

any previous year .-- The Equal Rights Association (Woman Suffrage) had a stormy time, the women, in the art of turning a public meeting into hopeless uproar and riot, showing themselves fully equal to the men. The rights of men to a fair hearing were ruthlessly trampled on in the person of a Mr. Foster, who was fairly hissed and hooted down by the ladies (?), Miss. Stan-ton being prominent in the business. Mrs. Lucy Stone had a letter from an Old School Presbyterian minister in Kansas, earnestly indorsing the Woman's Rights movement. -A highway robber has just been sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment, at hard labor. -William B. Astor returns an income of $,1,079,212; William W. Cornell, $149,131; H. T. Helmbold, $152,205; W. C. Rhine-lander, $113,057, and James Sampson, $163,-714.

N. Y. State .- Another bad rail on the Long Island road broke, May 14th, and several employees were hurt.—The Legisla-ture adjourned last week. Even the Democratic Governor did good service in holding it in check. Every one of his vetoes appears to have been needed and every one was sustained. The Republicans had a bare majority in the Senate, and that majority was manageable by the usual appliances of corrupt parties and corporations. Thus, at the last moment, New York city was saddled with a Tax levy, about two millions greater than it should have been. Among the items are $3,000 for an Episco-pal Sisterhood of St. Mary; $5,000 each for House of Mercy (H. Potter, Prest.), Asylum of the Sisters of St. Dominic, St. Francis Hospital, St. Joseph's Asylum, and Hebrew Orphan Asylum; $10 000 for Sacred Heart, Manhattanville; $15,000 for the House of the Good Shepherd, where a converted Irish girl is forcibly and falsely detained as of immoral character; $5,000 to Sisters of St. Joseph's church, and $50,000 in a lump to the Sisters of Mercy for a Home for the Destitute Children of Soldiers-about $100,-000 for Roman Catholic, or Anglo-Catholic institutions, against some ten or filteen thousand dollars to other denominations.

Philadelphia .- The semi-annual examination, for Teachers of Public Schools, was held last week. There were 173 applicants. A certificate from the Board of Control is indispensable, under the laws of the State, to the gaining of a position as teacher in the Public Schools.—5,000 cigars packed in a coffin were seized last week for evasion of duty.—Nearly twenty acres of Blockley Alms House farm are to be sold to the Penna. University at $8,000 per acre. It cost the city $170 per acre.—Ten hours pay for eight hours work seems to be the motto of the Navy Yarl workmen here as elsewhere. We hope the President's upright policy will be carried out in this dispute. If the men now in the Navy Yard don't like it, no doubt thousands can be found willing to work according to the simple rule of the pay they get .- It is claimed that the question of a Navy Yard at League Island is
