

Religious Intelligence.

The Reformed Churches.

Ministerial.—The controversy in the Theological Seminary at Danville, Ky., has resulted in the resignation of Rev. Robert J. Breckenridge, D.D., as Professor of Theology.

—The Junior Class in Union Theological Seminary at Hampden Sidney, Va., consists of sixteen, which makes it next to the largest class since the founding of the Institution.

—Hanover, Ind., College has opened with an accession of sixty new students, and the attendance is the largest in eighteen years.

—Fairfield (O. S.) Presbytery, after adopting the overture by a vote 26 to 3 (elders), resolved: "While the Presbytery approves the Basis of Re-union sent down from the General Assembly, we neither affirm nor deny anything in said overture, except what is contained in the question which we answer categorically; and that so far as in us lies, we will labor to promote a union in fact, should one be consummated."

Other Denominations.—The Massachusetts churches, 504 in number, have added eleven and lost four since January 1st, 1868.

—The American Home Missionary Society has sixty dependent churches and over 1,900 missionary districts in its charge.

—The Rev. Dr. J. E. Rankin accepted the call to the First church of Washington, and has begun work by the reception of sixteen new members—six of them on profession.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

were pledged to be secured before the first of October, 1869."

—In the U. P. Theological Seminary, at Mounmouth Ill., there are eighteen students, and more are expected.

—The Junior Class in Union Theological Seminary at Hampden Sidney, Va., consists of sixteen, which makes it next to the largest class since the founding of the Institution.

—Hanover, Ind., College has opened with an accession of sixty new students, and the attendance is the largest in eighteen years.

—Fairfield (O. S.) Presbytery, after adopting the overture by a vote 26 to 3 (elders), resolved: "While the Presbytery approves the Basis of Re-union sent down from the General Assembly, we neither affirm nor deny anything in said overture, except what is contained in the question which we answer categorically; and that so far as in us lies, we will labor to promote a union in fact, should one be consummated."

Other Denominations.—The Massachusetts churches, 504 in number, have added eleven and lost four since January 1st, 1868.

—The American Home Missionary Society has sixty dependent churches and over 1,900 missionary districts in its charge.

—The Rev. Dr. J. E. Rankin accepted the call to the First church of Washington, and has begun work by the reception of sixteen new members—six of them on profession.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

—The churches of Illinois—according to the minutes of the General Association, the reports in which, The Advance says are "of the imperfect sort too common with Church officers"—number 235.

action of the railroad companies, and appointed a committee to bring this protest before the several boards of railroad directors whose trains traverse the State.

Episcopalian.—Bishop Huntingdon, of Central New York, has organized his diocese into six missionary districts, with two missionaries for each.

—The Episcopalians are manifesting wisdom by busily pushing home missionary enterprises along the line of the Pacific Railroad.

—The Bishop of Connecticut instructs The Churchman to omit from its diocesan news all compliments to himself or his services.

—The corner-stone of a college building was laid at Golden City, Colorado, the 23d ult., by Bishop Randall.

—The Pittsburgh diocese has 3,012 communicants, 3,040 Sunday-school scholars, raises for parochial uses, $77,998, and for benevolence, $20,457.

—A movement is on foot to organize a colored church in Allegheny city, by the Rev. B. T. Brooke, rector of Christ church.

—Bishop of Iowa, takes decided ground in favor of moderate changes in the prayer-book, for the benefit of those whose consciences are troubled by certain expressions.

—The Wisconsin Diocese has 5,580 communicants, 4,343 Sunday school pupils, and raises for parochial uses, $90,777, and for benevolent purposes, $15,919.

—Rev. Dr. Hoyt, in Dakota territory, has collected $2,500 towards the establishment of a first-class school at Yankton.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

—The Danes and Norwegians who withdrew from the Augustana Synod, now composed principally of Swedes, have laid the foundation of a new literary and theological institution at Marshall, Wis.

the ground. Trevor Hall, the new dormitory building, besides affording ample accommodation for the students, gives the lecture rooms, library and chapel a temporary home.

—The Southern Seminary, at Greenville, S. C., has 47 students this year, as compared with 26 last year.

—A church in Chicago, Rev. E. J. Goodspeed, pastor, has grown from a membership of two hundred to two thousand, and has the largest Sunday-school in that city.

—The Home Mission Board are asking the churches for at least seventy five thousand dollars this year, for the purpose of training young colored men among them, for the South, for preachers, teachers and leaders.

Moravian.—The statistics just published show 14,871 communicants, of whom 4,895 are in Germany, 3,208 in Great Britain, and 6,767 in North America.

—George Frederic Bahnsen, a Bishop of this Church, died at Salem, on Saturday, the 11th ult., in the sixty-fourth year of his age.

Lutheran.—The statistics of the General Synod (Low church) are as follows: Ministers 691. Congregations 997. Infant Baptisms 7,727. Adult Baptisms 1,831. Confirmations 6,409.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

—The Kirchenfreund protests against Dr. M. L. Ströver's accepting the call to Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and advises Dr. Ströver to remain with the General Synod's College at Gettysburg, because the Low Church Lutherans need the influence of so conservative a spirit there.

HOME Life Insurance Co., MUTUAL. 254 Broadway, New York. ASSETS, $2,000,000. Assured Members, 10,000.

ADVANTAGES OF THE HOME. Its Organization is strictly first class, inferior to no other Company. It is a Mutual Company, all the net profits go to the assured.

AMERICAN Life Insurance Company OF PHILADELPHIA. S. E. Corner Fourth and Walnut Streets. Organized, 1850. Income, 1868, $1,118,530 20.

FRANKLIN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA. OFFICE—435 and 437 Chestnut St. Assets on Jan. 1, 1869, $2,677,372 13.

J. & F. CADMUS' NEW STORE, No. 918 MARKET STREET, LATE OF Eighth and Market Streets, Philadelphia. WE would respectfully announce that we have REMOVED to the above store.

STRICT ECONOMY IN MANAGEMENT. PROVIDENT LIFE & TRUST COMPANY. OFFICE NO. 111 S. FOURTH STREET. Organized to extend the benefits of Life Insurance among members of the Society of Friends.

W.M. CHRISTY, Blank Book Manufacturer, STATIONER AND PRINTER, 127 South Third Street. LEADERS. CASH BOOKS. DAY BOOKS. JOURNALS, &c.

GYMNASIUM, Cor. Ninth and Arch-streets, F. L. LEWIS, PROFESSOR. ESTEY'S GOTTAGE ORGANS. WITH THE JUBILANTE!

Frederick Female Seminary, FREDERICK, MD., Possessing full Collegiate Power, will commence its TWENTY-SEVENTH SCHOLASTIC YEAR, The First Monday in September.

Spring Garden Institute for Young Ladies. A school for thorough training in Philadelphia, situated most favorably in the city, yet secluded from its busy and noisy thoroughfares.

WYERS' SCIENTIFIC & CLASSICAL INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG MEN AND BOYS. West Chester Pa. THE scholastic year of 40 weeks commences on WEDNESDAY, September 1, 1869, and closes June 24, 1870.

ELMIRA FEMALE COLLEGE UNDER CARE OF THE SYNOD OF GENEVA. This is a Christian Home, and a fully chartered and organized College, where young ladies may pursue a most thorough and extensive course of study.

Family School. THE Rev. Mr. Hood, formerly Principal of the Chester Female Seminary, will open SEPTEMBER 8th, a Day-School for girls at Chester, Pa. He also receives four Misses into his family, where the best care and instruction will be given in English, Music, Drawing, and Languages.

SAMUEL WORK, Banker & Broker, No. 121 South Third Street, Phila. Government Securities, Gold, Bank, Railroad and other Stocks and Loans Bought and Sold on Commission.

DREKA. Importer and Retail Dealer in FINE STATIONERY. WEDDING, VISITING, INVITATION AND BUSINESS CARD ENGRAVING, Arms, Monograms, Illuminating, &c.

Wm. G. Hargis, Paper Hanging & Window Shade WAREHOUSE, No. 936 Arch Street, PHILADELPHIA.