

Judy Young—Versatile Coed

One of the most versatile and vivacious girls on Behrend's campus is Judy Young, from Ridgway, Pennsylvania. This eighteen-year-old miss has so many interests and talents, it's hard to keep up with her.

Judy loves horses and finds time to ride despite her schedule of other activities. She owned two horses at the age of twelve, and sold them at sixteen. She has given riding lessons, and has worked many times for other horse owners, exercising their horses.

Judy is also a golf expert, winning the Elk County Country Club Championship in Ridgway this year. Her ambition is to either become a professional golfer or teach the sport. She practices her golf by "putting" in her room or practicing her "swing" in the orchard. She is determined to hit a perfect seventy, her score so far being a forty-five, for nine holes.

The Young family is athletically inclined; Judy's parents and her twelve-year-old brother, John, all play golf.

Being an out-door girl, Judy is fascinated by plants and animals. You probably remember "Iggy" the pet chipmunk who, after being rescued from the pool, had a pleasant stay in the dorm. It was through Judy's conscientious care that Iggy was restored to health and liveliness, with bits of apples, greens, and even acorns which our girl Friday collected personally.

Besides the argyles which Judy is knitting, her number one project at the moment is the gathering and planting of various seeds, which she hopes will germinate and grow, under her supervision. In her leisure hours, you may perhaps find Judy simply relaxing in the woods, deeply absorbed in her Spanish book. In the Liberal Arts curriculum, she is planning to major in Spanish.

Judy also paints, free-hand, in oils, and won a prize for her painting of a beautiful spotted horse. The prize-winner hangs on the dorm wall for all to see.

Judy's sense of fairplay and friendliness on the campus makes her one of the most popular girls at Behrend. Keep your eye on Judy Young - - this girl is really going places!

Clinically Speaking

By Tom Finfrock

The Speech Clinic gang has taken up some extra curricular activities lately. Busy in euchre sessions have been: Mary Lou Womer, Paul Patzhe, Tom Finfrock, Mary Jane Courtright, Pat Peck, and Shirley Hicks.

Trying their big business deals in the new game, "Finance", the fellows spend their nights trying to outwit each other. This game has taken the place of "Monopoly," an old favorite. The boys playing are: Mel Fisher, Don Detar, Mike Sandrocks, Art Kreider, George Yrcan, and Bob Baker.

It seems that Shirley Hicks is still the Speech Clinic's top bowler. Come on, fellows, better get on the ball.

Patty Peck took a trip to Notre Dame for a big dance. Word has gotten around that she had a wonderful time and is willing to go back any time.

'ROUND THE TOWN

Honey Greenlee is sweeping off to Edinboro for its Homecoming this week end, we hear. Have fun, Honey!

And Bill Schweitzer, that busy man about the Behrend bowling alleys, is going home for the same week end; home to mother, he says, but Chenne claims Bill feels he needs a rest from all these Behrend Center coeds. How about it, Bill?

Phyliss Stadler played good Samaritan recently and entertained a group of dorm girls at her house. Poor Mrs. Stadler, after that crew left!

We noticed that Gib Keinath hasn't worn his Varsity Club jacket lately. How come, Gibby? Anyhow, you looked smooth in that light cream job during Homecoming, old boy.

Does Jason Eades really turn in earlier at the O.V.H.? Well, it's a good question anyhow.

Plenty of Center students seem to commute to good old Behrend, among them such stalwarts as Bob Altzman, Don Dickinson, Larry Curtis, Raleigh Chesley, Don Blair, Ed Gabriel, June Krebs, Roy Lytle, Don Lynch, Pat Locke, Gil Nielsen, Pete Michael, Jack Roberts, Bob Renshaw, and various others.

Probably one of the most active town students is Genial Gene Thomas. In addition to being a member of the men's basketball varsity, an aggressive ping pong player, and general friendly conversationalist, he adds his voice to the school's chorus. More power to you, Gene.

Dorm Chatter

What's this about Donna Tokar walking into the dance with TWO men? Which one is it Donna, "Casey" Brzozowski or Dick Mytinger?

I understand that The Big Jack Mallory has been rushing our Barbara Bell and Becky Wilson.

HUMMMMMM, Nancy Newman's still writing to her Blainey Boy, but who was this boy that she came to the dance with?

Connie Taylor was thrown in the shower a few days ago, so we hear. Could it be that she gathered some of the girls to go to Mr. Hover's Chorus Practice, and she got that treatment?

Laurie Brutout has been receiving many phone calls from a certain Sylvester.

Have you heard Gretchen Muth has been talking in her sleep? We have been finding out all kinds of secrets from her!

Boy, Linda Hamer sure can pick them out. Who was that cute date? Sally Gardner has a big line of girls in front of her dresser everyday. Could it be that they want to use her smell well? It's Bluegrass boys.

Sylvia Kunkle states that she is still in love with the boy back home.

Beverly Stiver's little Bob came all the way of 200 miles to see his sweetie, and she says that she fought with him all the time. Isn't love grand?

Do you know that La La got 33 letters from her Bill in 42 days??

Harriet Szatkowski has been writing little notes to Bob Yeager in Howie Tinsman's letters from Marilyn Buchanich. What's up Harriet?

Did you see what happened to Anita Format's car? She says it's a bit damp at times.

Our Bob Furucker is seeing our little doll, Sue Hansen. Ace! ! !

The cute, vivacious Jane McGeary is always in trouble; she complains she has no men - - - hear that?

Annette Agner is taking a trip to N. D. this weekend to see her Paul.
