

First Article, and the whole of the Tenth Article. It was done with perfect unanimity.

The Presbytery of Meadville passed the paper sent down by the last Assembly; expressed preference that the union should take place on the Standards without note or comment and the abolition of the Tenth Article.

The Presbytery of Brooklyn have adopted the recommendation of the Re-union Committee, amending the Basis in respect to the First and Tenth articles. The stated clerk writes: "The Presbytery adopted the Basis as overtured from the General Assembly with great unanimity."

Commissioners to the General Assembly are, Rev. Norman Seaver, D.D., and Samuel Carlisle as primaries, with Rev. A. N. Freeman and Theo. S. Brown as alternates. Lay Commissioners, Nathan Lane and Henry Keller, M. D., as primaries, with T. S. Freeman and George W. Edwards alternates.

The Presbytery of Chenango met at Coventryville, April 20th. Rev. S. Mandeville and Mr. N. S. Hunt were chosen Commissioners to General Assembly, and Rev. C. M. Whittlesey and Mr. W. H. Johnston alternates.

The Congregational church of Sherburne, asked to be released from their connection with Presbytery, and the request was granted. Rev. A. Crocker was received from the Presbytery of Cayuga, and Rev. S. M. Keeler dismissed to Chenango Association, and Rev. A. H. Fullerton to the Presbytery of Utica.

The Presbytery having already adopted the Basis of Re-union proposed by the Joint Committee, also adopted the recommendation of our committee, viz., to consent to the amending of the Basis by the omission:

1st. Of that part of the First Article of the Basis that begins with the words, 'It being understood, &c., and ends with the words, 'in the separate churches,' and (2d) of the whole of the Tenth Article of the Basis."

On the afternoon of the 21st Presbytery adjourned to the Second church of Coventry and installed Rev. A. Crocker pastor of the church. Rev. E. H. Payson preached the sermon from 2 Cor. 2: 16. The Moderator presided and proposed the constitutional questions. Rev. W. H. Sawtelle delivered the charge to the pastor, Rev. J. L. Jones, charge to people.

W. H. SAWTELLE, Stated Clerk. The Presbytery of Trumbull, O., at their meeting in Mineral Ridge, April 21st, adopted the last recommendations of our Reunion Committee amending the Basis in regard to the 1st and Xth articles.

The Commissioners to the General Assembly were Ministers, Rev. X. Betts, of Vienna, Principal, and Rev. L. B. Wilson, of Youngstown, Alternates. Elders, Jonathan Warner, of Mineral Ridge, Principal, and Reuben M. Miller, Alternates.

X. BETTS, S. C. The Presbytery of Cleveland and Portage, O., met in Salem, April 6th and 7th. A Committee was appointed who prepared a programme, which, if carried out, must make our meetings both interesting and profitable. Arrangements were also made, which we hope will be successful, in providing more efficient care and help for our feeble and vacant churches. If our plan succeeds, the details will be given to the public hereafter.

On Reunion, the amendment to the Basis proposed by the Committee of our Assembly was unanimously adopted. We had several other propositions before us from the Synod of Wheeling and from the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia. So far as these recommendations were in harmony with the recommendation of our own Committee, there was no need that we should reaffirm them; and so far as they were different, no response from us would be of any use, as furnishing a basis on which the Assembly might act. We were rejoiced and encouraged by the fraternal spirit expressed in both these papers. Commissioners to the General Assembly:—Principals, Rev. Samuel C. Aiken, D.D., and James Shaw, D.D., Alternates, Rev. Raymond H. Leonard and Anson Smyth. Elders, Hon. John A. Foot and T. D. Crosby, principals, and Isaac L'Homediou and J. A. Merriam alternates.

J. SHAW, S. C. The Presbytery of Cincinnati were notified by the Synod that it had sustained the complaint of J. L. Robertson and others against them for restoring Wm. Andrews to the gospel ministry, and had reversed their decision. Three young men were received under the care of Presbytery as candidates for the gospel ministry.

The Presbytery of Ripley, at Decatur, O., approved our Committee's proposed amendments to the Basis. Furthermore, they authorize, so far as this Presbytery is concerned, the Assembly at New York to effect and consummate a union on any basis that may seem best to them, not inconsistent with the common Standards of our Church.

Rev. H. Osborn and Elder J. West, of Decatur, were chosen Commissioners to the General Assembly. Rev. W. H. Guthrie and Elder W. B. Macklem, of Georgetown, as Alternates.

The Presbytery of Pataskala, O., while consenting to the recommendation of our Assembly's Committee, amending the Basis, prefer, should the Presbyteries so elect, a union on the basis of the Standards, pure and simple. The youngest member, Rev. Henry Beeman, just has been ordained and installed at Roseville.

Presbytery of Wabash, Ind.—The recommendation of our Reunion Committee, authorizing our next Assembly to unite on "the basis of the Standards pure and simple," &c., was adopted by a unanimous vote at the meeting of this Presbytery, April 15th, 1869, at Edinburg. To this was added as an amendment, by a majority vote, the words, "Or any other terms which the coming Assembly shall deem just and equitable." It is the desire of this Presbytery that the whole matter of Reunion may be submitted to the judgment of our next Assembly.

Commissioners Rev. R. D. Van Deusen, of Shelbyville, and Elder E. H. Palmer, of Danville. Alternates, Rev. J. Wilson and Elder P. Nicholson.

Rev. John Kidd was received from the Presbytery of Ottawa; Rev. W. R. Powers from the St. Lawrence Congregational Association; Rev. T. R. Hedges from the Foster Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church by letter and examination. Mr. I. L. McNair, licensed one year ago, was farther examined preparatory to his ordination, which was ordered June 15th at Toloona.

Nearly half of our churches report refreshing revivals during the past winter, and accessions of from 14 to 30 each. Among these I may mention Tuseola, Shelbyville, Cerro Gordo, Pleasant Prairie and Neoga.

We missed the familiar face of dear Brother and Father Enoch Kingsbury—whom the Master has taken to Himself. Few men were more genial and faithful to the work committed to their care. May we all be found equally faithful by the great Master when He calls us to render up account of our Stewardship. E. BLACK, S. S.

Salem Presbytery met at New Albany, Ind. Reunion received cordial approval, and Commissioners, Rev. C. Hutchingson and Elder M. C. Browning, were instructed to vote for it on the terms of the Assembly's Committee, with discretionary powers.

The Dove of Peace still hovers over New Albany, and the mercy drops that fell on Mt. Tabor one year ago have not yet passed away. St. John's Church, just enrolled, introduced to the Presbytery one of its members, a young man of promise, as a candidate for the gospel ministry. This incident, occurring in less than one half hour after that church was received, speaks well for its beginning.

The Second Reformed Presbyterian Church at Twenty-second and Callowhill streets, (Rev. Dr. Sterrett, Pastor) has hitherto been regarded as doubtful in regard to the questions raised by Mr. George H. Stuart's suspension. A majority of the Session are inclined to endorse Synod in suspending him, and these have always talked as if they had a majority of the church at their back. They refuse to have Drs. Wylie and McCauley assist their pastor in the labious services of a Covenanter Communion, thereby giving him the alternative of calling on Dr. Steele and others of the Synod's party, or having no communion at all. Dr. Sterrett chose the latter alternative. A leading elder, Mr. Alexander Kerr (who has such a high opinion of his own accuracy that he threatened us with a libel suit last summer, for saying he was incorrect in a statement), called a meeting of the congregation to memorialize Synod to interfere in their affairs. The quiet people of the church came in good numbers, and Mr. Kerr's resolutions were voted on the table with fitting emphasis and unanimity. Others were passed if an entirely opposite character: adhering to the Reformed Presbytery of Philadelphia, censuring the majority of Session, disapproving of the Stuart suspension, and fully endorsing Dr. Sterrett and his course. The majority evinced an admirable spirit of quiet forbearance in the face of many provocations, and were so strong that the minority did not dare to vote for their own resolutions and motions. How the latter like the role of Balak we do not know.

The chief feature of interest, during the meeting, was the action taken on the Overture on Reunion. It was decided first to take up the articles seriatim. A full discussion followed. Articles 2nd and 10th were not approved. The remaining articles were unanimously approved. The answer to the question of approval of the Overture as a whole was in the negative. The amendments presented by our Assembly's Committee were given unanimous consent and approval. Later in the session it was "Resolved, That, in approving the plan of Reunion submitted to us by the General Assembly with the amendments proposed by the Committee on Reunion of our Assembly, we do so with the understanding defined by that Committee in relation to liberty of opinion, and the explanations of the Joint Committee."

D. S. JOHNSON, S. C. The Pres. of Galena and Belvidere, Ill., April 13-15, on Reunion, Resolved, that we approve of the Basis of Re-union proposed by the Joint Committee, and adopted by the General Assembly at Harrisburg in May, 1868, with the omissions proposed by our Committee on Re-union. And in case the Re-union cannot be effected on this basis, then Resolved, that we would cordially approve of Re-union on the basis of our common standards pure and simple, leaving all matters which have been subjects of negotiation between the two bodies, to be afterwards settled by the United Church; and that the General Assembly be authorized to consummate the union on this basis without referring the subject again to the Presbyteries. Commissioners: Revs. John M'Lean and Josiah Leonard; Elders, C. A. Shaw and Thomas Wilson; Alternates, Revs. E. Marsh and Robert Proctor; Elders, J. H. Rogers and D. Miller.

The churches of Garden Plain and Fulton report powerful revivals. In Fulton especially, a glorious work has been done. Nearly a hundred have already joined the Presbyterian church. This work of grace is a most interesting commentary on re-union. One year ago the two Presbyterian churches which had been struggling for existence many years—receiving foreign aid and making little or no progress, were re-organized into one church.

God has blessed the union by this great gathering which more than doubled their numbers in a single year. Why may not a similar work sweep over the whole land? E. H. A.

The Presbytery of Bloomington met in Washington, Ill., April 13. Cayuga church, a new organization, was taken under the care of Presbytery. The pastoral relation between Rev. C. D. Nott and the Urbana church was dissolved, and Mr. Nott received a letter of dismission to the Presbytery of Lexington. Rev. J. W. Bailey also received a letter of dismission to the Presbytery of Illinois.

Commissioners, Rev. C. H. Palmer and Elder B. E. Miles, Principals; and Rev. A. M. McDougall and Elder L. W. Capen, Alternates, were appointed to the next General Assembly.

As a final action on the subject of Re-union Presbytery adopted the recommendations of our Re-union Committee.

Rev. J. McConnell and Rev. R. McCarthy are now laboring in two of our churches, Pontiac and Wenona; and will be installed within a few months.

Pres. of Coldwater, Mich.—Commissioners to General Assembly: Rev. F. R. Gallagher, D.D., and Mr. J. Albert A. Luce; alternates, Rev. A. G. Martin and Mr. Charles E. Mott. On Re-union, the Basis of the joint committee was adopted last October. At the April meeting, the amendments to that Basis recommended by our half of the Joint Committee were adopted, and the clause added, "or we authorize our commissioners, if they deem it wise and best, to vote for re-union on the simple standard."

Revolutions were reported in the churches of Coldwater, Three Rivers, Reading and Sturgis. Houses of worship are building in Coldwater, Three Rivers and Quincy. A report on the subject of Manses and libraries for ministers, stated that only one church in the Presbytery, viz., Three Rivers, has hitherto made such a provision. The people of Parkville have just bought a house for a minister when the latter can be secured. The Presbytery is to hold an adjourned meeting at Quincy, on Tuesday, the 15th of June, with a view to ordaining Mr. G. B. Barnes.

City Bulletin.

The Sabbath-school of the Central church, N. S. (Coates below Fourth), celebrated their 34th anniversary on last Sabbath afternoon. The church was filled to its utmost capacity; addresses were delivered by Revs. E. J. Pierce and F. A. Hendricks, also by the Pastor, J. Y. Mitchell. Besides singing and reading in concert, into which the children entered with spirit, was the exhibition of idols and heathen curiosities, by the Pastor with appropriate remarks. A beautiful copy of "Christ in Song" and flowers in basket and bouquets were presented to the Pastor, and flowers to the superintendents of the different schools, and the two gentlemen who labored with great success in the musical instruction of the children. The number of scholars in all departments is more than three hundred, while the success of the Mission school, started a few months since, encourages all to believe, that the building of the church edifice, on the site already chosen (N. E. corner of Franklin and Thomson streets), will ensure to the "Old Central," not only a large congregation, but a large and flourishing Sabbath school. The school has recently voted $25 to our own committee of Home Missions, and $25 to that on Church Erection.

The Second Reformed Presbyterian Church at Twenty-second and Callowhill streets, (Rev. Dr. Sterrett, Pastor) has hitherto been regarded as doubtful in regard to the questions raised by Mr. George H. Stuart's suspension. A majority of the Session are inclined to endorse Synod in suspending him, and these have always talked as if they had a majority of the church at their back. OBITUARIES.

To Consumptives. THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

Do not Trifle with Danger. A single spark may kindle a flame that will consume a city, and small ailments neglected, may end in fatal disorders. Bearing this fact in mind, let the first symptoms of debility or nervous prostration be met promptly with invigorating treatment. Foremost among the vegetable tonics of the age stands HOSSETT'S STOMACH BITTERS, and whenever the vital powers seem to languish, or there is any reason to suspect that the animal functions essential to the sustenance and purification of the body are imperfectly performed, this invaluable invigorant and anti-septic should at once be resorted to. Indigestion always produces weakness of the bodily powers. Sometimes it happens that the appetite demands more food than the stomach can digest, though not more, perhaps, than is required to keep up the full strength of the frame. The object, under such circumstances, is to increase the digestive capacity of the assimilating organ, so as to make it equal to the duty imposed upon it by the appetite, and capable of supplying the building material of the system as fast as it is required. This object is fully accomplished by the use of the Bitters. They tone and gently stimulate the cellular membrane which secretes the gastric juice, and the result is that the solvent is mingled with the food in sufficient quantity to convert all its nourishing particles into pure and wholesome elements. If, on the other hand, there is a deficiency of appetite, without any corresponding deficiency of digestive power, the effect of the tonic is to stimulate a desire for food. In nineteen cases out of twenty, headache, nausea, nervousness, fainting, spasms, and, indeed, most of the casual aches and pains to which humanity is subject, proceed primarily from indigestion complicated with biliousness; and for both these complaints HOSSETT'S STOMACH BITTERS is a recommended as a speedy and certain remedy.
