

STRIKES and SPARES

I s'pose that you've all read "Chenne" by now and are all shook up over the various and sundry slams dished out to "qualified" fly-by-nighters. Assuming this to be the case, I can safely say that you don't care what statistics appear in this column. Therefore, I won't be too particular about what I put in this record (??). If you read anything that you don't think is particularly accurate or relevant to bowling, be sure and jump all over Bill Scheitzer as he is responsible for ALL bowling activities.

New bowling schedules were posted October 17 in an effort to make participation in bowling leagues available to all the students who were interested in league competition. As you well know by now, the new bowling schedules, provide for two separate leagues: 1) the 5:15 and 2) the 7:00 league. The winners of the two leagues will have a match game at the end of the schedule - about mid-December. The winning team of this match will be undisputed bowling champs of this glorious concentration of idiots. This new bowling league setup is being closely scrutinized by that powerful group: the bowling committee consisting of Dedad and company. Their object is to schedule the bowling so it will be of greatest convenience to the majority. I've heard one complaint already: the dorm girls claim that they don't have no money much any more. (This is a scheduling problem (??). See Pete Dedad girls. Incidentally troops, it is our obligation as participating bowlers to inform our respective team captains when it is impossible to show up for league competition. Let's face it - anyone that doesn't is an outcast from the brotherhood of man and is transgressing against the moral obligations instilled in them by dear old mother. Looking over the team attendance records, points out the fact that Mytinger, McCarthy, Caruana, Schwutzer, Dedad, Bainbridge, Liebau, Kolpien, McKenzie, Cull, Loell, Legencoff, Schoch, Jackson, Hicks, Harris, Fitzgerald, Chesley, Hill, Hawkins, Purucker, Greenlee, Bauer, Thompson, McCallion, Finck, Weed, Smith, Stiver, Peck, and Taylor are showing 100% attendance which is certainly commendable and reflects their interest in bowling. The rest of us have been transgressing against the moral standards of dear old mother.

Right about here I intended to give you the latest on the team standings, but . . . it seems that Alice Darwin and Nancy Hendershot, secretaries, have run off into town (goodness knows where) with the latest bowling sheets. Of the remaining records available here at the fort, it is to be noted that the following teams are still undefeated: Falcons, Clowns, Knights, Beginners, Dormettes, and The Eagles. However, rather than have the foregoing rave about how good they are I suggest that you check the current team standings posted (supposedly) on the bulletin boards in Erie Hall and in the barn.

The high individual games rolled by Behrend men are: Thurbon 229, Caruana 205, and Liebau 200. The high (?) women are Hicks 157, Darwin 150, and Hill with 130. The high averages are: Thurbon 174, Caruana 168, Sweitzer 164, Dedad 162, Bainbridge 161, Liebau 161, and Gormall 161 also. Let's give them a little competition troops.

Open bowling takes place Monday thru Thursday at 3:10. One of the following men have charge of the alleys during open bowling periods. Be sure and check with them before attempting to use the alley. The afore mentioned wheels are: Loell, Keinath, Beardsly, Adler, and Harris.

Compy's Cuties

One, two, stretch; three, four, bend' . . . Dressed in their new blue shorts and white blouses, the girls in Mrs. Comstock's gym classes are exercising vigorously. Even the gym monitors, who are denied the privilege of engaging in basketball and field hockey, are not exempt from these calisthenics.

All this is a part of Compy's master plan to improve the scenery of Behrend. She has divided her classes into three groups: underweights, overweights, and those who just want to do some "re-arranging." The girls have weighed in, and "Operations Pounds" has begun. Mr. Campbell is aiding the project by arranging special diet meals for the dormitory girls.

Take a good look around the campus the week after Thanksgiving and you'll probably notice that there are just as many underweights and overweights as before, but they will be different girls.

Athletic Tourney Well Under Way

Although basketball is claiming most of the attention around the Center these days, table tennis and horseshoe tourneys are also keeping some of the men students busy during their out-of-class hours.

Still in the table tennis matches arranged by Mr. Simon, men's physical education director, are Walt Mitronovas, John Kolpien, Don Blair, Gene Thomas, Don Godfrey, Walt Shank, Gerry Platz, and Paul Fantaste.

Barnyard golf, better known as horseshoes, is claiming some at-

SPORT SCOPE

Saturday, Oct. 22, the annual Alumni basketball game was played. The returning alumni fought a hard game and came out victorious by a score of 27 to 21. The boys that came for the game were Joe Schmitt, Tom Vieira, Cliff Merchant, Jim Seyholdt, Bob Yeager, Joe Benacci, Bob Brandt, and Ron Cianco.

Behrend Center's team is composed of Frank Simon, Hugh McShane, Mel Melzer, Gene Thomas, Lee Helmer, Bart Bartlett, Jerry Buzza, Jim Courtney, Herb Herbst, and Clark Jamison.

Bob Yeager and Joe Benacci took scoring honors for the alumni with Schmitt, Seyboldt, and Gehrlin having 4 points apiece. Cianco broke into the scoring with 3 points to his credit.

Frank Simon took the scoring honors of the day by sinking 3 field goals and 3 fouls for a total of 9 points. Jamison and Helmer came through with 4 points apiece while Courtney sank a field goal for 2 points.

It was a good game with plenty of thrills and much entertainment for all who attended.

The girls' basketball game was played before the boys' game. This time Behrend came through with a victory. With the score tied at 10 to 10 and only a few seconds left, Judy Young got the ball and put in the winning two points that clinched the game for Behrend. The crowd went wild.

The girls that participated in the game were: Judy Young, Sue Hansen, Barbara Bell, Marilyn Pringle, Laurie Hill, La La Terlizzi, Anne Pagel, Dot Blazer, Pat Stocker, Marge Elliot, Donna Cramer, Nancy Johnston, Fran Nielson, and Norma Michael.

The touch football league is down to the play off game between the Aces and the Stars. The Rams were eliminated by the Stars last week, 7 to 0. The Aces defeated the Stars 12 to 6 a week ago to get into the play-off game.

Wandering through the rec hall one day, I noticed Bob Altsman and Bill Schweitzer playing ping pong, and I also noticed that Altsman was steaming mad about something, so I stopped to watch. There was Bill, beating Altsman at his own game. Bill was slamming everything Bob put over the net, and everything Bill hit back would either hit the net and plop over or hit an edge and careen madly off in any direction. All of you ping pong fiends, beware when Schweitzer is your opponent. And, Bob you've heard the old saying, "Better days are coming."

Winner of first round matches or the lucky holders of byes are Dennis Polatas, Jim Courtney, Ross Caruana, Chuck Dangelo, Dave Hawkins, Frank Simon, Hugh McShane, and John Kolpien.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The following are the officers of the Photography Club: Frank Schiller, president, and Beverly Stiver, secretary-treasurer. At the first meeting the club drew up a constitution, and the present time the members are learning how to develop film. For a Christmas project they are planning to make and sell Christmas cards.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, at its last meeting, voted on subscribing to Life, Saturday Evening Post, and Sports for the student lounge. They also decided to have an official office which will be in the Administration
