

The present membership is eighty one Sabbath services are well attended. There are over two hundred children connected with the Sabbath school at the church. Mr. Winnes has also a Mission Sabbath school on Rice street with an average attendance of over fifty. He reports, during the year, 635 visits to families, to all of whom he gave tracts, and with many of whom he prayed. He visited the jail to converse with the prisoners, particularly those who speak only German, forty-eight times; visited the hospitals fifty-four times, reading, conversing and praying with the inmates. About 20,000 pages of tracts have been distributed.

Sunny Side.—Rev. N. S. Dickey, of Columbus, Ind., had a visit from a number of the members of his church on a very stormy and unpleasant New Year's evening. They left liberal tokens of their interest.—Rev. G. A. Little, of Oconto, Wis., had a surprise party, Dec. 29th. A liberal amount of greenbacks was left at the parsonage.

—Rev. Jacob Little, of Warsaw, Ind., was visited by a large portion of the members of his church, who left some well-filled baskets on his premises. The church in Roseville, O., kept Christmas with a festival for "the wee ones," a grand and heavily laden Christmas tree figuring in the foreground.—The church at Circleville, O., observed the festival of the Christ-child in a similar way, and have got a fine new organ at a cost of $2,000.

—Rev. Prof. D. Swing, pastor of the Westminster church, Chicago, received presents from his friends in the above congregation at Christmas amounting to over $800.

—Rev. Jotham Sewall, recently of North Granville, N. Y., is at 724 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.

—Rev. A. H. Parmelee, pastor of the church in Livonia, N. Y., has resigned, to take effect March 1st, 1869. This will end a faithful and fruitful pastorate of thirteen years; the last two have been the most prosperous of any in the history of the church. He goes to Geneva to take charge of the mission church about to be formed there.

—Rev. B. F. Willoughby has signified his acceptance of the call to Sanquoit, if the church and Presbytery (which meets this month,) concur. He is offered $1,000 a year and a parsonage.

Churches.
Parsonsburg, Ind.—Our church in this place had fallen off to a membership of thirteen and seemed to be dead and hopeless. For two years they had had no preaching, and their house of worship was falling into ruin. By appointment of Presbytery Rev. W. M. Steele preached occasionally during the fall of 1868, and appointed the third Sabbath in December for the communion. Some members were awakened to a sense of the spiritual destitution around them, and wrestled in prayer for their neighbors. The meetings of the church were deeply moved and increased in number as the interest grew until the whole community was pervaded with it. A general revival and the addition of twenty-three members to our church was the result. Others are expected to join, and a new house of worship is to be erected. Rev. Mr. Mitchell (O. S.) of Carpenterville, rendered valuable aid, and all the neighboring churches shared in the outpouring of the Spirit.

Elizabethton, Ill.—Rev. C. C. Hart, formerly of Logan, O., having preached some four months in the court-house to a church of six members, received nine new members, and a dozen more will come in soon. There is no house of worship in the town, and only two (Baptist and Romanist) in this "Egyptian" county of Hardin. But it was said that there was not a school house in Hardin or Pope counties where the people did not desire Presbyterian preaching. They say, "We want somebody to explain the Scriptures to us." The best place of worship in the county is "Cave-in-Rock," once the den of a gang of robbers.

Oscola, Mo.—Rev. D. C. Milner, who was sent here in June by the Home Missionary Committee, has been holding a series of meetings, and six persons have united with the church on profession, and two by letter. A number of others are deeply interested. The church expect to put up a brick building in the spring, and some two thousand dollars are subscribed toward it. The building will be 40x60 feet, and will cost $5,000. "This place we can say, without boasting, can hardly be excelled in morals, as we have neither a gambling house nor drinking saloon; and in fact our whole county is free from such degrading influences. Public sentiment is growing in favor of a still higher state of morals."

St. Louis, Mo.—The first church in this city is once more disappointed in Dr. Wm. Hogarth, of Detroit, declining their call. Dr. Nelson preached for them Dec. 27th, and on the 29th they gave him a reception in the church parlor. A correspondent of The Herald writes: "A large number of the Doctor's friends were present, and cordially welcomed him back even for so brief a period. I almost feared for Lane Seminary as I saw the crowds of his parishioners saying so many kind and pleasant things to him."

Peoria, Ill.—Our church having no pastor, resolved about the first of August, to enlarge and greatly improve and beautify their building. They entered upon the work with promptness and prosecuted it to a successful issue. For comfort and taste it is not surpassed in the city, nor in the Presbytery. They have put on a front surmounted with a neat spire on one corner and a corresponding tower on the other. There is a thorough change within, comprising taste and comfort. The improvements cost $7,000—a wise and judicious expenditure. Thus enlarged and beautified it was dedicated to the worship of God on the last Sabbath of 1868—a fitting deed for the close of the year. Revs. Isaac B. Cary and S. Wyckoff, their former pastors, were present and took part in the dedicatory services. The former preached in the morning from Ps. 87: 3-4—the latter in the evening from Jno. 3: 3. The congregation is animated with new life and interest, looking forward hopefully to the time when they will have a pastor. A brother is now with them with this end in view.

Knoxville, Jan. 5, 1869.
Mallen, N. Y. The parishioners of Rev. J. P. Stratton surprised him with a purse of $125, a few evenings since, which with a previous donation, makes a money gift of $300 during the first seven months of the pastorate. The church is now rejoicing in the presence of the Holy Spirit. Several have found Jesus, and others are seeking Him with anxious hearts.

Church Courts.
Fourth Presbytery of New York.—Nov. 30th, 1868, Rev. Eben B. Parsons was dismissed and commended to the Presbytery of Onondaga. Nov. 24, 1868, Rev. John Peck died at Pateron, N. J. He was a graduate of Hudson College, O., and of Union Theological Seminary, New York; licensed by the Presbytery of Potage, and in 1847 ordained by the Presbytery of Salem. During nineteen years he was a faithful laborer in the Home Missionary field. "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith." Jan. 9, 1869, Mr. David Hopkins, a graduate of the New York University in 1865, and of the Union Theological Seminary in 1868, was ordained and installed as pastor of the church at New Rochelle, N. Y. Rev. George W. Wood, D.D., presided, offered the constitutional questions, and offered the ordaining prayer; Rev. T. S. Hastings, D.D., preached the sermon; Rev. E. H. Gillett, D.D., gave the charge to the pastor, and Rev. S. W. Bailey the charge to the people. The pleasantness of the day, the appropriateness and interest in all the exercises seemed ominous of a pleasant and fruitful ministry among an affectionate and faithful people.

QUESTIONS ON THE LIFE OF PAUL.
BY A LAYMAN.
The questions in the following lesson, the first of a series on the Life of the Apostle Paul, are taken substantially and by permission from a little work published by A. D. F. Randolph and Co. of New York, called "A Year with St. Paul." In the lessons which are to follow, the answers to the questions may be found for the most part in that work, but especially in Conybeare and Howson's Life and Epistles of Paul, in Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, or any other good Bible Dictionary.
The lessons will include everything of interest in the life of the great Apostle, and it is hoped may prove useful to Sunday-schools, or Bible-classes, where the Bible is studied biographically or topically.

PRESIDENT HOPKINS' MORAL SCIENCE.
LOVE AS A LAW. A Treatise on Moral Science. By Mark Hopkins, D. D., LL. D., President of Williams College. 1 vol. 12mo. $1.75.

This work is both theoretical and practical. In the theoretical part morality is made rational, both as based on ends and as in its own nature. In the practical part, the distinction between right and wrong, the moral law, the foundation of obligation is fully discussed, and a reconciliation of different systems is attempted. In the practical part the Law of Love is applied in connection with the Law of Limitation, and with a classification of duties—new as respects its basis.

DAY'S ENGLISH LITERATURE.
AN INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE. BY PROF. H. N. DAY, OF NEW HAVEN. 1 vol. 12mo. Uniform with Day's "Logic," "Art of Discourse," and "Art of Composition." $2.25.

The distinguishing characteristic of this text book is that it directs the study to literature itself as a growth; not to authorship, not to history, not to criticism. It presents, in the first part, a selection of the masterpieces of our literature most worthy of special study in themselves, while best representing the successive phases of the language and literature. In the second part it presents, in a strict analytical method, a full, detailed view of the elements of the language, and of the departments of the literature, with the leading authors in each department. To this part the notes on the selections refer throughout.

PROF. PORTER'S MENTAL SCIENCE.
THE HUMAN INTELECT; with an introduction upon Psychology and the Human Soul. By Prof. Noah Porter, D. D., of Yale College. 1 vol. 8vo., nearly 700 pp., $5.

"It is a wonderful work, embodying an amount of labor fruitful in its results, and sustained throughout with a careful, considering nearly its duration and intensity, few minds in the country are capable, not to mention its superior vigor and comprehensiveness."—New York Evening Post.

Prof. Porter's manner is worthy of his praise. He is equally free from dogmatism and timidity. His tone is calm, discriminating, judicial. If he still clings to the traditions of early education, he is none the less a sincere searcher after truth. J. V. T. Tribune.

"Will be eagerly welcomed by the lovers of a sound philosophy, and will not fail to be read by many who will respect its clearness, self-consistency, and logical accuracy, even though they reject from some of its conclusions."—Boston Congregationalist.

Horace Greeley on Political Economy.

Greeley's History of the War.

Mr. Greeley proposes to write, during the year 1869, an elementary work on Political Economy, wherein the policy of Protection to Home Industry will be explained and vindicated. This work will be given to the public through successive issues of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, and will appear in all the editions—DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, and WEEKLY. The work will contain the best results of the observations and study of a lifetime, and, as the question of Protection to American Industry concerns our entire people, it will be looked for with great interest. In addition to this work by Mr. Greeley, THE TRIBUNE has engaged George Geddes, one of the best and most successful farmers in the country, and other writers on Agricultural subjects, to write regularly for its columns. The American Institute Farmers' Club will contribute to be reported in THE SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY TRIBUNE. No farmer who desires to till the soil will profit, and to know the progress constantly made in the science of his calling, can afford to neglect the advantages of a newspaper like THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, especially when it unites with agriculture other features of interest and profit. THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE contains a summary of all that appears in THE DAILY and SEMI-WEEKLY editions, while in addition it is made to address itself to the wants of the great farming class. Reviews of new publications, and of what is new in music and the arts; letters from different parts of the world—some of them of rare interest to the farmer, as showing the progress of agriculture in other countries; editorial essays on all topics of home and foreign interest, together with full and carefully prepared reports of the markets, will be furnished from week to week, and at a lower price than that of any other newspaper in America. By pursuing this policy THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has attained its present commanding influence and circulation, and we enter upon the new year, with an assurance to our readers that no pains, and no expense will be spared to give it still greater usefulness and power, and to make it to us more welcome visitor to every fireside in the land.

GREELEY'S HISTORY OF THE WAR.
THE TRIBUNE also proposes to send "The American Conflict," by Horace Greeley, to 2 vols. of 648 and 782 pages respectively, to clubs, on terms stated below. This history has received from all quarters the highest commendation for accuracy of statement and fulness of detail. It is substantially bound, and must be deemed a valuable addition to any library. These volumes should be placed in every School District Library in the land, and each school contains scholars who can, with a few hours of attention, raise a Tribune Club and secure the history. Almost any one who wishes to know the truth as to giving up interest on procuring subscriptions for THE TRIBUNE among his friends and neighbors, and who hopes many will be inclined to do so, the work will be promptly forwarded, prepaid, by express or by mail, on receipt of the required subscriptions.
