+ Compy's Cuties +

By Kay Spanbauer

For you, reader, (just in case you don't know what a real, live Compy Cutie is) a vague definition has been composed in your behalf. A Compy Cutie is the female of the species who takes physical education at Behrend Center. She knows that in order to chase boys effectively, she must be in top physical condition. A Compy Cutie is extremely cautious, especially about such things as entering the "Bare End" shower room. She is also very considerate of her boyfriend's ego when playing ping-pong, and never defeats her male opponent by more than twenty-one points. A Compy Cutie is most easily identified by her blue shorts, her cheerful nature and ready smile, her dislike of exercise 14, her love of basketball, her shaply legs, her deformities resulting from Speed-a-way, and her accumulation of black and blue marks. (Want me to fix you up?)

Well, we can't call the B. C. girls' basketball team undefeated, but they have won two games. This insidious team is composed of: Sandy David, P. J. (Wilt) Gordon, Elaine Hilbert, Jane McClain, Myrna Morton, Lea Moses, Karole Panameroff, Dee Rankin, Marion Pond, Kay Spanbauer, and Carole Lazarus.

Have you ever thought about getting an A.R.C. instructor's certificate? It might come in handy sometime when you're looking for a summer job. A course began March 11 at the Y.W.C.A. pool. All you need to be eligible is your senior lifesaving certificate, and, guess what, boys? You're invited too!

Berms for Boys!

By Carole Mae Lazarus

Bare knees or not bare knees... that is the question. The controversial question of bermudas for boys was asked of the student body and faculty of Behrend in a recent survey.

Two-thirds of our pretty co-eds approved of this idea with such remarks as, "great idea," "neat looking and casual," and "I like 'em!"

On the other hand, in answer to our question, "What do you think of bermudas for boys?" a perky co-ed remarked, "I try not to think about it!"

The majority of fellows, however, don't seem to agree with the gals, for only one-third of them think bermudas are sensible. Their firm disapproval was expressed from a grotesque facial expression and an undistinguishable remark, to an emphatic, "Bermuda shorts!! Definitely not!!". As one bright lad put it "At this rate they'll be swinging from trees in fifty years!"

In spite of these remarks, 25 per cent of the fellows wear bermudas and claim they're comfortable and neat.

Our faculty was evenly divided on the pros and cons of the matter. Faculty members on the pro side agreed, "Everything had it proper time and place," and "Bermudas for boys, worn under proper conditions, are perfectly proper."

Well, fellows, these are the results. You act accordingly. By the way, do you wear bermudas?

the girls movies? Could it be the films, perhaps?

That's it for now, and don't forget... look out for "Blackie Carbon" on Gospel Hill tonight!

Sports Review

By Ray Chop

Behrend's gymnasium was the scene of a high school wrestling tournament recently. Under the direction of Coach Goodwin, wrestlers with two or less varsity matches to their credit competed for the trophies. An unexpectedly high turnout of seventy-one wrestlers from the area schools turned up for the event.

The intramural basketball schedule got into full swing during the past few weeks. A total of four teams entered the program set up by Mr. Goodwin.

The standing of the clubs so far:

	W	L
Sparks	2	0
Stoops	1	1
Beginners	1	1
Bengal Lancers	0	2

Bud Seiffert (Stoops) with 36 points, Jerry Buzza (Beginners) with 26 points, and Ron Settlement (Sparks) with 25 points are the high-point men in the league.

An intramural sports program for girls has been set for Monday nights from 6:00 to 7:00. The girls are offered bowling, badminton, volley ball, and basketball. So far, the girls haven't been showing much interest. Come on, girls, get hep! Turn in a list of the members of your team for any of the aforementioned sports to Coach Goodwin.

That's about all in the way of sports news around B. C. campus for now.

Bowling

By Helene Longo

Bowling: the careful aim and release of the ball with the arm and shoulder straight; the encouraging cheers from one's teammates as he aims for the needed strike; the replies of "too bad," "almost had it," and "get it the next time" as one misses a spare; the graceful swaying of the ten pin as it rocks back in place; intense concentration to obtain the proper balance of the feet and arm; the carefree laughter of Tudy Russell as she slides half way down the alley after the ball; the confusion on a new bowler's face as everyone shouts some last minute instructions; the disappointment as a "sure" strike turns into a split; the befuddled score keeper who is unfamiliar with the bowlers; the proud feeling as one bowls a new high game.

FACULTY MEMBERS

Under Mrs. Falkenhagen's direction, the girls chosen are studying and preparing the selections which they will present this spring.

The runner-ups in the contest were: Lucille Gardner, Jane McClain, Judith Trench and Marion Rynd.

free coke, tea, or punch. Susie Tully, Rose Dobbs, Amy Curtis, and Harriet Hansen will be in charge. They will be aided by "Tudy" Russell, Betsy Seanor, Joan Hedglin, Dee Rankin, and Sue Ross. Anne Blackman and Myrna Morton are in charge of publicity.

The Behrend girls hope to see all of you there, faculty and students, every Wednesday afternoon.

STRIKES and SPARES

By Elaine Hilbert

Have any of you asked yourselves why Chuck Simons is walking down the bowling alleys at 10:00 at night pushing a mop? Well, the answer is that he is cleaning up after the Behrend bowlers.

Every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday there is league bowling. The other nights are left free for open bowling.

There are six teams at Behrend this semester who have achieved the names of the Elephants (the faculty), the Angels, Hawks, Terrors, Tigers, and the Eagles. So far the Hawks and the Angels have won two games each, and the Tigers and Eagles have won one.

The highest average so far belongs to Chuck D'Angelo with a score of 169. Some of the other league averages are:

McKenzie	158
Caruana	152
Anderson	150
Gregeroff	150
McCarter	147
Luce	142
Simchick	140
Pasquino	137
Henry	136
Hall	135
Mitchell	130
Sprankle	130
Cipriani	124
Stenta	120
Shank	119

Helene Longo has broken her previous record of 146 with a new bowling score of 163! Will she and Jim McKenzie win the honor of high scoring champs again?

The bowling at Behrend is very reasonable, considering what you would pay in town. Only 25 cents a game.

Our women bowlers are setting a good pace in averages, too, as can be seen below.

Rankin	119
Longo	118
Seanor	108
Evanoff	105
Heffner	103
Rynd	101
Russell	100
Nardi	94
Adler	92
Wade	89
Spanbauer	88
Theobald	84
Hilbert	74
Schreve	66

So long now, be seeing you at the bowling alleys.

Search For Youth

Norman Balmer, ten year old son of Professor and Mrs. Louis Balmer, decided to go skiing. However his hike to find a place resulted in a scare for the Behrend Campus. Along with two fire companies and a civil defense crew, a group of volunteers (students and instructors) aided in the search. Norman was found uninjured and in fine condition at Belle Valley, a town ten miles from his home.

"I feel like a Coke. Do you?"

Of course. Most everyone does—often. Because a few moments over ice-cold Coca-Cola refresh you so.

It's sparkling with natural goodness, pure and wholesome—and naturally friendly to your figure.
