

Bowling

By Brownlie

By Brownlie

In the fifth week of Behrend's Bowling league, Al Liebau was high for the day with a 572 series. His high was a smashing 202. Dick Collman had the high single, an excellent 210 game. Jean Keinath and Jeanne Kimble were voted the ones most likely to throw the ball in the gutter.

Lunk Head Pearce was high in that department with a 465 three game total. Right-handed, left-sided Tom changed to right handed, right sided Tom.

The Ravens took three games from the now lowly Eagles. Dick Collman and Don Beal were the powers for the Ravens. Liebau and Harry Schiemer were again high for the Eagles while Shirley Linder had not too much trouble finding the gutters.

In three very tight games, the Owls finally managed to take the hard-plugging Robins, two games to one. Jim Mullard had a 175-451 series for the Owls. John Korn had a steady 422 series for the Robins. Dunk Zimmerman, trying to help Marvin (change of pace) Marcus, shouted out, "Come on Marve, strike out." Marvin came back with "What do you think I am, an exhibitionist?"

The Hawks, with not too much trouble, took the Loons three for three. Captain Uncle Dave of the winners had a "fair" 191-542 series. If I couldn't do better than that I'd quit. By the way, would anyone care to play ping-pong with me next Thursday afternoon from four til six? Mr. Gottlund also had a very nice 406 series. The two "R's" were again high for the Loons. Sturge told me the only reason Ray Reed didn't have a "600" series was because he had "cold-conked" a pin-boy the day before and had to slow down his delivery.

The Penguins with Mr. Demp and Mr. Henzi bringing them in, took over the Flamings, two games to one. Mr. Henzi just made it with a 510 three game total. Ken McDannel was top man for the Flamings with 399, while Ed Kittka was "on his back" with a 392 series. Chuck Eckert and Judy Thomas were still "close together" with 321 and 322 respectively.

The Ducks took the Pelicans over two games to one. Ray Metz was high man for the Ducks with 481, while Bob Betts and Bill Hill had 378 and 363 respectively for the Pelicans. Betty Lou Dahlinger told me that she had a 243. She neglected to tell me that it was for three games.

The Larks had little trouble taking over the Cardinals in three

Nationally Known George Harvey Teaches Fly-Tying

An announcement that should interest all trout fishermen and Isaac Waltons in the Erie city and county area, came from Erie Behrend Center of the Pennsylvania State College recently.

T. Reed Ferguson, administrative head of the Center, released the news that George Harvey, instructor in Penn State's school of physical education and athletics, and nationally known trout fisherman, will teach a special course in fly tying and fly casting at the school beginning tomorrow, March 17.

The course which was formally approved by the College only a few years ago, will be offered for the first time in this part of the state. Similar courses have been held by Harvey in recent years in extensions at Latrobe, Pa., and Greensburg, Pa., as well as on the main State College campus.

In mentioning that registrations for the courses are now being accepted, Mr. Ferguson emphasized the point that the course is limited to 30 persons.

"George feels that he can best meet the needs of the class by giving each member personal instruction only when the group is limited to thirty in number," the Behrend head added.

The class will meet on consecutive Thursdays for six weeks beginning on March 17 and continuing through April 21. It is an evening section, meeting from 7 to 10 p. m. and is scheduled to satisfy the needs of those who are interested in fly tying and fishing.

The complete course—six consecutive weeks, one night per week—will cost each student only nine dollars, and for those who have no kit or who want to purchase a complete fly tying kit, there will be new outfits available at six dollars.

Instructor George Harvey is widely known as a fisherman. He has been fishing for 30 years, and tying flies for 25 years.

His course on the State College campus has even attracted national attention and was pictured in a recent edition of LIFE magazine.

All interested persons who are not able to get out to Behrend Center on Station Road above Wesleyville soon in order to register should call Mr. Ferguson at 83-101 or Arthur Shields, Center botany instructor, at 83-450.

straight games. Faulkner had a high 449 for the Larks while Monahan was close behind with 435. Adele Gabin continued on her high scoring ways with a 437 series. Dick Taylor is to be congratulated for his steady improvement.

With the addition of the new bowlers the league seems to be much closer. Much fun is had by all despite Mr. Demp's and Mr. Thurbon's new hats.

SPORTS

... at a ...

GLANCE

By Bob Gallagher

The Behrend floor team really started off with a bang with their 59-26 win over Bradford. Al Liebau, the newly elected captain, along with lanky Ray Reed played very well under both baskets while Jim Mullard was the "Big gun" in the scoring column. Benny Beniard also worked well on the offense with his corner push-shots. The shot of the night however was Tom Pearce's "set" from the center of the floor. I don't think it even touched the net. Willy Shortt and Gibb Brownlie worked smoothly together at the officials' bench. Honesty pays, you know!

Erie Cathedral Prep, the north-western PCTAA representative, was defeated by Central Catholic of Pittsburgh, 45-39 in the first round of the state championship play-offs. Central then defeated Johnstown 46-30 which qualifies them to compete in the finals to be held in Philadelphia sometime next week.

Did you notice the baggy eyes and crestfallen looks on John Pagonis, Frank Thompson, and Don Mallick last week? It's a rare disease called "lack of ping-pong-itis" or "open the Rec Hall, Mr. Ferguson, or we'll die of inactivity."

Rumor has it that Miss Painter coaches a hot girls' basketball team. A few from the fair and fragile tell me that they would relish a contest with the "brutes" with women's rules prevailing. Is that you moaning, Mr. Demp?

Sturge Entertains While Baby Sleeps

The evening of Saturday, March 5, some of the non-roller-skaters of Behrend Center gathered at the home of Ray Sturguleskie's brother, where Ray was baby sitting.

The party was very informal, some of the guests removed their shoes. Among those expressing "hillbilly" tendencies were Ray Reed and Georgianne Fisher.

Ray Reed found the floor more to his fancy than the chairs, but he also found that lying flat on his back on the floor made it impossible to reach the pretzels. From the other side of the room, Allen Liebau came to Ray's rescue by tossing pretzels over Ray's fingers. With Al ringing and Ray eating, this merry game continued until the pretzels were gone.

"Sturge" and his harmonica furnished the musical events of the evening by playing several songs requested by the guests. "Parlor games" were also played.

Bill Klaban caused Joan Baudino a deal of embarrassment when he forgot one small detail. Ask either one of them about that little detail!

Upstairs, Sturge's baby nephew slept undisturbed by the merry making.

Those present were Allen Liebau and Betty Lou Volk, Bill Klaban and Mary Hough, Ray Reed and Georgianne Fisher, Bill Richards and Marilyn Garden, Benny Beni-

Korny Korner

Phillip: I wonder if fishes grow fast?

Ray: They must. My pop caught one last year that grows an inch every time he talks about it.

Brain: Why can't you hang a man with a wooden leg?

Wave: Because you have to use a rope.

Spring is sprung
Autumn's fell.
Winter's here
Cold as—usual.

Teacher: Conjugate the verb "to swim".

Ambitious Student: swim, swam, swim.

Teacher: Now conjugate the verb "to dim".

Student: You aren't trying to kid me, are you?

Wanted: Absent-minded professor to lecture to his steaks and cut all his classes.

Diner: Waiter, there's a twig in my soup.

Waiter: I wouldn't be surprised. We have branches all over the city!

SLIP

Barber shave
Man sneeze
Man died
Next please.

Last night I held a lovely hand; A hand so soft and neat; I thought my heart would burst with joy.

So wildly did it beat. No other hand unto my heart Such utter bliss could bring; Than the hand I held last night—Four Aces and a King.

ard and Nona Ottaway, William Shortt and Sal Dickson, John Speirling and Cynthia Loesel, Jim Mullard and Mary Devine, Don Blair and Joan Baudino, Janet Brown, and of course, Ray the host.

Sports Dept.

PALACE HARDWARE HOUSE
913-915 State Street
ERIE, PA.

BERRY'S Bowling Lanes

1026 French St.
and 130 West 10th St.

"BOWLING AT ITS BEST"

ROLLER SKATE

at the

12th St. Skating Rink

Eve.—Tues., Thurs., Fri., Sat., and Sun., 8 to 11
Mat.—Tues., Thurs. and Sun. 2 to 4:30

Cubs Down Dravosburg, 56-36

Behrend Center's basketball-wise Cubs rolled to their second victory in two starts last Saturday night in the Lawrence Park High gymnasium when they defeated a scrappy Dravosburg Center team by 56-36.

Coach Marv Demp's charges, led by Al "Laughing Boy" Liebau, who hit the nets for 20 points, displayed a well-rounded club.

Supporting Liebau were Tom Pearce and Ray Reed with clean cut floor work and passing ability, and rounding out the five were "Big Jim" Mullard and "Rapid Robert" Gallagher, who kept the boards well under control during most of the evening's play.

"Moon" Black, specializing in one hand push shot from half way out, led the Dravosburg basket-tees with 15 markers, dropping in 7 field goals and one foul. Hank Rakowski gave added sport for the Behrend opponents with an eight point total.

Although the scoreboard showed only 8 to 4 at the end of the first quarter, Behrend height and general floor work gave it the winning margin as the locals slowly, but gradually forged their second triumph. "Tiny" Rakowski was the only Dravosburg man to tower over all the Cubs individually, and that literally, as he boasts a height of 6 ft. 5 in.

Following are the game's statistics:

Behrend
	G	F	T
Reed	1	1	3
McDannell	0	0	0
Chesley	0	0	0
Dravosburg
Lee	3	1	7
Schorr	0	0	0
Stephan	1	1	3
Behrend
Gallagher	7	0	14
Gourley	0	0	0
Beniard	0	1	1
Mullard	4	1	9
Liebau	9	2	20
Baker	0	1	1
Pearce	2	2	6
Dravosburg
Brennen	0	0	0
Rakowski	2	4	8
Brinker	0	0	0
Black	0	0	0
Referees: Ott Wuenschel, Al Waggoner.

NORB NIETHAMER COLLEGE INN

3450 Glenwood Park Avenue

FAMOUS FOR OUR CHICKEN

The Harbor

MEALS AND DINNERS

Ice Cream
Soda Bar
Dancing

C. E. Reichart
Harborecreek