

STRIKES - and - SPARES

The B. C. bowling league has been progressing in spite of the "lousy" driving weather.

Dot Maxwell hit a new high game of 145. Good work, Dot, keep up the Falcons' average. Speaking of the Falcons, tension was high between the Gulls and the afore mentioned on the third game. After the loss of two games, the Gulls were after blood, and believe it or not, they got it! After a tight ten frames, the Falcons admitted defeat by ten pins.

Wonder of Wonders!! The Dodos' finally won two games. Don Lynch helped by bowling his new high of 208. What a happy event! Larry Arduini honored the alleys with his presence this past Monday. Stupendous, eh what? "Uncle Dave" swung back on top— sounds fishy to me. Willy Storer, in a fit of anger for missing a spare, kicked the ball rack, and now must serve as a pin for a month.

Keep up the good work, B. C. Bowlers. Who knows, soon we may hit the big time league.

Compy's Cuties

With the arrival of the basketball season, the Behrend girls' team played their first game against the Holy Trinity girls' team on Saturday, December 6, at 7:00. Although the Center's girls lost 33-13, they've finally been able to see how well they can work together in actual competition. Jan Jackson, Char Flack, Bobby Johnson, Pat Stocker, Nancy Johnston, May Schoch, Ardelle Johnson and Jo Haumesser represent the female cage squad this year.

"Boy, I can't move," and "Oh, am I stiff", have been the favorite expressions of Compy's Cuties since the beginning of the exercise courses last September. Oh, well, just think of the perfect shapes the campus will be blessed with by the time spring rolls around.

In just one or two more weeks, those long awaited gym suits will arrive. With all the girls wearing blue shorts and white shirts, Compy will have quite a time telling the girls apart, if they stand with their backs to her.

If you happen to look into the gym someday and see the girls hopping around on one foot or skipping up and down, they are only doing the newest thing—the relay race.

Did you hear about the big bump when Marilyn DeMarsh hit the gym floor? She really got a bang out of that. Also Donna Cramer and Bobby Johnson have been suffering from the strange malady of sprained ankles. Never can tell what'll happen next in that gym class.

Our Gal Sal -

In case you didn't know, Behrend Center has a new kind of athlete to add to the world of sports—the acrobatic dancer. Sally Stauffer, a five-foot, blue-eyed, brunette, teaches acrobatic dancing at the Catherine Little Dance Studio in Erie.

Sally has already gathered many admiring television fans who have seen her dance on the Music Room television program in Erie. A freshman at Behrend Center, she is majoring in Arts and Letters.

Behrend Hoopsters Move Into Action

Last Saturday night, the Behrend Center Basketball team played their second game of the current season against the Altoona Center. The team lost by a score of 72 to 43, bringing their standing to one win and one loss.

The varsity cage squad has a total of twelve members, who can be seen almost everyday practicing their sidarm tosses and foul shots. Tom Vieira, Ron Cionco, Jim Seybolt, Jim Lay, Bob Yeager, Joe Schmitt, Bob Heater, Jack Mallory, Jim Chappel, Cliff Merchant, Don Heidt, and Gerry Platz represent Behrend on home and foreign courts.

Schedule for the season is as follows:

Friday, Dec. 10— Edinboro frosh, home, 8:00 p. m.

Saturday, Dec. 11— Jamestown Community College, away, 8:00 p. m.

Saturday, Jan. 8— Alliance frosh, home, 8:00 p. m.

Friday, Jan. 14— Altoona frosh, away, 8:00 p. m.

Friday, Jan. 28— Edinboro frosh, away, 7:00 p. m.

Saturday, Feb. 12— Allegheny frosh, away, 3:00 p. m.

Tuesday, Feb. 15— Alliance frosh, away, 3:00 p. m.

Saturday, Feb. 19— Allegheny frosh, home, 3:00 p. m.

Saturday, Feb. 26— Jamestown frosh, home, 8:00 p. m.

Mr. Simons, men's phys. ed. instructor would like to express his sincere admiration for the fine job the cheerleaders are doing for the team. A little more support for the team by the students would certainly be appreciated.
