Flash! Ray Sturgeluski hits 238! Flash! Ray Sturgeluski hits 238! Yes, it was an eventful day, that last Thursday that the bowling league rolled. Despite his terrific 238 game and his 538 series, "Sturg" didn't have the high individual series of the day. That honor once again went to "Laughing Boy" Al Liebau with a 548 series and a 205 game—that is getting to be a habit with him. Ray Reed really let go, despite warnings of a few weeks ago to slow down, and slammed out a 191-525 series. Despite forgetting his hat, "Uncle Dave" Thurbon banged out his usual "fair" 191-507 series. Wish I could do "fair" once in a while like that.

High team game honors went to the Loons in the game in which Sturg and Reed went wild-732. Losing the first one, the Loons took the last two from the Eagles despite the valiant efforts of Liebau and Scheimer 173-477.

Losing the first game by one pin, the lowly Penquins, led by Belferman's 183-469 series and "Pappy" Demp's 161-469, came back to win the next two from the Robins. Korn was high man for the Ravens with 181-514 series. This game featured the return of Dick McCreary, and a nice return it was too, to the league with a 173-482 series. Welcome back Dick!

Each team bowling with only four men, the Owls easily walloped the Ducks three games. Mullard's 449 and Tucker's 412 series were high for the winners.

Volleyball Makes Intra-Sports Debut

With Intramural basketball now a memory, athletic heads turn to a more springy game—namely volleyball.

Practices have already begun and team organizations are under way. Games will be held in the Lawrence Park gym, as are the practice sessions. The first night brought out twenty men illustrating typical enthusiasm. Next Wednesday (and every Wednesday) evening at least twice that number are expected to make appearance on the hardwoods. Coach Demp hopes to organize Volleyball as well as basketball turned out to supplement B. C.'s growing Athletic Activity list.

Turning to the softball diamonds, no definite plans have been laid but if weather conditions permit, softball will probably make an official intra-mural debut to the Glen Hills Farm Campus.

The major difficulty seems to be the lack of a diamond or immediate prospective diamond on campus to "State" plans to set up a really fine diamond for future years. Chances are slim, reports M. Demp that a diamond will be set up for this year. Softball will no doubt be among B. C.'s spring Next Column the Pelicans, with Monahan and Hill driving, rolled over the Hawks for two games. Hill and Monahan each had a steady 449 series, while Betty Lou Dahlinger had less trouble than usual keeping the ball out of the gutters. Thurbon's 507 series was high for the Hawks.

Despite the absence of Chuck Ekerts' inspiration, the Flamingos took two games from the Cardinals. Butsch had a 421 series to make himself high man for the winners, while Pearce's fast 180-487 was high for the Cardinals.

The Ravens went wild to steam roller over the Larks in all three games. Johnson's 480, Beal's 475, Longnecker's 467, Stark's 460, and Holmstrom's 244 (How did she get in there?) comprised the Raven's attack. Nice rolling kids! Dick Colman's 373, was a slump from his high antics of last week, but never the less high for the Larks.

The largest slice of luck of the afternoon came in the battle between the Ravens and the Larks when Dorothy Holmstrom picked up a 4-7-10 split. Aw, some people are just born lucky!

SPORTS GLANCE

By Bob Gallagher

With the end of the basketball season in sight, Mr. Demp is forming an intramural volley ball league. In all probability, the league will consist of four teams that will vie for champ honors at Lawrence Park High School each Wednesday evening from seven-thirty until ten.

On the basketball side of the picture, Al Liebau was the star of the night, as the Cubs licked the Dravosburg five, 56 to 36. Al was high man for the victors with a big 20 point total. "Moon" Black was high point man for the losing five with 15 tallies. Behrend will probably close the season with a trip to Dravosburg, which is situated some ten miles east of Pittsburgh, near McKeesport.

I noticed the baseball gloves and balls coming out of hiding with the appearance of those two nice days last week. It won't be long now.

Don't mind the glass in your sulfuric acid, Mr. Balmer, just chalk it up to Mr. Gottlund's "accurate" drives through the windows of the Chem Lab. Don Blair is also to be congratulated for his unerring swings. Who else could drive a golf ball in a fork of a tree and have it stick there?

sports but it is doubtful if an organized league will take shape before the season of 1950.

On the wrestling scene several old faithfuls report each Saturday for the grappling league. Top men in the heavy-weights appear in the personage of Joe Renowitz and Dick Heskith while Jack, and "Red" Hamilton hold the lighter-weight brackets. Also outstanding are Tom Tucker and Dave Johnson. New faces appear every Saturday and among them, some promising muscle-men. Latest arrivals are Bill Richards, Lloyd McGough, and Jerry Musser. The league will probably break up come nice weather. So if you're planning to do any wrestling, hustle down to the Lawrence Park Gym next Saturday morn.

Cubs Have Successful Season

Pirate Treasure

By Penny O'Neill

As the winter winds begin to leave the cracks and corners of Behrend Center, you can smell spring just around the corner and it is said that in spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love, and might I add baseball.

And speaking of baseball, which everyone is doing these days, let us speak of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Since so many of the fellows and girls are from Pittsburgh and since a lot of the Erie people came down to see a few of the games, I decided to take a poll to see who was the most popular player on the team.

Well, I asked millions and millions of people, and, yes, I supposed you already guessed it... It was Ralph Kiner, popular home-run hitter and left fielder for the Bucs. Although he was named the top notch player of the team, quite a few other people expressed their opinions about some of the other players.

gave that little extra push when the latter jumped off the toboggan and the former kept right on going through the ice on the swimming pool. You're all wet, Mr. Ferguson!
