyman, but entered warmly into the object of his mission, and promised to do all in her power for the protection of a Protestant mission to the Jews, should one be un-dertaken in Hungary. Dr. Keith, during his pro-tracted convalescence, learned so much as to the hopeful state of the Jews, that on returning home he enlisted the Church in favor of a mission, if any door could be opened. The Archdutchess was writ-ten to, and promised to lay the matter before her husband the first favorable opportunity. At this moment there occurred a violent outbreak among the Romanist peasantry of Poland, with Irightul deeds of massacre; and the Archduke was compelled to see that nothing could give permanent peace to those people unless the Bible could be circulated and taught. He was therefore quite ready to approve the Scotch enterprise. And when his wile made her application, he answered at once that they should send out their men with as little noise as possible, and if molested, should offer no resisas possible, and in motivity, should only no resis-tance, but make application to him, and he would do all that, with his limited powers, was practicable for their protection. It would not answer to have it known at Vienna that he was aiding in the circula-tion of the Scriptures. On this hint, the mission-aries that he was do not his hint, the missiontion of the Scriptures. On this hint, the mission-aries went forward, spreading the Bible in all direc-tions, among both Jews and Christians, thus dis-posing of many thousand copies, accompanied by a diligent personal teaching, the fruits of which are now abundantly visible in the coudition of the people of Hungary in many forms. In 1847, the Archduke was called to his rest, but not until he had experienced in his own soul the rest and peace which are given to all true believers. OTHER DENOMINATIONS. *Episcopalian.-The law of the Church as amended by the late Convection in New York forbids any minister to solemnize a marriage when either of the parties have been divorced for any other cause than parties nave been divorted for any other cause than adultery According to the Evening Post, there is in New Yorkin Poseo pal church, flounded in 1866 and composed entirely of Cubans, Mexicans and Spaniards. Its membership has advanced from 20 to more than 300, and large distributions of the 20 to more than 300, and large distributions of the Soriptures have been made through its agency.— The Rev. Algorithm Peyton, rector of Doddington, England, died a few days ago. The living was worth £8,000 a year; or over $50,000 in currency, and was the richest in England. Mr. Peyton had held it ince the live agence of the live agence of the live of t since 1811.—The Rev. Mr. Doddington, an English ourate, recently refused to marry a young woman because she had "no Christian name;" that is, she had not been baptized: Shewas put under a course of three months instruction preparatory to baptism and marrlage. Rev. MT.ISmith, I Congregationaland marriage. Nev. Mr. Smith, a congregational ist, appealed to the Bishop of Salisbury in her be-half, but the Bishop declined to interfere. — Rev. E. A. Foggo, has resigned the position of assistant minister of Christ church, Philadelphia. — Rev. Ben-jamin Borr, D. D., has resigned the pretorship of Christchurch, Philadelphia — Rev. Snudar B. Simes. Christohurgh, Philadelphia. - Revr Sayder B, Simes late assistant minister of the church of the Epiph any, has been called to the rectorship of Old Swedes duties.—Bishop Stevens has recently appointed the Rev. John G. Furey to be City Missionary to labor in that portion of Philadelphia south of Lombard street, and to act under the direction and advice of the Parish clergy in that pistrict.—Rev. A. N. Littlejohn, rector of Holy Trinity church, Brooklyn, has been chosen Bishop of the Northern Diocese of New York, and has been also chosen Bishop of the new Diocese of Long Island.

Congregationalist.—Rev. J. W. Dodge was lately dismissed from his pastorate in Hampton, N. H., mainly on the ground of inadequate support, and was warmly commended by the council as an able and successful minister, and the church was admonished "that increased ministerial support would be found indispensable to their future pros-Mr. Dodge has accepted a call to Yarperity." mouth, Mass., with a salary of $1200 and a par-sonage.—Rev. William H. Murray was installed pastor of the Park street church Nov. 11th, in the presence of as large an assembly as the house would accommodate.-Prof. E. A. Lawrence, D.D., late of Oxford, N. H., and formerly of the East Windson Theological Institute, was installed pastor of the Third church in Marblehead, Nov. 19th'; sermon by Rev. John Cotton Smith, D. D., (Episcopalian) New York .- Rev. George L. Walker was installed pastor of the Centre church in New Haven Wednesday Nov. 18th; sermon by Rev. Geo. N. Boardman, D.D., of Binghamton, N. Y.—Rev. E. E. Hall of Guilford, Conn., has been dismissed for the crime of hanging out a political banner on election day, if the reports of our exchanges are correct. It strikes us (says The Congregationalist) that Mr. Hall ought to be profoundly thankful to get out of such a place, and we trust that he may speedily find an-other and a better field of labor.—The Directors of furnished by the American Bible and Tract Sociecommunion set.—The council which has been in session at the call of a minority of the church in Washington, has resulted in advising that minority to present their case fully before the council called by the church, to be held in January next. Much religious interest exists at Oberlin. At the close of a powerful sermon by Prof. Finney on a recent Sabbath afternoon, in response to a request that all who were willing to come to Christ should signify it by taking seats in front of the pulpit, nearly all the body of the church was filled. Several conversions in the advanced college classes are reported; and should treat the all deing on work. about twenty in all during one week.—The Indepen-dent states, that a young German girl, of eighteen years, timid and retiring in her manners, having lately joined a church in Chicago was told that her usual-wages, six dollars a month, should be paid to her if slic would work for the church among her people. She has already been instrumental in bringing two hundred and twenty scholars into the Sun day-school, and over three liundred to the church, many of whom have professed conversion.

Methodist.—Daniel Drew, the princely New York speculator who gave half a million for the founding of Drew Jheological Seminary and became famous throughout the land, has lately lost in stock speculations to the extent of one million and six hundred thousand dollars. "Forthwith "promi-nent members of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, with which Mr. Drew is connected, are debating the propriety of asking him to withdraw, and expelling him if he declines to do so." And wherefore this, now that he has been unfortunate? If the above than he has been known to be for years past.

The question of admitting laymen as members of the Conferences, which are not limited to clergy-men, is to be submitted to a vote of the different Methodist churches in June next.—The Wesleyan church, Philadelphia, and has entered upon his New Books for Old and Young.
